An engagement announcement of great interest, made today by Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Pickens, is that of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth, to Mr. Kenneth H. Peterson, son of Mrs. George Peterson.

Miss Pickens attended Brownell Hall and later was a pupil of Mrs. Somers' school in Washington, D. C. After finishing her studies in the east, Miss Pickens made her debut, and three years ago was crowned queen of Ak-Sar-Ben. She ruled in Quivera's realm with Mr. Thomas C. Byrne. Miss Pickens' friends are delighted that her approaching wedding will not take her from Omaha. No definite plans as yet have been made for the wedding, but in all probability will be in the early spring. Mr. Peterson is secretary and treasurer of the Nebraska Fuel company of Omaha.

Wolfe-Macrae Wedding.

The wedding of Miss Marion Macrae, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Donald Macrae, and Mr. Clifford Warren Wolfe, will be celebrated Tuesday evening, January 6, at 8 o'clock, in St. Paul's Episcopal church in Council Bluffs. This will be a large wedding, followed immediately by a reception at the home of the bride's parents.

Miss Marie Stewart will be maid of honor and Mr. Dudley Wolfe best man. The bridesmaids will be Misses Louise Dinning, Gwendoline Wolfe, Louise Haas, Kansas City, and Katherine McMillan of Fox du Lac, Wis. The ushers will be Messrs. Roger Keeline, Council Bluffs; Raymond Low, Omaha; Donald McPherson, Chicago, and Donald Macrae.

Miss Macrae will be the guest of honor at a series of luncheons in Council Bluffs. The first one will be at the home of Mrs. E. A. Wickham. The following Monday Mrs. William Coppock entertains at luncheon for Miss Macrae, and Tuesday Miss Dudley, Wednesday, Mrs. E. A. Merritt, and Thursday, Mrs. George Van Brunt will give luncheons at their homes. Mr. Roger Keeline will give a theater party Thursday evening, which will be followed by a supper at the Country club, when Miss Marie Stewart will be the hostess.

With the School Set.

All social activity is centered around the interests of the school set from now on until after the holiday time is over. Every night this week the calendar holds a dancing party for these young folks, and if the older set is notified at all for the next two weeks, it will be as a side issue only.
