Celebrate this Christmas

in your own home

The man or woman with his or her own home has the real Christmas feeling.

The home is your own and your fortress against the vicissitudes of life.

It shelters you in times good or bad.

It is the one unfailing insurance; it will be your gift to yours after you, into the generations.

Buy your family a home for Christmas

$25 to $500 down will do it. Just think of the thousands of Omaha people now paying rent who could call their homes their very own within a few years and pay no more, often less, per month.

It will be a good start on the New Year--a good start towards Prosperity to take advantage of the splendid opportunities advertised in the real estate columns of the Want Ad section today. Read them and see what can be done with a little money.
