GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Big Men in Wheat Pit on the Bull Side of the Market.

CORN HOLDS UP IN ITS PRICE Yellow Cereal is Holding Its Own as

n Reflection of the Strength that the Other Cereals Are Showing.

OMAHA, Dec. II, 1914.

The big men of the grain market, as well as elsewhere, are on the buil side of wheat, not only in the future, but in the cash as well.

At Minneapolis nearly the entire milling and grain trade is bullish on wheat. These same conditions exist at Winnipeg, as well as in both the large southwestern markets. At New York and Baltimore there are many bulls on wheat, but those markets, as well as the markets of the southwest and northwest, must be in a position to follow Chicago in case cash changes are made.

Corn has held up well in price, not only because there has been a better demand on export account, but mainly because of the strength displayed in cash wheat and the general belief that foreigners will require more of the golden cereal than they have been buying heretofor.

Outs have held their own in price and the export demand is now on the increase.

NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—Such hopeful in-ferences as the financial district may have drawn from last week's rate decision granting eastern railroads a general freight advance were largely nullified or set aside today when it became known that the Pennsylvania public service com-mission had ordered a drastic reduction, in coal freight rates between some of the important anthracite centers and Philadelphia. While officials of the roads most con-

While officials of the roads most con-cerned professed to regard the decision as entirely local in extent, speculativa Wall street evidently chose to accept it in a less favorable spirit. This was re-flected in persistent selling of Reading and Lehigh Valley shares, which fell to new low prices for the present move-ment. In the final hour the list was subjected to further unsettlement and lower prices.

In the final hour the list was subjected to further unsettlement and lower prices. The decline was ted by United States Steel, which had held a fraction above fifty despite continued offerings, some of them being in blocks of 1.00 shares or more. Steel finally fell to 49%, or exactly it above its minimum figure. It was regarded as significant of market conditions that the committee which controls prices on the exchange deemed it expedient to establish new minimum quotations for the southern group of roads, including Atlantic const line, Louisville and Nashville, seaboard preterred and Southern railway common and preferred. As a matter of fact hare that been no recent trading in these stocks, most of which have undergone dividend revision during the closure of the exchange and since its reopening. In the course of the day's business, which was far below normal, some of the equipment shares and Bethlehem Steel prefecred showe! signs of demand at slightly higher prices, but this group fell back with the entire list at the close, which was weak.
