ANTA CLAUS is on all the corners of Omaha and seems to be just as busy as he can be, but he is going to give some of his time very soon to the poor little Italian children of Omaha and fill all of their stockings to the very brim.

The Christ Child society is holding its annual Christmas tree this year at Sixth and Pierce streets, in the Italian hall there. Eight years ago this society was organized by Miss Stella Hamilton, now Mrs. Daniel Stapleton of South America, and its object is the relief and instruction of the Italians of the city

Every Saturday morning a band of Omaha's well known women go down to St. Philomena's school and teach these children to sew, cook and give them religious instruction. The Christmas tree celebration will be held next Monday afternoon. The children look forward to it as the event in their rather humdrom little lives,

From this tree they get whatever they have asked for in letters written to the Christ Child for aid, and then dear old Santa Claus himself comes down personally, distributes the gifts, and adds thrills to the hearts

The Rt. Rev. Elshop Scannell will preside and will address the children. The officers of the society are Mrs. M. R. Murphy, president; Mrs. Swartzlander and Miss Julia Mullen, vice presidents; Miss Ophelia Hayden, secretary, and Miss Bushman, treasurer. F. B. Aldous is chairman of relief and is assisted by a committee of twelve.

Pepper-Rachman Wedding. The wedding of Miss Florence Blanch Rachman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Rachman, and Joseph C. Pepper was celebrated Monday evening at 8:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents. The ceremony was performed by Rabbi Frederick Cohn of Temple Israel. Harry Disbrow sang "For You," a composition of Vernon C. Bennett, Mr. Bennett playing the accompaniment, and afterward playing the Lohengrin wedding march for the bridal party. The bride wore an attractive gown of white ivory satin made with tunic and cape effect of white silk net. The bodice was made of Chantilly lace and chiffon, finished with a Lady Baltimore girdle. Fier veil was of tulle with a frill of Duchesse lace, held in place with lilles of the valley. She carried a shower bou-

Over Five Hundred Festive Birds in the Local Mail Daily

Over 500 turkeys and other Christmas fowls are being received at the Omaha postoffice each day for delivery to local families for Yuletide dinners. Ducks, geess and chickens are included in the big "meat market" department at the postoffice, and each package bears a special tag and is given immediate atten-

Superintendent of Mails Metland says there are more Christmas fowls in the mails this year than ever before, due to the increased use being given the parcel post system by the public. Many of the fowls have been shipped a considerable distance and the postage is quite low.

Over Ten Thousand Christmas Parcels Received Monday

Over 10,000 Christmas parcels were mailed at the Omaha poetoffice Monday, when the high tide of the holiday Peoria, Ill., where he will remain over rush was reached. Although the parcels were not accurately counted, Superin-Mr. C. J. La a leaves tonight for Grand tendent of Mails Metland estimates that there were at least 10,000. Over 1,300 of them were insured for a fee of 5 or 10 cents extra.

Next We Will Give

Now listen to this girls. When we opened the doll box to get one for this week, what should greet us but a pair of twins. Think of it-we were quite puzzled to know what to do at first, because one is enough for any little Busy Bee to care for. but we soon decided upon a plan-The Twins are to go to the country to some little girl living on a farm, where there's plenty of nice fresh milk every day, and lots of room to romp and play when they are big

All the dollies so far have been won by the girls in the cities, and now I am sure you will all be glad to help some little girl on a farm win the Twins. No one else can get them.

The Twins will be given free to the little girl under 12 years of age, that brings or mails us the largest number of doll's pictures cut out of the Daily and Sunday Rec before

4 p. m. Saturday, January 2. The Twins pictures will be in The Bee every day this week. Cut them out and ask your friends to save the pictures in their paper for you too. See how many pictures of The Twins you can get, and be sure to turn them in to The Bee office before 4 p. m. Saturday, Jan. 2.
