TIP O'NEILL STILL IS GENIAL OPTIMIST

Western League Prexie Declares No Yelps Are Heard Emanating from This Circuit.

SEES BRIGHT FUTURE AHEAD Says Next Year Will Be Both Profitable Financially and that Federals Will Have No Effect with Their Raiding.

Tip O'Neill, the genial optimist and president of the Western league, has come forth with an interview in which he declares the Western league is on a sound, solid basis, fears not the terrible Federals, was a swell financial investment last year and will be again this year.

Hope for Patronage. It is to be hoped that O'Neill's pleasant prophecies may bear out when the 1915 season rolls around. It is to be hoped

HAPPENINGS ABOUT THE MAGIC CITY

Democrats Fear They Will Miss Out on Pie and There is Great Lamentation.

MANY ARE ON ANXIOUS SEAT "Forward Looking" Preparing for Possible Consolidation—Several Would Be Commuters.

South Omaha as well as Omaha is destined to feel the exorbitant agency of unassisted longing for political pie. Word comes now from the office of Sheriff McShane that the partisan proxemics of South Omaha democrats in the late campaign were not such as merit much consideration from the democratic victors.

NEW COACH IN VIEW FOR CREIGHTON TEAM Harry Miller, for the last four years head of the Creighton foot ball team, will probably not be coach at Creighton next year, according to a statement made by a member of the athletic board Saturday.
