

MAY WHEAT RISES TO NEW WAR RECORD

Free Bid Up to $1.41 3-4 on News of Higher Prices at Liverpool and the Seaboard.

CAR OF DURUM SELLS AT $2.07

CHICAGO, Jan. 8.—Wheat today shot straight toward the zenith. In consequence, as high as $1.41 3-4 a bushel was paid for May, the chief speculative option—a rise in excess of 3¢ a bushel beyond what had been realized when values yesterday were at the acme of a big whirl. The close today was unsettled, with May at $1.36 1/2, a gain of 2 1/2¢, compared to last night.

Smashing of record prices began promptly today at the first going on "change." Opening quotations were 5¢ to 15¢ above last night. May wheat, the leading option, jumped to $1.39 1/2, as against $1.33 1/2, the tip top for yesterday. Reports of an ultimatum to Turkey by Italy had an explosive effect with buyers.

On a second wave of buying, May wheat went to $1.40 a bushel, the highest figures, with few exceptions, in fifty years. The parallel thus going back broadly to the American civil war. Today's high prices were supported by dispatches telling of excitement in the grain trade at Liverpool and admitting that demand there was keen.

In the final hour, another cent a bushel was added to the previous values, so that May wheat was quoted at $1.41 a bushel. Meanwhile it was announced that bids from Great Britain at American seaboard has risen 4 cents, as compared with yesterday. It was also stated that a cargo of durum wheat had been sold at $2.07, delivered in Italy. Only twenty-four hours ago it was thought a marvel to get $1.95 for durum, delivered abroad.

Before the day was over commission houses found it necessary to demand a big increase of margins from customers who sought to trade in wheat. The violent changes in the market resulted in a margin of 10 cents a bushel being generally required. Twenty cents a bushel has been the rule. The doubling of margins put speculators under a handicap, and soon reduced the volume of pit transactions.

FIGHT IN TRENCHES RAGES VIOLENTLY

on us, but in the afternoon we checked this fire from the Germans.

"In the sector of Rheims, to the west of the forest des Zouaves, we blew up a block house and occupied a trench 200 yards in advance of our lines.

The artillery engagements between British and French were conducted yesterday with great fierceness. The Germans left many dead on the field, our losses were not heavy. Between Jemchery-sur-Sippe and Souaine we slung and again reduced the artillery of the enemy, demolished his trenches and destroyed his breastworks.

French Trenches Blown Up

"In the Argonne to the west of Haute Chevauchee, the enemy, by means of a mine, blew up some of our first line trenches, which were completely demolished. A violent attack undertaken at once by the enemy on our positions was repulsed with the bayonet. We took some prisoners and we maintained our front, except for a distance of eighty yards. Here the demolition of the trenches obliged us to establish our line twenty yards further back.

"On the heights of the Meuse and between the Meuse and the Moselle there is nothing to report. Here the wind blew a tempest all day long January 7.

"Our offensive continued yesterday. In the region of Thann and near Altkirch and brought important results. We recaptured the trenches on the eastern flank of Hill 62, a position where the enemy two days ago succeeded in re-establishing itself. We then gained some ground to the east of these trenches. Further to the south we occupied Burnhaupt-le-Haut, and at the same time we made progress in the direction of Pont d'Aspach and the Kallberg.

"The artillery of the enemy, which had endeavored, without success, to reach our batteries, gave over shooting at our artillery in favor of the exclusive bombardment of the hospital at Thann, which has been evacuated."

Those racking la grippe coughs that wrench the body and cause soreness and pains in the lungs yield more quickly to Foley's Honey and Tar than to any other treatment. Lower State Officers of Colorado Blamed for Coal Miners' Strike

DENVER, Colo., Jan. 8.—The Colorado coal miners' strike could have been averted "if the proper and hearty cooperation of our executive officers of the state government," says the report of the special committee appointed at the extra session of the legislature last May to investigate the strike. For this reason, the report continues, "it is not out of place to recommend to the present legislature the consideration of a constitutional amendment for the election of a governor and lieutenant governor and providing that the balance of the executive officers of the state be appointed by the governor."

The committee's report was submitted to the general assembly today. The state cannot legally operate coal mines in the state in competition with privately owned mines except by the adoption of a constitutional amendment.

PRINT FIGHT IN DAKOTA Members in Coyote Scuffle Over Number of Bills to Be Printed for Distribution.

PIERRE, S. D., Jan. 8.—(Special Telegram.)—The bitter contest over printing a resolution by Quilkstad setting the fortieth day as the last for receiving general bills and the forty-fifth day as the last for committee bills, which is the earliest closing date ever fixed.

COMMISSION FORM ATTACKED

The resolution fixing pay days and the mid-session recess showed January 22 as the date members want to take their leave. The whole matter finally went to a special committee. The house adopted a resolution on Thursday setting the fortieth day as the last for receiving general bills and the forty-fifth day as the last for committee bills, which is the earliest closing date ever fixed.

Among the senate bills today was one by Hagen of Beadle which gives cities which have adopted a commission form of government the right to back up and again adopt the council form if so desired by a majority of the voters of their city.

Widow presented a bill in the house fixing the liability of townships and counties for damages caused by defective bridges, dividing the responsibility on the line between structures constructed by the different subdivisions.

Several committees were announced, the chairman of which are: Health, Miller; cities under commission, Printup; education, Whittemore; agriculture, Lincoln; mines and mining, May; charitable institutions, Morris.

They have offered to raise the salary of Mr. Morris to more than he would receive as an appointee of Dr. Thomas, the amount offered being $1,500 for nine months' work, but Mr. Morris is anxious to get into a larger field, and while he may be compelled to stay until the close of the school year, will join the superintendent's force at that time.
