SEEKING WARMER CLIMATES

Society Folks Move Away to Avoid the Colder Periods of This Section.

SOCIAL AFFAIRS ARE NUMEROUS

Social Calendar.

hostess, Aiss Antropy Provide Town, the burgh.
WEDNESDAY-Subscription club, dancing party at Turpin's academy. The Wednesday Bridge club, Mrs. John Potter Webster hostess. Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Hall, dinner. Mr. and Mrs. John A. McShane, dinner.
THURSDAY-Franco-Beigian Relief committee, Miss Jessie Millard hostess.
FRIDAY-Suty-Six Dancing club party at Chambers' academy. Friday Auclion Bridge club, with Mr. and Mrs. E. Stetken. Fidelus club high five and bridge party at Chamber-dance club party at Chambers' academy. Friday Auclion Bridge club, with Mr. and Mrs. E. Stetken. Fidelus club high five and bridge party at their hall.
8ATURDAY-Dinner-dance club with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ewing. City Central Suffrage committee, Young Women's Christian association, 2:30 p. m., Eale Vandergrift Bengdict speaker.

Society is still being attracted by the warmer climes.

Each day brings added news of the solourners at southern resorts and the plans of others to follow the alluring tralls.

The mecca of many this year, seems to be southern California, which holds a two-fold interest this year. The travelers to that point are planning to thaw out way down south and visit the coast exposition en route home

Mrs, Fred Metz and daughter, Miss Harriet Metz, and Mrs. Charles E. Metz will go to California the first of February to visit the latter's fruit ranch near La Crescenta.

Mr. and Mrs. F. R. McConnell are in San Diego, Cal., with their daughter, Mrs. Robert Lowell Parker.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gulou and children left Thursday for Hollywood, Cal. Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Bowman leave the first of the week for Los Angelos, where they plan to spend the winter. Mr. and Mrs. Bowman will visit the San Diego and Son Francisco expositions on their way hu

Mr. and Mrs. Gurdon W. Wattles will not go to their winter home, "Zualita," in Hollywood, this year until March. Mrs. Charles Johannes leaves soon to spend the winter in Los Angeles. One of the interesting trips will be taken by Miss Harriet Copley, daughter, of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Copley. She will leave Friday, January 22, for New York, where she will join Mr. and Mrs. Austin Collett and sali January 29 for San Domingo to spend several months. Plans for the opening of the Fontenelle hotel are interesing society just now. It is the most discussed topic at every gathering and parties are being made up each day for the opening night-but this is just where a great many are to be fooled. According to the latest reports, the first night the favored ones only are to Le guests,

The management is now planning an ciaborate banquet for the opening night and the guests on this occasion are to be the stockholders of the Douglas Hotel company, their wives and sweethearts. The onlise hotel on this evening will be turned over for the inspection of of Omahs, formerly of Salt Lake City. Miss Riley is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hiley and has always made her home with her aunt, Mrs. Benedon

She attended the Holy Cross convent at Notre Dame, Ind., and is an interested alumus of that institution. No definite plana are made for the wedding, but it will possibly be in the late spring, and will be a small home wedding.

Social Calendar. MONDAY-The Coronado club, grand ball at Rome hotel. Original Monday Bridge club. Formightly Bridge club, Mrs. Fred Wallace hostess. TUESDAY-Thimble club. Mrs. J. F. Carpenter hostess. Creighton Medical club. Debutante Bridge club. Miss. J. F. Carpenter hostess. Creighton Medical club. Behutante Bridge club. Miss. J. F. Carpenter hostess. Creighton Medical club. Behutante Bridge club. Miss. J. F. Carpenter hostess. Creighton Medical club. Behutante Bridge club. Miss. J. F. Scotor, Lucheen at her home. Mrs. L. F. SCrotoot, luncheen at her home. Mrs. and Mrs. O. C. Redick, dinner. Mr and Mrs. John S. Brady, Orpheum party Amsteur Musical club. Mrz. A. I. Root hostess. Miss Marjorie Howland, tea tor Mrs. Thomas Heyward of Pitta-Burgh. WEINFERDAY-Subgerintion club. danc

BRIDE OF THE WEEK-Mrs. Isaac Black of Atlantic, Ia., who was Miss Ruth Meyer of Omaha. The wedding occurred on Wednesday evening.

THE OMAHA SUNDAY BEE: JANUARY 10, 1915.

HER ENGAGEMENT TO WED IS JUST ANNOUNCED.

and games, the prizes were awarded to Mrs. M. M. Robertson, Mrs. G. W. Munger, Mr. W. F. Webber and Mr. Engagement Announced. Franz Nelson Assisting during the evening were Misses Muriell Weber, Lucille Henderson and Willabell Olsen. Those present were: Messers: and Mesdames-M. M. Robertson, J. E. Talmage, T. R. Braden, Franz Nelson, T. R. M. Burges, E. N. Clark, J. J. Henderson, Mesdames-George N. Munger, Ella Touer, Missos-Missos-Missos-

Misses-Lucille Henderson Murielle Webber, Athe Howes, Nillabell Olson of Menars.--Harry Howes, Ralph Hender

Organize Dancing Club. A dancing class was recently organized by a number of the school set and masts every Saturday evening at Turpin's to the new dance eevning were: isses-Misses-Misses-Misses-Misses-Misses-Misses-Misses-Misses-Margaret T McLaughlin, Messra-Messra-McLaughlin, Messra-Messralearn the new dance steps. The guests

ing, the occasion being her birthday and by Mesdames C. F. Ratekin, K. Stewart high five and bridge departments at their twentieth wedding anniversary. Mrs. and Misses Clare Dahlon and Nelle hall, Fortieth and Webster street, Fri-Henderson received many beautiful gifts Barnum. Three tables of players were day afternoon. of china. The evening was spent in cards present. The club will meet again in two

> Mr. and Mrs. A. Kantrovitz annouce the engagement of their daughter, Lena Kantrovitz, to Mr. Samuel Jacoboff.

Holsapple-Peck Wedding. A wedding of interest to Omaha is that of Rev. Lloyd B. Holsapple and Miss the third party of their series at the Willard Peck of Hudson, N. Y., which ing. was celebrated Saturday morning at Christ church at Hudson.

present. There were no attendants. The marriage ceremony was performed by Dean George W. Kinkead of Salina, Kan. Rev. Mr. Holsapple has only been a resident of this city since last summer, when he came here to take the place of

Rev. Father John Williams, who retired from St. Barnabas. He is a Yale and Oxford college man and was one of the many Americans caught abroad at the outbreak of war.

After a short wedding trip Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Holsapple' will make their home in this city, at 3310 Davenport street.

The Coronado club will celebrate their weeks at the home of Mrs. R. L. Rowe. first anniversary by giving a dancing party at the Rome hotel Monday evening. The entire lower floor, including the parlors, will be at the disposal of the guests and unique lighting effects have been arranged. The committee is planning to have the second annoversary ball, which will be held about this time next year, a large charity ball. The Cinosam Dancing club will give Mary L. Peck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Scottish Rite cathedral Wednesday even-Miss Marjorie Howland will entertain informally at tea Tuesday in honor of The wedding was very quiet, just the Mrs. Thomas Heyward of Pittsburgh, family and very near friends being who has spent the holidays with her parand Mrs. R. B. Busch. Mrs. Heyward leaves Thursday for her home. The Pan Dancing club announces a change of their next party from Thurs-ing, January 29. Mr. and Mrs. John S. Brady will give an Orpheum theater party and supper at the Omaha club Tuesday evening in honor of their son and his bride, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Brady. A dancing party will be given Wednesday evening, January 21, to Friday even-day evening at Harte's hall in Dundee by the members of the La Plasoma club. Prior to the Subscription dance Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Hall will entertain at dinner, as will Mr. and Mrs. Brogan, Judge and Mrs. Redick, Mrs. Remington and Mr. Harry McCormick and Mr. and Mrs. Gould Dietz.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sobotker will enfertain at bridge Monday evening in honor of Mrs. Thomas Heyward of Pittsburgh. Mrs. John Potter Webster will entertain the members of the Wednesday Bridge club at her home Wednesday. The debutantes will resume their bridge club meetings Tuesday, at the home of Miss Marion Kuhn.

Personal Mention.

Mrs. Gould Dietz is spending a few days n Lincoln Mrs. Fred Mets and Miss Gertrude Mets leave today for New York. Mrs. W. A. Redick went to Minneapolis Tuesday to visit friends for a week. Mrs. A. G. Beesda is expected home the early part of next week from Lafayette.

Ind. Mr. and Mrs. H. J. McCarthy returned Wedneeday from a fortnight's visit in Chicago.

Mrs. Frank L. Haller 19 at Colfax Springs, haveing gone there last week for short stay. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crawford are in

New York City and will be gone about two weeks longer. Charles and Lewis Burgess, Denman

Kountze, Morse Palmer and Floyd Smith,

Continued on Page Eleven-Col. Three.)

REAL STORE SERVICE

That's what you get when you shop at COMBS-the store that has always led. No matter what is your want you can always get it at Combs.

If it is repair work or special order work our prompt efficient service will please you.

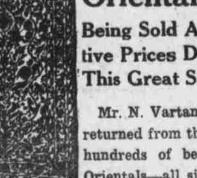

EXCLUSIVE N. Y. WORLD War News Cables In Addition to ASSOCIATED PRESS

Oriental Rugs Being Sold At Attractive Prices During This Great Sale.

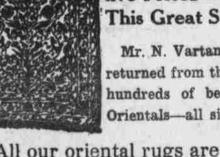

Mr. N. Vartanian has just returned from the East with hundreds of beautiful new Orientals-all sizes.

All our oriental rugs are included in this sale at very attractive discounts. Every price reduction is genuine-the NEW RUGS are included.

Large room size rugs-a wonderful showing of Belouchistans, Kurdistans, Sarouks, etc. just received.

ored guests and the evening promises to be a delightful one. It is planned to hold the annual exhibition of the Omaha Society of Fine Arts at the new hotel in March.

With the Visitors.

Mrs. Emma Johnston is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Goorge Johnston. Mrs. Thomas Moonlight Murphy and son. Thomas, .jr., will arrive today to sob. Thomas, Jr., will arrive today to apand two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Thompson at the Merriam hotel. Mrs. R. W. Moody and two children. who have been apending the holidays with Mrs. Moody's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Campbell, have returned to their home in Chicago. Mrs. Hingh Wead of St. Louis, who was formerly Miss Faith Potter of Omaha.

formerly Miss Faith Potter of Omaha, left inst evening for her home after vis-iting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Mrs. Thomas Heyward, who has been Dinner Dansantes at the Rome. here for the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Busch, will return dinner dansantes to be given of raday to Pittsburgh.

Philadelphia. 'Mrs. Baum left Saturday Walker and Miss Helen Kroner have been for Lincoln to visit before returning east. engaged to instruct and give exhibitions Mr. and Mrs. Baum have been spending of the late and novel dances. the holidays here with Mr. and Mrs.

Kirkendall, and have beeen extensively Informal Dinner. entertained during their stay in Omaha.

News of the Wayfarers.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Byrne are visiting in Washington, D. C. They have gone east to attend the wedding of Mrs. Hyrne's sister, Miss Inez Jones, which is to be celebrated Tuesday, January 11. will remain for six weeks with relatives.

Mrs. A. V. Einsley is expected home Tuesday morning. Mrs. Kinsler anccomrainled her daughter, Miss Ruth, to A school, at Notre Dame, and enroute home is visiting friends in Chicago.

Return to College.

Miss Marion Howe, accompanied by her father, loft last night for school. Mr. at dinner at their home Saturday even-Howe goes as far as Toledo, where she ing, when covers were laid for eight will be met by all of her school friends guests. and continue the trip to New York. Mr. Mrs. Zimman gave a box party Satur-

Hobert Howe left last Sunday for New day evening, when the guests were: LAVER Mosdames-Douglas and Keith Cavers will return academy.

Birthday Party.

Mrs. George M. Wood, assisted by Miss Mary O'Nell, entertained Friday afternoon for her son, Glenn, in honor of his siath birthday. Green and red were used in the decorations and the guests and the second se

Minnes-	Missea
Frances Larson.	Elizabeth Ruf.
Margaret Donahus,
Jean Cote.	Edith Johnston.
Measure	Messer
Ralph Wollings.
	Lawrence Welch,
Howard Cox,	Raymond Wood
Ardit Johnson.	Edwin Davies.
Hobert Bryan,
	Theodore Ruf.
Landon Grant,	John Thiesson,
George Merrell,	Glenn Wood.
and the second sec	and an and an and an and an

Engagement Announced.

Mrs. Catherine Bancson announces the Anniversary Surprise. engagement of her nieces, Miss Martha Mrs. George J. Henderson was the honor Lillian Biley, to Mr. Ernest Milton Durch guest at a surprise party Friday even-held next Thursday to elect the officers for this year.

News of the Army.

The second and third battalions of the Fourth infantry at Galveston were among the fortunate ones to be ordered to New Orleans for the Centennial celebration of the battle of New Orleans this week, and the wives and officers were allowed to accompany them on the transport that sailed with them from Galveston. Among the army women was Mrs. Carlisle Whiting, formerly Miss Elizabeth Sweet of this oity.

The Rome hotel management announce dinner dansantes to be given every Wednesday and Saturday from 5:30 until

Mr. J. E. Baum returned Thursday to $:30 in the new ball room. Mr. Harry

Mrs. George Johnston Will entertain informally at dinner this eventag at their home in Dundee. The guests will be: Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Eslick. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. C. Kennedy. Mrs. Emma Johnston.

Recent Affairs.

Mrs. A. Johnson entertained the men Mr. Byrne is making a business trip and bers of the Iowa Kensington club at her will return in two weeks, but Mrs. Byrns home Friday afternoon. Those present were:

Amateur Musical Club. The Amateur Musical club will meet Tuesday afternoon. The subject of the afternoon will be "Polanaise and Bar-carolies," and the club will be entertained at the home of Mrs. A. I. Root.

Return from Excelsior Springs. Mr. W. J. Hypes and Mr. N. B. Updike returned Monday from Excelsior Springs, Mo. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Love spont New

Year's at Excelsior Springs, Mo., re-turning Monday,

Mrs. F. D. Brown entertained the members of the Daisy High Five club Friday at the Metropolitan club. afternoon. The high scores were made

For the Future The Columbian circle will give an evening party Thursday at their hall. The Columbus club will give a dancing party Saturday evening, January 16. The Fidelus club will entertain

Oriental and domestic novelties favors and many small things that make desirable prizes for the everpopular card parties, ALLA SHOP

211-215 City National Bank Building.

415-17 S. 16th Street

