Annual Session of Organization Begins with Meeting of the Pioneers.

REQUESTS FIRE PROTECTION

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 12,-(Special Telogram.)-The Nebraska State Historical ociety began its annual session here this afternoon, beginning with a short session afternoon the executive committee of the historical society held a session, disposing of routine matters. The regular meeting will begin tomorrow. A musical program was given this evening.

Want Fire Protection.

In a special message to the house this Regan and Anderson Introduce Resoafternoon Governor Morehend called attention to the danger from fire that the $10,000,000 in securities were exposed to in the office of the auditor and the state treasurer, and asked that steps be taken for securing a better place. In accord with the executive's wishes, a commit tee composed of Richmond, Trumble and Peterson was appointed to confer with State Treasurer Hall on the matter.

NEMAHA COUNTY MAN WILL RETURN TO GERMANY

AUBURN, Neb., Jan. 12 .- (Special.)-John Krienhop of Nemaka county is making arrangements for securing passports and other necessary papers to reurn to his native land. Germany. He has three brothers serving in the German army and a sister who has been very sick and he is going over to look after the sister's welfare. Kreienhop became a citizen of the United States in 1900. He made a trip to Germany in 1907. Having come to this country when he was 16 years of age and being now a citizen of his country he will not be subject to military duty, but nevertheless runs considerable risk of inconvenience and trouble of one kind or another in gol # to Germany at this time. The work of securing the necessary papers to make the trip requires a great amount of red tape. His application for passports, which were filed with the clerk of the district court of Nemaha county had to be accompanied by two photographs of the applicant. One of these will be attached to the passport which will be is-

Governor's House In Pierre Planned

PIERRE, S. D., Jan. 12.-(Special Telegram.)-Construction of a governor's mansion in this city is the final object of a resolution which was introduced in the house by Withee this afternoon, calling for the appointment of a joint committee with senate representatives to take first steps toward selecting a site in this city for such a building. The plan is to get the measure under way as this session to be completed at tuture ses-

There is complaint that člerks who are not residents of the state are being given official appointments and this called out a resolution by Courtney, requiring the speaker to swear all appointees as to their actual residence for the last six months and that no clerk be employed who cannot show a residence in the state for that length of time. The special election committee reported this afternoon in the Molitor-Donahoe case recommending that Donahoe, demoeratic sitting member, is entitled to retain the seat as a member from the Tripp, Mellette and Bennett county district, the report going over until to morrow.

Birch in the house this afternoon made start toward an investigation of the charge that state affairs are extravagently conducted, asking for the appointment of a joint committee to investigate report upon the complains of extravagantly conducted, asking for the appointment of a joint committee to investigate and report upon the complaints of extravagance.

That Good Friday should be added to the list of legal holidays in this state is the opinion of Representative Mathaeson. who has started a bill in the house to secure that end. In the senate Whitter introduced the bankers' guaranty act without the amendments added to it by the governor and the guaranty issue is one which will be amply discussed.
