

HOUSE NOT ANXIOUS TO O. K. RESOLUTION

Speaker Jackson Rules Out Discussion on the Hitchcock Anti-War Munitions Measure.

TO CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 14.—(Special Telegram.)—The Hitchcock resolution over this morning in the house until a future date on a ruling of Speaker Jackson after Greenwall had talked against it and Hostetter for it, on a call for a ruling by Reiser. Both Greenwall and Hostetter had made impassioned speeches, but the ruling of the speaker cut off the oratorical display.

He held its consideration was out of order because it had not been read on three different days and printed, as the constitution requires in the case of all bills and concurrent resolutions.

Brava Not Involved.

During the debate Representative Norton entered a specific disavowal of an alleged interview in which he was quoted as saying he had a telegram from Secretary of State Bryan asking him to oppose any endorsement of the Hitchcock bill.

No sooner had the senate resolution been called up on a motion by Mr. Reiser, democrat of Platte, than it was vigorously assailed by Mr. Greenwall, democrat of Custer.

"This resolution contains more sentiment than sense," declared Greenwall. "It is a direct slap at our president, whose hand has safely guided the helm of the ship of state for two years through shoals and dangerous places. I'm going to be the last man to make his task harder. I am opposed to this resolution in any form. Its promoters would look mighty small if they were stood up alongside of the president."

Mockett Wants Waiving.

Mr. Mockett called for a ruling on the point of order that the resolution was not properly before the house. The discussion continued until Mr. Reiser renewed the point of order, and Speaker Jackson sustained it.

Mr. Hoffmeister, democrat of Chase, declared that "this house has no right to question a resolution of the senate." He continued to talk in a somewhat excited vein until Reiser interrupted with a motion to adjourn. The Chase county member thereupon shook his fist at Reiser and poured forth a torrent of denunciation.

"I serve notice on you that you can't close my mouth," he shouted.

It Makes a Difference on What Subject Committeeman Is Wise

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Jan. 14.—(Special.)—It appears that intimate knowledge and experience along lines in which members of committees in the legislature are expected to worry does not always apply. On the committee on roads members of the legislature who are acquainted with road conditions are named, on the committee on banks bankers are named, on the judiciary committee lawyers are named, all because they are acquainted with the business with which they will come in contact.

SENATORS SEE PRINT GRAFT

PLAN TO AIR THE SUBJECT

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Jan. 14.—(Special.)—Although the contract for printing the daily senate journal is handled by a Lincoln newspaper publishing company, the senate charges that the price charged is twice what it ought to be.

A motion by Senator Kohl of Wayne for the appointment of a committee of investigation upon the subject of the cost of the daily journal carried without a dissenting vote. The committee consists of Senators Mattes, Henry and Spencer.

"They tell us," said Senator Quinby of Douglas, "that the cost of printing the daily journal will be $5,000 more than under the old system. I have been a printer for thirty-five years and I know that it can't possibly be true."

Senator Kiechel of Nemaha said he had been informed the price paid was nearly twice what it should be. He thought that the investigation would be a mighty good thing.

BANQUET CLOSSES SESSION OF THE HISTORICAL SOCIETY

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Jan. 14.—(Special Telegram.)—The State Historical society closed its 1915 session this evening with the annual banquet at the Lincoln hotel. Dr. F. L. Hall presided as toastmaster.

The university male quartet—Paul Griswold, James Allison, J. V. Harpham and Earl Jackson—furnished the musical program. The speakers were General John Lee Webster, G. W. Wattles and Victor Rosewater of Omaha, Charles W. Bryan of Lincoln and Samuel Avery, chancellor of the University of Nebraska.

The society strongly endorsed a proposition for the completion of the building started several years ago across the street from the southeast corner of the state house grounds.

BILL TO AID THE BLIND INTRODUCED BY MOCKETT

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Jan. 14.—(Special.)—Another bill appropriating $2,000 as the nucleus of a fund for the aid and relief of the blind outside state institutions has been presented by Representative Mockett. It is intended to encourage home industry and home teaching, assist blind persons in finding employment and in other ways to aid them. The fund is to be expended by the Board of Control, with the superintendent of the school for the blind and the executive board of the Nebraska association of workers for the blind acting as an advisory board.

Representative Scott of Hamilton county has gone home to Aurora on account of the critical condition of his son, aged 10, who suffered a bad fall several days ago. It is reported that the boy's injuries may prove fatal.

VALENTINE WATER RIGHT TO BE GRANTED BY BOARD

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Jan. 14.—(Special.)—The State Board of Irrigation at a hearing today reconsidered its former action and granted an extension of time to C. H. Cornell of Valentine in the matter of his application for water rights on the Nobrars.

About a month ago the board decided to deny the application. Mr. Cornell wants 1,600 cubic feet of water. He was represented today before the board by Attorney J. C. Quigley of Valentine.

D., Jan. 14.—(Special.)—Melvin Swenson, a 14-year-old boy, was found dead Monday night of this week about a mile and a half from his home, twenty miles north of Camp Crook, on a branch of Shaw creek. It seems the young man had been out hunting with a neighbor boy, traveling in a buggy to which they were driving a team. The body, with the team and buggy, was found, one of the horses being down in a ditch and the body of the boy was between the heels of the horse and the front wheels of the buggy.

Darnell, pastor of the Henry Simmons Memorial church in Kenosha, Wis., until his matrimonial affairs were brought to the attention of the church trustees, today filed his answer to a bill for divorce brought against him by Doris Vaughn Darnell.
