

When you buy your furniture you do not buy in a haphazard way at the first store you step into. You examine the stock, price and quality of each dealer and then decide to your best advantage.

Then why do you not show the same judgment when you move the furniture so carefully bought ! Why trust the moving of your goods to the first moving company that flits across your mind?

Experience will prove to you that it pays to investigate the claims and responsibility of your moving company. Do this and you will come to the conclusion that the GORDON way is the safe and sure way.

We have large automobile padded vans, competent, courteous drivers and years of experience to help you solve the moving problem. In case you wish to store your goods, an immense fireproof warehouse assures absolute protection.

It will pay you well when thinking of moving, storing or packing to call on the
