PLAYERS WORST OF SLAVES

CHICAGO, Jan. 20 .- The powers that control Organized Base Ball, or at least are said to control it, were described as oppressors of minor leagues and ball players by Keene Addington, chief or counsel for the Federal league, in his counsel for the rederal league, in the opening address today in the anti-trust suif against the National commission, the Addington cited features of the National agreement, decisions of the National commission and general practices of base ball authorities to show that the game is governed by a group having almost Omaha on Route of alisolute power, with authority to make laws, judge of infractions of the laws and impose penalties for infractions.

Addington had not finished his opening argument when court adjourned tonight and it was declared the case probably would last well into next week.
