hardwood advance case. It applies to den City, Kan., on Wednesday, courted cottonwood, gum and other similar umbers from Arkansas and Louislana to Memphis, St. Louis, Kansus City, Cniro and Omaha.

This affects such companies in Omaha as the Omaha Cooperage company, the Omaha & Council Bluffs Street Raliway ompany, the Omaha Hardwood Lumber ompany, Omaha Box tompany, Adams & Kelly company, Disbrow company, Brown & Co., and all manufacturers of boxes, barrels, or any commodity that uses these grades of hardwood. The increase in freight rates will mean an inreased price at the mills to make up for the extra charge in freight. The principal advance on lumber affecting Omaha is that on cottonwood and gum lumbers, gum staves and heating, which suffered a 4-cent advance in freight rates. All other hardwood lumbers suffered a 2-cent advance.

The only sign of relief the Omaha consumers got in the commission's order is hat on the rate from Cairo to Omaha and Kansas City 315 cents was asked for n increase, and the commission allowed out a 2-cent increase; and that where the roads asked a 3-bent increase from southern Arkansas they were allowed but a -cent increase.

The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get kritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To peutralise these britating acids and flush off the body's urinous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous saits is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and step bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive; harmless and makes a delightfut effervascent lithia-water drink which millions of nien and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder discuses.-Advertisement.

Vann, manager of the Omaha Traffic ureau, said; "The Omaha manufacturers and users of Mardwood lumber, upon which a large advance has been granted. took the position before the commission that the business would not stand the advance. If this proves to be the fact, the railroads will gain nothing in the way of revenues because the business will not move. On the other hand, if it appears that the business can stand the increased rates, Omaha will be in no worse position than before, because the rate has been raised equally to all markets that compete with Omaha, that is, disapproving the bill. Kansas City, Chicago, St. Louis, etc. There is no doubt that the southern roads ped from the southern field, will pay need additional revenues.
