Out-of-Town Engagement.

An out-of-town engagement of interest is that of Miss Grace E. Kuhns of Des Moines, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Kuhns, to Mr. William Heublin of Chicago. The date of the wedding has not been set, but it will probably be in the fall when it will be a prominent event in social circles in Des Moines.

Miss Kuhns attended Miss Clarke's school and later the National Park seminary at Washington, D. C.

Mr. Helms is connected with the General Electric company at Chicago, having received his technical training as an electrician at Cornell, Ithaca, N. Y. He is now at the Peabody Military academy, Miss Kuhns will be remembered as the popular guest of Miss Amy Gilmore at different times.

Engagements Announced.

Announcement is made in San Francisco, Cal., and Omaha today of the engagement of Miss Sadie Lesser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Lesser of that city and Mr. Henry Monsky. The date has been set for the wedding.

Miss Lesser attended the University of California at Berkeley and took special work in arts and music at Notre Dame college, San Jose. Mr. Monsky is a graduate of the Omaha High school and Creighton Law college class of 1911. He is a member of Delta Theta Phi fraternity and won the cum laude degree in his senior year.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Hoffman announce the engagement of their daughter, Hannah, and Mr. Louis Orms of Dallas, Tex. No date has been set for the wedding, but it will be celebrated late in the spring.

Wedding Announcements.

Miss Florence Trexler, daughter of Mrs. Arthur Hanson Thursday afternoon, and Miss Janet Cook, which was celebrated in New York City Monday, February the first. Lieutenant and Mrs. Lamphere will be at home in Empire Canal zone, after the first of March.

The marriage of Miss Frances Todd and Mr. Robert Bradford is to be celebrated very quietly Monday, Feb. 15, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Ringwalt at 8 o'clock in the evening. There will be no attendants and only a few close friends are to be asked to the wedding. The young couple will go to the Bahamas on their wedding trip and upon their return will occupy Mrs. Louis Bradford's apartment at the Reardon. Mrs. Bradford plans to go to California for the rest of the winter.

Field-Johnson Wedding.

The wedding of Miss Muriel C. Johnson and Mr. Dor E. Field, of Omaha but formerly of North Field, Vermont, was celebrated last evening at 8:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, Dr. Alice Johnson. The Rev. Thos. Lowe of the First Baptist church performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride was attractive in a gown of white ermine de chine made with chiffon bodice and elaborately trimmed with seed pearls. Her tulle veil was held in place with pearl ornaments and Miss of the valley. She carried a shower bouquet of brides roses.

Miss Mildred Johnson, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. Her gown was of pink chiffon made with a lace train and she carried an arm bouquet of Killarney roses. Miss Helen Frall and Miss Helen Harris stretched the white ribbons and they were gowned alike in pink satin charmeuse and wore carriage bouquets of French flowers.

Miss Irma Jones played the Lobengron wedding march and just before the ceremony Miss Ruth Gannon sang "Cannon's" "At Dawning," a reception followed by a luncheon for about 75 guests. The ceremony was profusely decorated with pink and white roses and palms. Mr. and Mrs. Field left for an eastern wedding trip and will be at home after April the first, at the Angulus apartment.
