FILIBUSTERERS END LONG SENATE GRIND, NORRIS TURNS TIDE

Adjournment Taken by Vote of 48 to 46 When Nebraska and Kenyon Desert Administration Crowd.

INSURGENT DEMOS STAND FIRM

Speaker Member Asserts His Act is Due to Impossibility of Passing Bill Before March 4.

HE WILL SUPPORT THE MEASURE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—After a fifty-four-hour continuous session on the government ship purchase bill, the senate adjourned at 6:11 o'clock tonight on motion of Senator O'Gorman, one of the insurgent democrats. The vote on the motion was 48 to 46, Senators Norris and Kenyon and the insurgent democrats supporting the motion.

Senator Norris told the senate that he believed no vote could be reached by March 4, and urged that other legislation be undertaken.

Norris' Reason. The confident belief that the filibuster against the bill could be continued until March 4, and that it would be impossible to pass the measure before the expiration of this congress was given by Senator Norris as his reason for voting to break the long grind.

"I am not finding fault with senators," he said, "for doing what, under the rules, they have a perfect right to do. But these filibusters are increasing. It is unfortunate that we cannot decide any great issue without a test of physical strength. It is a relic of barbarism. Both sides of the senate have conducted filibusters, and if the situation were to change tonight the democratic side would begin a filibuster on this very measure."

Senator Norris read his proposed amendment to the senate rules, which would limit debate.

Calls It Foolish. "We stay here night after night," he said, "and are dragged out of our beds to answer roll call when there are three or four senators in the chamber. It is ludicrous. It is foolish, except that the consequences are sometimes serious and the practice is engaged in by serious men. This flood of talk has no object but to kill time, and kill the members. I don't know what day of the month it is or what day of the week it is. But I know it is February and it will soon be March 4. You know and I know and God knows that with about one-half of the members of the senate determined to continue this filibuster they can absolutely prevent a vote on this bill until after March 4."

Senator Norris said that while he favored the ship purchase bill he could not see why all of the time from now until March 4 should be wasted in a useless effort to bring the measure to a vote.

Extra Session Sure. "I understand that it has been announced that the White House," Senator Norris continued, "that if this bill is not passed there will be a special session of congress soon after March 4. I assume that this is true. If this filibuster continues until March 4, we would have to have an extra session any way, to pass the appropriation bills. So there is nothing to be gained by continuing this fight and nothing to be lost."

"When the special session comes, as come it must, I will support this ship purchase bill heartily."

Senators Walsh and Fletcher asked that Senator Cummins explain his declaration that the administration shipping bill "ought to be entitled 'for the encouragement and protection of the shipping trust.'" Senator Walsh said he had studied with great care Senator Cummins' substitute and could find in it no difference in principle from the administration bill. Senator Fletcher wanted to know how the Iowa senator could justify his position in view of the fact that private shipping interests were opposing it.

Would Aid Trust. Senator Cummins replied that unless he had "lost power of reason" he would clearly demonstrate that the bill would operate in aid of the shipping trust. He (Continued on Page Three, Column Four.)

NORMAL BOARD BILL KILLED BY SENATE

Only Seven Votes Cast Against Report of Educational Committee to Indefinitely Postpone.

HOT DEBATE PRECEDES ACTION

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Feb. 10.—(Special.)—The senate this morning adopted by a vote of 24 to 7 the report of its standing committee on education, killing house roll 112, the Liggett bill for a nonpartisan normal board. The measure found a few friends in the upper house, but they were helpless. Mallery and Spirk spoke for it, Sandall, Quinby and others were of the opinion that the senate as a whole should at least consider it. Outside of these, however, the bill was hopelessly lost from the beginning.

Secretary Walrath, when he delivered his message as to the senate's action a few minutes later in the house was hissed by several members of the lower house, which passed the bill almost unanimously.

May Open Up Feud. The action of the senate opens up the possibility of a feud between the two houses of the legislature, inasmuch as the lower house was so strong for the measure. The bill puts out of the running as members of the board Tom Majors of Peru and Dan Morris of Kearney, by a provision that no member of the board shall be from a county in which a normal is located. In fact the house later placed all senate files at the bottom of the calendar.

Both of these men were enemies of Dr. A. O. Thomas, the present state superintendent, whose previous removal from the presidency of the Kearney Normal raised such a tempest in Nebraska school affairs.

Senator Kohl of Wayne, voicing the sentiment of the senate majority, objected to the bill as a measure of revenge. The (Continued on Page Three, Column Four.)

ZEPPELIN AIRSHIP LOST IN NORTH SEA

German Aircraft Caught in Storm Off Denmark and All of the Crew Drown.

ZEPPELIN IS SENT TO SERBIA

GENEVA, Feb. 10.—(Via Paris.)—The entire crew of a Zeppelin, which has been missing for four days, was drowned, when the airship fell into the North Sea, off the coast of Denmark during a storm, it is reported at Friedrichshafen. Details of the disaster have not been received. It is said here that one Zeppelin and two ships of the Paracel type will accompany the German troops which have been detailed to take the field against Serbia. The Paracel, a dirigible, and loaded on special railroad trucks, passed through Munich yesterday on the way to Vienna.

Austria is experiencing great difficulty, especially in Hungary, it is reported at Innsbruck, in mobilizing the landsturm of the classes from the years 1875 to 1890, which were recently called to the colors. Women are said to be preventing the men, many of whom are grandfathers, from leaving their homes.

Shells Fall in Switzerland. LONDON, Feb. 10.—One of the newest German Zeppelin airships, which has been missing four days, is reported at Friedrichshafen to have been lost in the North sea off the coast of Denmark, the Express is informed by its Geneva correspondent.

The military authorities of Switzerland are investigating the circumstances under which German shells are reported to have fallen in the Swiss village of Lagern, the Express dispatch also states.

Billion Pounds of Coffee Imported

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—Another record coffee importation into the United States—more than 1,000,000,000 pounds—was made last year, according to the Department of Commerce today. The highest record years were 1904 and 1906, when the total of such importations were respectively 1,113,000,000 and 1,140,000,000 pounds. The 1914 coffee importation was valued at $18,000,000, or $18,000,000 less than in 1912, the highest value ever recorded.

Of the total importation of 1,011,000,000 pounds of coffee in 1914, Brazil, with 726,000,000 pounds, furnished the largest supply of any single country. Columbia was second, supplying 29,000,000 pounds. Hawaii and Porto Rico are furnishing an increasing share of the coffee consumed in continental United States. Hawaii last year supplied 2,571,000 pounds against 18,256 pounds in 1904 and Porto Rico furnished 1,785,000 pounds, compared with 27,427 in 1904.

The American people consume more of the beverage than those of any other country, the Germans coming next. The per capita consumption of coffee in the United States is now more than ten pounds, compared with 8.1 pounds in 1904.

More Arrests in Terre Haute Cases

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Feb. 10.—Several additional arrests were made today in connection with the so-called Terre Haute election conspiracy cases which resulted last December in the arrest of more than 100 men. Meyers, republican candidate for assessor. All were released on $2,500 bond.

Rep. L. Shattuck, republican candidate for congress from the Fifth Indiana district at the election of last November, was arrested at Brazil, Ind. He gave bond in the sum of $5,000.

TEUTONS TRYING TO OVERWHELM RUSS IN GALICIA

Desperate Efforts Being Made to Gain Positions Near Przemysl by Sheer Weight of Numbers.

Czar's Forces Trying to Penetrate Into Hungary Driven Back Into Bukovina.

FIERCE FIGHT FOR DUKLA PASS

The Day's War News

BATTLE OF THE CARPATHIANS, which is to decide whether the Russians will be able to force a way over the mountains and invade Hungary or will be driven back to the northward, apparently is as far from a decision as at any time since the Austrians, with their German reinforcements, launched the attack.

RUSSIAN FORCES along the Warsaw front have undertaken an attack, but they apparently have been no more successful than were the Germans in their last onslaught.

RUSSIAN DUMA adopted a resolution expressing the purpose of carrying on the war until the peace of Europe was assured on terms satisfactory to Russia.

GENEVA reports that another Zeppelin has been wrecked in a storm during a flight over the North Sea.

CUNARD ORDUNA is said to have flown the American flag for nearly twenty-four hours while crossing the Irish sea.

RUSSIAN WAR OFFICE describes as without precedent in history a single day the Germans charged twenty-two times on a Russian position. They made their charges up a steep hill in the face of artillery fire. The German losses are described as "excessively heavy."

ANOTHER RUSSIAN VICTORY is said to have been gained in Poland, where the Germans attacked the Russian forces. The Petrograd war office asserts that the Germans were driven back and one of their battalions was almost annihilated.

LONDON, Feb. 10.—The eastern battle front completely overhauled the western fighting line today as the center of interest in the military operations. The Teutonic allies evidently are making desperate efforts to advance, especially in the region of Galicia, to the south of Przemysl and Lemberg, where attempts have been made to gain positions by sheer weight of numbers.

The general offensive movement of the Austro-German forces along the Carpathian mountains has been successful at the eastern end of the range, where the Russians are retreating into Bukovina, but London military experts are of the opinion that the Austrians must forge ahead a long way in this direction before they can hope to affect the general Russian position.

Dukla Pass is Vital Point. The vital point is Dukla pass, where a short advance by the Russians would compel the Austrians to look anxiously to their communications. At present the battle in the region of Dukla pass has all the aspects of a draw.

The most sanguinary fighting, according to Russian dispatches, took place in the Carpathians, where the Germans attempted to cross Tulkohka pass. The Teutons attacked in massed formation several ranks deep and gained several heights occupied by the Russians, only to be forced back by desperate counter attacks. Both sides have suffered terrible losses in this hand-to-hand battle.

A German report states that heavy artillery actions are in progress in the Carpathians and that an advance is being made on Bukovina, where the important town of Wama has been occupied by the Austro-German forces.

Peace Whispers in Prussia. Some whispers of a demand for peace coming from the Teutonic allies in the form of reports of a socialist speech in the Prussian Diet, declaring that the people want peace, and a declaration is said to have been sent to Baron Buriat, the Austro-Hungarian minister of foreign affairs, by some Hungarian deputies, demanding that steps be taken to end the war.

Poles in Belligerent Armies Forced to Slay Their Brothers

LONDON, Feb. 10.—The Daily Mail's correspondent at Zyradow, near Bolimow, describing a recent battle on the Buzura river, which he witnessed, says:

"The martyrdom of Belgium is not more tragic than the martyrdom of Poland, which is now being overrun by the enemy for the fourth time in the present war. It involves a ghastly racial tragedy, hundreds of thousands of Poles who live under the Austrian and German flags being compelled to shed the blood of their brothers who are fighting under the Russian eagle.

"When the battle began by a German attack from Skiernewice, the Russians at first took it for a bluff, not believing that after their previous experiences the Germans would venture to attack again. The battle proceeded in a snowstorm. It was largely hand to hand fighting. Prince Werninsky tells me the slaughter was the most appalling he had seen on the whole eastern front. At one point the Germans came on twenty ranks deep."

The correspondent describes the drastic efforts of the Germans to stamp out cholera. He says that they burn all hamlets in Poland where the disease has shown itself, regardless of the entreaties of the destitute Polish peasants. At Lodz, the correspondent says the Germans sacrificed everything to sanitation and are inflicting ten years' imprisonment for any infraction of their sanitary regulations.

ANOTHER CUNARDER FLIES "OLD GLORY"

Well-Known Union Jack Gives Way to Stars and Stripes on Orduna on Way Across Irish Sea.

PASSENGERS TELL ABOUT IT

NEW YORK, Feb. 10.—Officials of the Cunard Steamship company admitted tonight that the steamer Orduna, which arrived in this port from Liverpool today, flew "a neutral flag" for a time while it was clearing the Irish coast.

This statement was made after a number of the passengers on the British liner had declared that for nearly twenty-four hours on January 31 it flew the Stars and Stripes while passing through the Irish Sea.

American Flag Afloat. These passengers asserted that the American flag was flying aft, indicating the nationality of the vessel. On behalf of the line a denial was made during the day that the Orduna had flown the flag except at the foremast, it being explained that it was customary for all ships to do this to indicate the country for which they are bound.

Captain Thomas M. Taylor, in command of the Orduna, declined to make any statement. He said that he was under orders from the British admiralty not to talk.

The statement given out late today at the office of the Cunard line simply referred to a neutral flag having been flown and did not specify the nationality.

The statement said: "Orduna left Liverpool flying British flag at stern and United States flag, as customary, at the fore. After leaving her lightship all flags were lowered. After leaving Queenstown, for about an hour and a half or two hours it did fly a neutral flag while it was clearing the Irish coast."

Officials of the line decline to amplify this statement.

Coyote House Votes Women Votes, Senate Abolishes Gallows

PIERRE, S. D., Feb. 10.—(Special Telegram.)—The house today passed the bill giving women the right of municipal suffrage. The measure was adopted without the emergency clause, falling with that provision attached. Many women in the galleries listened to the arguments for and against the bill. It was charged that the liquor interests were opposing suffrage. This was denied by several members.

The senate passed the house bill abolishing capital punishment. Only the governor's signature is needed now to make the bill a law. He has announced he will sign it.

The educational committee of the house rejected the bill to abolish the Springfield Normal school without recommendations.

VETERAN DETECTIVE KILLED BY MEXICAN'S BULLET.

Tom Ring, the oldest detective on the Omaha force, was shot and killed by one of two unidentified Mexicans shortly before noon yesterday at the rooming house of A. N. Madrid, 401 North Fifteenth street, where he had gone in company with Special Officers Cushman of the Union Pacific and Phillips of the Burlington to arrest the Mexicans, who were charged with breaking into Union Pacific box cars.

Cushman appeared at the police station yesterday morning declaring he had found stolen property in the room of the Mexicans at the above address and asked that a detective be detailed to go there with him and arrest them. Ring was sent.

The detective and the special officers climbed two stories and a hall to the room occupied by the Mexicans. Ring obtained a broken washstand which he placed against the door and climbing on top of it, peered over the transom. One of the Mexicans saw him and fired three shots. One shot entered Ring's right eye, another lodged over his heart and the third shattered his left hand. The shots were fired from a Winchester Colt's.

Mexicans Leave on the Run. The Mexicans then ran out of the room toward the rear of the house, entering a room occupied by Arthur Crisman. Crisman, who was shaving was ordered at the point of a gun to throw up his hands. While he obeyed, the Mexicans jumped out of a window to the ground. One landed in a snow pile while the other crashed through a shed.

They were seen by witnesses running eastward toward a certain location in the third ward which is a rendezvous of Mexicans. The police hope to land them there.

Descriptions of the men are being wired to all cities in the country and all officers on the force have been detailed to look for the men.

Before 2 in the afternoon the drag-net of officers had brought in about twenty-five Mexicans, all of whom will be held at least for a short time on suspicion. All Mexicans who tally close to the descriptions of the men will be arrested until the murderers are found, declare the police.

Ring had been a member of the Omaha force since March, 1902. He was made a detective February 1, 1909. He was 55 years of age. Surviving him are a wife and three daughters. His daughter, Miss Blanche, one of the daughters is private secretary to R. C. Howe, general manager of Armour's in South Omaha. Ring lived at 605 William street.

First Victim Since 1909. The last policeman murdered in Omaha was L. A. Smith, who was shot on January 14, 1909, at Ninth and Dodge streets by Jack Curtin, who was being arrested for assault and robbery. Smith took hold of Curtin, who immediately fired and ran to the Douglas street bridge where he was intercepted by Detective W. T. Devereese and Henry Heitfeld. At the bridge Curtin turned and wounded Devereese. Curtin was stopped by a bullet.

PEACE NOTE IN PRUSSIAN DIET

Herr Hirsch, Socialist Leader, Says His Party is Ready for Early and Honorable Peace.

OTHER PEOPLES TIRING OF WAR. BERLIN, Feb. 10.—(Via London.)—German socialists, while not desirous of presenting any partisan issues or of taking any other action during the present crisis which might militate against the harmonious cooperation of all parties, have surrendered none of their views. This is shown by the attitude of the socialist members of the Prussian Diet, which began a session yesterday.

Herr Hirsch, a socialist delegate, read on behalf of his party a declaration which is in part as follows:

"The social democratic party maintains its opposition, based on principle to the former government policy, which policy has remained in all material things unchanged. The party, however, refrains in this critical time from introducing discussions of a polemic nature in the consideration of the budget on its first reading."

Must Stop Fight on Labor. Herr Hirsch added that his party later would call attention to complaints concerning the provisions for soldiers and for dependents, the food supply for the nation and restrictions on the free expression of thought. He could not permit the occasion to pass, he continued, without giving expression to the demand of his party that the government in consequence of the situation brought about by the war, should concede certain measures desired by the great mass of the people. These included the demand that the police cease their battle against the labor movement in general, and in particular against the social democrats and other socialist organizations.

Herr Hirsch said that party was opposed to political oppression, but that the basis of political reforms must be their (Continued on Page Five, Column Two.)
