

RUSSIANS BACK UP FOR FRESH START

Petrograd Says Retreat in East Prussia is Preparation for a Decisive Move.

MANY SORTIES AT PRZEMYSL

PETROGRAD, Feb. 12.—Further explanation of the retreat of the Russian forces in East Prussia is made today, in an official statement, which says: "It is believed we are upon the eve of a great operation which must solve definitely the struggle in East Prussia."
Warning is given that because of the necessity for military secrecy little information may be expected regarding the operations which are about to begin. The Russians are seeking the shelter of their own fortresses, the statement asserts, before attempting to take "more concentrated" locations from which to oppose the heavily reinforced Germans.
The Russians claim the garrison of the fortress of Przemysl is exhausting itself in fruitless sorties. A final repulse of the Germans, who temporarily occupied the heights of Koslova, after twenty-two assaults, is reported. The communication follows:
"It has been established that recently there have appeared in East Prussia four new corps of the German army, consisting partly of troops transported from the west front, partly of new recruits and partly of reserve forces."
"This radically changed conditions and involved the necessity of our troops retreating to facilitate repositioning, to locations more concentrated. This object, it was believed, could be better attained upon our own territory in the shelter of our fortresses."
"It is believed we are upon the eve of a great operation which must solve definitely the struggle in East Prussia."
"This circumstance renders it necessary that few inquiries be made concerning future combats, taking account of the strict necessity for the observance of military secrecy."
"After twenty-two frustrated attempts the Germans succeeded in occupying in great force, after a desperate struggle, the heights of Koslova, but were dislodged after a violent bayonet attack, leaving 40 dead."
"The garrison of the fortress of Przemysl is exhausting itself in fruitless attacks, maintaining an irregular fire against our blockading troops."
"On the Black Sea, the Russians have sunk the Turkish transport Broussa, laden with 60,000 pounds of provisions."
"Russians Strengthen Second Line."
BERLIN, Feb. 12.—(Via London.) The National Zeitung has published a dispatch from a correspondent on the Russian border, who says the Russians are employing thousands of laborers to strengthen their second line of defense. At fortresses of Ivanograd, Brest, Latovak and Kovno men are working day and night. At Brest-Latovak arrangements have been made to flood the entire district and for a distance of seventy-five miles the territory around the fortresses has been barred to ordinary travel. Great stores of ammunition and provisions are being laid in.
These preparations, the correspondent of the National Zeitung goes on to say, make the inhabitants fear that the Russians soon will be seen falling back.
Grand Duke Nicholas, the Russian commander-in-chief in the field, and General Ruzsky enjoy the fullest confidence of the people, the correspondent continues. The grand duke is just now at the height of his power, and he is very popular with the Russian soldiers. Referring to the Russian people, the correspondent says:
"It must be admitted that there are no signs of the Russian people becoming tired of the war. A small peace party exists at the court of Emperor Nicholas, but it is without influence."
Russians Hold Dnieper Pass.
A correspondent of the Lokal Anzeiger who is in the Carpathian mountains telegraphs his paper of the very heavy fighting recently in the Dnieper pass. The Russians, he says, were determined to break through at any sacrifice. It appeared at first impossible to check their attack, and they gained slowly but steadily. In the last three days, however, they have been brought to a standstill, but they are still on Hungarian soil and the heights of the pass are in their hands.
The Russian infantry suffered terribly in its mangled attack, this correspondent continues. The thawing weather is bringing almost unbearable odors from the fields of battle, and special sanitary measures are being taken with the idea of preventing an outbreak of sickness.

Woman is Expelled from Germany

BERLIN, Feb. 12.—(Via London.)—Miss Carolyn Wilson of Beverly, Mass., arrested several days ago on suspicion of espionage, was released yesterday after Ambassador James W. Gerard had interceded vigorously in her behalf. She came to Berlin as the correspondent of a Chicago paper and was taken into custody, it is alleged, because she displayed indiscreet curiosity concerning naval affairs, gun calibers, and other matters.
Miss Wilson formerly was a resident of Berlin and was widely known in the American colony. Her release was granted only on condition that she leave Germany immediately.
LIVERPOOL, Mass., Feb. 12.—Miss Carolyn Wilson, the newspaper correspondent who was released from custody in Berlin yesterday after being detained on a charge of espionage, is a daughter of Joseph A. Wilson of this city. Miss Wilson is 29 years old and a graduate of the local high school.

Children Kidnaped Two Years Ago Are Found in St. Louis

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 12.—Two children who, it is alleged, were kidnaped from the home of their parents in Los Angeles, Cal., two years ago, were found here last night. They were Anna, an 8-year-old, and Ernest, a 6-year-old, respectively.
The children said they had been taken in an automobile all the way from British Columbia, Canada, to St. Louis.
On telegraphic instructions from T. L. Woolwine, district attorney at Los Angeles, police here last night found the children at a boarding house and took them into custody. The proprietress of the house told the police that the couple who had brought the children there, departed a few days ago, the man for Chillicothe, Mo., and the woman for Mitchell, S. D.

JUDGE DAYTON UNDER FIRE

House Committee Begins Inquiry Into Charges Against West Virginia Federal Judge.

MAY INVOLVE IMPEACHMENT

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Feb. 12.—Investigation into the charges against Federal Judge A. G. Dayton of the northern district of West Virginia, which were to open today here before Representatives McClintock of Maine, Danforth of New York and Gard of Ohio, a sub-committee of the judiciary committee of the house, brought together many of the leading lawyers of West Virginia and a number of organized labor men on whose complaint the charges were filed by Representative M. M. Neely of the First West Virginia district.
The resolution under which the committee will take testimony directs that it inquire whether Judge Dayton conspired with certain corporations and individuals to bring about the removal of the late Judge John J. Jackson of the federal district court; whether he has shown marked favoritism to certain corporations in his court; whether he has used his power as judge to further the interests of his son, Attorney Arthur Dayton; whether he has lent his services as judge to coal operators by improperly issuing injunctions; whether he has shown bitterness toward miners on trial in his court; whether he has used his office to discourage miners from exercising their rights to organize and peacefully assemble; whether he conspired with certain corporations in the formation of a carbon trust in violation of the law; whether he openly stated he would not permit the United Mine Workers of America to exist within the jurisdiction of his court; whether he said in open court that the United Mine Workers were criminal conspirators, and finally, whether he has been guilty of any act for which he should be impeached.
The charges were filed after a number of miners had been imprisoned for violating an injunction issued by Judge Dayton in connection with the strike at the Hitchman mine near Wheeling.
The members of the sub-committee, accompanied by stenographers and clerks, arrived from Washington soon after noon. Judge Dayton said his case would be in the hands of John C. Cornwell as chief counsel.

Mors Says He Killed Aged Persons to End Their Sufferings

NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—While on his way from Bellevue hospital to the Westchester County Jail in White Plains on a warrant charging him with the murder of "Henry Horn and others," aged inmates of the German Old Fellows home, Frederick Mors made a statement yesterday in which he stated, "I considered well my actions and then decided that it was my duty to put old men and women out of their pain, horrors and long, sleepless nights."
Mors had just been declared "mentally unwell" by the Bellevue hospital alienist and now awaits the action of the grand jury as the first step in a move to inquire into his sanity.

DEATH RECORD

E. W. Crane.
NORTH PLATTE, Neb., Feb. 12.—(Special.)—E. W. Crane, for many years a prominent citizen of this city, died at noon yesterday. Until recent years he was a contractor and builder and built many of the buildings in North Platte. He was prominent in the work of the Methodist church and in all affairs for the uplift of the city. He leaves a widow and several children.
