

Latest Photos from the War Arena.

Torpedo leaving its tube on deck of a British destroyer

French sentry shows extreme care in requiring identification of Red Cross

Old lady in picture had just closed door of her house at King's Lynn when aerial bomb tore it off its hinges

German infantry men in Poland trying to warm themselves over a fire

French infantry resting in the Argonne

French General Staff inspecting famous "132 Metre Hill" located near Soissons

Horse camp maintained at Le Torquet for sick and wounded animals by French Blue Cross Society

Lord Kitchener reviewing troops in the snow