A LONG with the first affairs to be given at the new Fontenelle comes the announcement of the first wedding to be held there.

The name of the bride who is to have this honor has been kept a secret, but you know it is hard to keep such things from the little bird that chirps pertly. Her identity has interested many for weeks past, but just today it is out.

Miss Hortense Spiesberger will be married in the small and artistic salon of the Fontenelle Tuesday evening, March 2. It will be a small wedding, with just the immediate family of both parties present.

Miss Spiesberger, the bride's twin sister, will be the only attendant. This bride-to-be is showing her favored friends a beautiful trousseau full of unusual beauty and elegance.

Miss Spiesberger is to marry Mr. Samuel Rabinovich of Chicago, and her many friends regret that her marriage will take her from Omaha.

These young people will live in New York City, at the Biltmore hotel.

With the Visitors.
Mr. James Woodard, of Round Up, Montana, is the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James I. Woodard.

Miss Emily Myers of Dubuque will arrive the latter part of the week to be the guest of Mrs. F. A. Nash for Miss Frances Nash's performance with the Minneapolis symphony.

Miss Marion Pierce of Lafayette, Ind., who has been the guest of Mrs. A. G. Beeson and Mrs. Jack Webster, is spending a few days with Miss Eleanor Mackay before leaving Thursday for her home.

Elk Dinner.
Mrs. and Mrs. A. B. McConnell gave another of their enjoyable Elk dinners Sunday at their home. A huge mound of Russell roses decorated the table and valentines marked the places of:

To Honor Visitor.
Mrs. John K. Bittinger gave a small luncheon today at her home in honor of Mrs. Roy A. Fox of Fort Dodge, Ia. The table was decorated with red carnations and the place cards were Washington birthday novelties. Covers were laid for:

Flowers Past.
Mrs. J. C. Kuncel entertained Thursday afternoon at her home. The table decorations were in red and white. Red roses and lilies of the valley were used as a table centerpiece. Covers were laid for:

Entertains Card Club.
Mrs. P. B. Hogan entertained the members of the Rummy club at luncheon at her home Tuesday afternoon. The decorations were suggestive of Washington's birthday and the place cards were embellished with miniature hatchets. High

GRAFF DENIES ANY TEACHERS' TRUST

Also Declares the Schoolmasters' Club Does Not Maintain Embargo on Any Teacher.

EDUCATOR'S IRE IS AROUSED

"There is no school teachers' trust in this state, nor is the Schoolmasters' club of Nebraska in any way concerned in the matter of maintaining an embargo against any particular teacher or teachers," declared E. U. Graff, president of the Schoolmasters' club of Nebraska, when told of the bill introduced in the legislature by Senator Henry of Colfax.

While the bill itself makes no reference to the Schoolmasters' club, that organization has been mentioned in this connection and the ire of various educators of the state has been aroused.

Proponents of the bill maintain there is a teachers' trust in this state and that "sharp politics" are played by members of the club. It is alleged that the club holds the whip hand in matters educational and that it hedges ill for any teacher to work at cross purposes in school politics or to take any stand which may be regarded as inimical by the club.

Graff is Indignant.
President Graff, who is superintendent of the Omaha public schools, is indignant over the aspersions cast upon his organization, whose membership includes prominent school men and women of the state.

"Somebody has been eating mince pie or having a pipe dream. It is absurd to think that the club would exceed its scope by engaging in school politics," added President Graff.

In any event, the Henry bill is creating something of a furore in school circles of the state and there are some at Lincoln who insist they have the "dope," which they will spring at the proper time.

The Schoolmasters' club meets three times a year, alternating between Omaha and Lincoln. At a meeting a few years ago, Health Commissioner E. W. Connell stirred up quite a fuss when he spoke to the club and arraigned the morals of the Omaha High school.

AUTHORS OF POEM ARE NOW BEING HEARD FROM

City Commissioner Dan Butler and City Attorney John A. Rine have received several letters regarding the poem "Where the West Begins," printed in The Bee last week.

Francis Echols of Columbus, Neb., writes that Warthur Chapman of 2312 Clermont street, Denver, wrote the poem. Dan C. Brown of Grand Island, secretary of the Central Agricultural association, declares the poem first appeared in the Cincinnati Express Gazette in 194.

The poem has been going all over the country during the last few weeks.

STYLES QUIT WAR TONE

Expert Says that America Will Make Styles for Itself, Leaving Out Effects of War.

TO REVIVE THE 1830 MODES
Ora One (pronounced Sen-nay), the man wizard of woman's millinery fashions, who is charming large audiences at the Shepherds hats and flowing ribbons, is especially emphasizing American-made styles in his talks.

"This country can produce styles just as chic and good looking as any imported models," he said. "Then, too, they have the advantage of being peculiarly adapted to the style of the American woman."

He says that the present vogue of sand, putty and cement shades was the first indication of America's ability to stand behind its own fashion setting. According to Mr. One, neither of these shades appeared on the imported color card for this present season, but the colors were launched by the American syndicate and proved successful.

The coming season's styles will no longer be affected by the war, but the 1830 modes will be revived, he believes. Shepherds hats and flowing ribbons at the back and side and quaint garden hats will be the thing.

The vagaries of society women, who enter every prominent millinery establishment in town, order several hats made on approval, and then only buy one hat in one store, were heavily scored by the speaker.

In the twinkling of an eye, and while engaged in rapid-fire monologues, Mr. One converts an ordinary millinery shape into a beautiful model, with only the addition of a bolt of ribbon or a bunch of flowers. These exhibitions are being given daily for the out-of-town buyers who are in the city now purchasing the coming season's stock.

EMPLOYEES FOR NEW HOTEL COME ON SPECIAL TRAIN

A special train, carrying 100 employees for the new Fontenelle hotel arrived in Omaha over the Rock Island Tuesday. The train came all the way from New York. The force of employees included Marie Escalle, a famous chef of New York; Michael Traevia, late head waiter at the Knickerbocker hotel in New York, and a full crew of waiters and kitchen employees.

Joyful Anticipation of Motherhood

There is apt to be a latent apprehension of distress to mar the complete joy of expectation. But this is quite overcome by the advice of so many women to use "Mother's Friend." This is an external application designed to soothe the muscles and to thus so relieve the pressure reacting on the nerves, that the natural strain upon the cords and ligaments is not accompanied by those severe pains said to cause nausea, morning sickness and many local distresses. This splendid embrocation is known to a multitude of mothers.

Many people believe that those remedies which have stood the test of time, that have been put to every trial under the varying conditions of age, weight, general health, etc., may be safely relied upon. And judging by the fact that "Mother's Friend" has been in continual use since our grandmothers' earlier years and is known throughout the United States it may be easily inferred that it is something that women talk about and gladly recommend to prospective mothers.

About fifty sows are in the sale and it is expected they will bring in the neighborhood of $5,000, the sale last fall running up to $2,500 with hogs of inferior stock.
