GEORGE WASHINGTON is becoming as popular as any debutante ever was. Today everything of any importance is a Washington affair, and our store windows are launching him as notoriously as they ever did the most elegant Beau Brummel. He seems to be next in importance only to old Santa himself, and his presence with us in novelties and candy Georges is becoming more consequential each year.

The Omaha club has for years set aside Washington's birthday as the date of their annual stag banquet. One hundred and fifty guests have made reservations for this affair and the club rooms are elaborately decorated with flags, small hatchets and cherry branches.

The Major Isaac Sadler chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution is giving a bridge party this afternoon at the Sanford hotel. The proceeds of this function are to be the means of placing an historical marker in the new Fontenelle hotel.

The Omaha chapter of the same society is giving its annual George Washington's entertainment this afternoon at the home of Miss Jennie Redfield and Miss Sarah Sanborne.

Sage Tea Keeps Your Hair Dark
It's Grandmother's recipe to bring back color, thickness and luster—Everybody is using it again.
Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks dry, wispy and scraggly, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur restores its appearance a hundred-fold. Don't stay gray! Look young! Either press the toner at home or get from any drug store a 50-cent bottle of "Sage Tea and Sulphur Compound." Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair; besides, no one can possibly tell, as darkness so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, knowing this through the hair, taking the small strands at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears. After another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.

Winter Doubles Work.
In summer the work of eliminating poisons and acids from the blood is helped by perspiration. In cold weather, with little out door work or exercise to cause sweating, the kidneys have to do double work. Foley Kidney Pills help overworked, weak and diseased kidneys to filter and cast out of the blood the waste matter that causes pains in sides or back, rheumatism, lumbago, stiffness of joints, sore muscles and other ills resulting from improper elimination. OLDEST WOMAN IN CITY PASSES AWAY

Mrs. Elsie Youngberg, 100 Years Old, Dies at Home of Daughter Mrs. Nels Anderson.

WAS ACTIVE UNTIL THE LAST

Mrs. Elsie Youngberg, probably the oldest woman in Omaha, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Nels Anderson, 2613 Marcy street, Saturday. She was 100 years, 3 weeks and 4 days of age. She was a baby girl, five months old, in her mother's arms in Sweden, when the first French cannon boomed the opening of the battle of Waterloo. Mrs. Youngberg emigrated to America with her two daughters after her husband died in Sweden. She was 70 years of age when she came to America. She settled directly in Omaha, and has lived here all the time. She is survived by her two daughters, Mrs. Nels Anderson and Mrs. Andrew Larson, both of Omaha. In spite of her extreme age she was active until the last two weeks, when her advanced years began steadily to drain her vitality until the end.

The funeral services are to be held at the home of Mrs. Nels Anderson, Twenty-sixth and Marcy streets, this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Burial is to be in West Lawn cemetery.

Little Woman Hears of Friend's Death by Paper on Street

A motherly little woman was waiting for a street car or jitney bus at Sixteenth and Farnam streets yesterday. In the gutter she observed a stray sheet of newspaper which showed a woman's picture.
The elderly woman picked up the paper, scanned the picture which attracted her notice, read the accompanying article, tore out the coveted portion of the paper and then wiped away a teardrop.
"I knew her well. She was a fine woman," she remarked to a bystander. The picture was of Miss Margaret O'Brien, former assistant public librarian for many years and who died Sunday morning in Seattle.
