Wanted—Choice real estate loans. W. E. Thomas, 225 State Bank Bldg.

Mrs. E. Muskin announces that she is no longer connected with House of Menagh and has opened a millinery store at 24 North Sixteenth street.

Today's Complete Movie Program—classified section today, and appears in The Bee EXCLUSIVELY. Find out what the various moving picture theaters offer.

Drug Store Robbed—The Haines Drug company, Fifteenth and Douglas streets, was entered by thieves early Friday morning, who carried away $30 in change and a quantity of liquor and cigars.

Fixed on Disorderly Charge—C. Janaro, 1015 Harney street, was fined $10 and costs in police court for keeping a disorderly house. I. Rezeski of the Berlin hotel, 119 1/2 North Thirteenth street, was fined $25 and costs on a like charge.

Warner Summons Jurors—To serve as petit jurors during the March term of the Hastings division of the federal district court, forty men have been summoned by United States Marshal W. P. Warner to appear at Hastings March 8. It is expected that the term will last only about a week.

Rich to Stay South a While—Edson Rich of the legal department of the Union Pacific, who has been at Pass Christian, Miss., several weeks on account of poor health, was scheduled to return to Omaha this week, but now advises as to the effect that it is not known just when he will return.

Moves to Missouri Valley—Harvey Barner, for years connected with the business department of the Excelsior, a weekly newspaper, has purchased an interest in one of the papers at Missouri Valley, Ia., and with his family will next week move to the Iowa town. He takes charge of the business end of the Missouri Valley paper.

Through Service to Expositions—Beginning April 15, the Missouri Pacific, in conjunction with other roads of the Gould system, will put on through train service from St. Louis to San Francisco, by way of Denver and Salt Lake. This will be the first time in the history of the Gould roads that they have ever operated through trains from the Mississippi river to the coast.

Talking Slates for Coming City Commissioner Race

The latest political rumor is that Harry B. Zimman will be placed on the city hall slate in place of Commissioner J. J. Ryder. Like most of the political reports being circulated just now, it is difficult to trace this one back to its source.

Mr. Zimman says he has heard of this matter from various sources, but is disinclined to take it seriously. His opinion is that the present city commissioners will all stand together for the primary, or else make individual campaigns.

Louis Burmaster is actually in the race. His petition is being circulated and he is out with his quest for support.

Joe Morrow, battler in the county court building, has something under his hat, which he will not reveal to even his closest confidants. Mr. Morrow is said to be working up a "Sutton slate," but he very discreetly denies knowledge of any such activity.

Among the new candidate possibilities are John Power, former sheriff and known as "Honest John" Power; W. J. Hunter, former member of the old fire and police board, and Edward Simon, member of the last legislature.

Ask for Shelter and Give Residence as Fontenelle Hotel

It was an unusual predicament that Lester Allen and Joe Vesova found themselves in Thursday. The pair obtained employment at the Fontenelle in the capacity of elevator conductor and yardman, respectively. They worked last night, and when all the guests had departed and the two were through with their work, they were told to come back Friday and get on the job.

In the meantime they came to police headquarters for a place to sleep, pending the opening of the employees' quarters. Their appearance before Turnkey Andy Fahey brought forth a laugh.

"Where do you live?" he asked. "Fontenelle hotel," they replied. "Search these birds for coke?" suspiciously inquired the turnkey of Officer Paddy Ryan, whose duty it is to "frisk" all lodgers.

Then the story came out. Lester Allen and Joe Vesova found themselves in Thursday. The pair obtained employment at the Fontenelle in the capacity of elevator conductor and yardman, respectively.

To Avoid Striking Woman Bus Driver Demolishes His Car

To avoid striking a woman who passed in front of his car Roy Malkentina, who gives his address at Stratton, Neb., drove his jitney square into a fire hydrant at Fifteenth and Farnam streets. Malkentina and his passengers escaped injury, but the machine was badly demolished.

Malkentina was piloting the machine belonging to Mrs. G. H. White, who was the first woman to take out a license to drive a jitney. Mrs. White gave her badge to Malkentina and he has been driving for her. Officer Smith arrested Malkentina, who was later released on $15 bond.

WHEAT AND CORN

MAKE BIG DROPS

On Report of Destruction of Forts of the Dardanelles Prices Are Off Seven Cents.

RECEIPTS HERE ARE SMALL

The decline in cash wheat Friday was almost as sensational as the advance of a month or so ago. Inside of an hour after the opening of the market the prices had gone down 7 to 9 cents from those of Thursday, the drop being held well to the close.

An attempt at a rally came during the middle of the session, but prices gained but a couple of cents and then went off, the bottom price being near the close of the day.

With seventeen cars of wheat on sale, prices ranged from $1.20 to $1.24. None of the grain men cared to venture an opinion as to the drop in wheat prices over night. Some ventured the opinion that the destruction of the Turkish forts along the Dardanelles by the fleet of the allies had something to do with it, though at the same time they pointed to the report that the visible supply of wheat in the United States is but $1,828,000 bushels, some 10,000,000 bushels less than one year ago.

This, alone, they say, should boost, instead of depress prices, as it is close to four months before a new crop can possibly be ready for the market.

During the session a wire came from New York to one of the branch houses here, asserting that a foreign government was asking prices on 15,000,000 bushels of wheat within sixty days and that on account of the comparatively small visible supply it was impossible to fix a price.

Corn, of which there was only ten cars on sale, brought 50 to 64 cents per bushel, a decline of 5 to 6 cents from Thursday. Oats were off 2 to 4 cents per bushel, the prices being 49 to 69 1/2 cents.

McCune to Guard Indians at Great Pageant in Denver

George W. Gaines, well known in Omaha as the concessionaire at the Transmississippi exposition, is in Omaha on business and visited with Dan Gaines, new proprietor of the Merchants hotel, an old friend, but no relation. Mr. Gaines was also formerly claim agent for the Omaha & Council Bluffs Street Railway company.

Mr. Gaines is director general of the grand council of the North American Indians, to be held at Denver from June 1 to October 1, when forty-five different tribes will be present. Mr. Gaines was in Utah to get in touch with Buckskin Charles, chief of the Utes, when the recent trouble began. He says that Polk and his son have signed a contract to be in Denver this summer if they are not killed during this present trouble. Polk's son is the Indian who killed the Mexican last year. Gaines said he heard from the Indians that the real trouble started over a gambling game and that Polk insisted he killed the Mexican in self-defense.

Mr. Gaines says that the Indian exhibit at Denver is to be similar to that held at the Omaha exposition, when Geronimo and other noted Indians to the number of 555 gathered in Omaha, representing forty-two different tribes. He says that he expects to have 700 Indians, representing forty-five different tribes. They will be located on a sixty-acre plot of ground in the city park.

Colonel McCune is to be appointed deputy United States marshal to look over the camp and keep the Indians sober, a job Colonel McCune has been doing for years, even when the American Indians invaded Europe with the Buffalo Bill show.

Jews Will Observe Feast of Purim

Purim, a half-holiday in the Jewish calendar, which commemorates the Feast of Esther, will be observed in local synagogues Saturday evening and Sunday. It was preceded Thursday by a fast day, observed by Orthodox Jews, to correspond with the three days' fast decreed according to the legend.

The synagogical service for this festival is limited to the reading of the Book of Esther, or Megillah, upon the story of which the celebration is based. Purim celebrates the victory of Mordecai, the faithful Jew, over Haman, the grand vizier of the King Ahasuerus, who plotted to destroy the Jew. Queen Esther, it will be remembered, had been elevated to the throne to succeed Vashti, who had displeased the king. Esther was a most beautiful and virtuous maiden, and it was through her intervention with the king that the heroism of Mordecai and the villainy of Haman were disclosed to him.

The story of the Book of Esther reads like a novel, and may or may not have real historical value. Purim means "lots" and the festival is so called because the day on which the destruction of the Jews was decreed was chosen by lots.

Purim is a time of general festivity among the Jews, and like most festivals of the Jewish calendar it is time for the giving of gifts to the poor.

NAVAL OFFICERS HIKE TEN MILES PER ORDERS

To convince Uncle Sam and the whole world, it is necessary that they are physically sound and fit for active service, Lieutenant Thomas M. Tipton, in charge of the navy recruiting station, and Dr. Francis B. Cochran, examining surgeon, walked ten miles during the afternoon out past Fort Omaha. It was their regular monthly test, required by regulations of the department. Both officials stepped off on the hike in lively style.

Pure Rich Blood Prevents Disease

Bad blood is responsible for more ailments than anything else. It causes catarrh, dyspepsia, rheumatism, weak, tired, languid feelings and worse troubles. Hood's Sarsaparilla has been wonderfully successful in purifying and enriching the blood, removing scrofula and other humors, and building up the whole system. Take it—give it to all the family, as well as to avoid illness. Get it today.—Advertisement.
