BURNS TELLS WHY LOAF WEIGHS LESS

Master Baker Talks About the Troubles of His Trade and City Ordinance.

FEGG IS STILL ON THE TRAIL causes are traced that led to the great

grage profit in a loaf of bread is scribed. The recital of their experiences from 1/4 to 1/4 cent per loaf," de- and customs, and of collisions with the clared Jay Burns, head of the Burns Indian tribes. The influence of the Baking company, discussing the Scotch-Irish settlements upon American bread situation in Omaha.

Mr. Burns admits that the wrappers on his "Holsum" bread reading, tion, and in promoting the movement for "Over thirteen ounces," and "Over American national independence. In con-Ewenty-six ounces," do not represent clusion, there is an appreciation of the the actual weight of the bread, and Unter contribution to American nation-that the bread, may not have weighed the amounts indicated on UNITED STATES COLONIES AND DE-PENDENCIES. By William D. Boyce. 25 Pp. Rand, McNally & Co. tion by saying that there was a delay in receiving a new supply of ural obligations relative to the present prappers from the factory and that dependencies, and voices the conclusion the wrappers on hand were used re- that "we can pursue but one policy with gardless of the weight of the bread. our colonies, and that is to protect and Beginning Thursday Mr. Burns started hold and train them to become seif-govto mark his bread wrappers "eleven erning units of our great self-governing sunces or over" for the 5-cent lonves and nation." "twenty-two ounces or over" for the 16. esting information, and is illustrated cent loaves. He states he is scaling the with many handsome photographs, weight of his bread according to price of flour, which he contends is the only prac-

Heal way a baker can regulate his busigenna. "The bureau of labor statistics of the United States Department of Agriculture the weights of their bread as flour ad-land every woman. vances or declines, and there is a law in New York state, 100 years old, which fixes the price and weight of bread according to the price of flour," declared Mr. Burns.

Mr. Burns thinks City Sealer John Grant Pegg has not been quite feir in this matter, and condemns the existing ordinance requiring sixteen and thirtyino ounces, Union Pacific and New England bakeries, charging in all cases violation of the ordinance requiring sixteen and thirty-two ounces. He also will file other complaints of misbranding bread under the state laws, the latter complaints being

"I have no quarret with Jay Burns, nor In them an old farmer gives to his son am I waging any fight against Mr. Burns the fruits of a life-time of practical agmore than against any of the bakers." riculture-and of tenderness toward life. declared Mr. Pegg, who says he is going The author is at once an exponent of the after all violators allks. Pegg has written Judge J. P. English country life.

of the district court a letter in which a of the district court a letter in which a request is made that the four appeal cases against Jay Burns be advanced on the durket and set for early trial, so that the constitutionality of the sixteen and thirty-two-ounce bread ordinance may be determined.

Mr. Burns declares that this ordinance was rendered void by a decision of Police Judge Charles Foster.

Eleven Snowplows Keep Street Car

itegardiess of the long continued fail of snow, the Omaha Street Railway com-pany has managed to maintain the regu-lar schedule of car service ever since the

New Books Miscellancous

THE SCOTCH-IRISH IN AMERICA. By Henry Jones Ford. 540 Pp. 52. Prince-ton University Press. This book tells the story of the Ulster Plantation and of the influences that ormed the character of the people. The migration from Ulster, and the Scotch-'Under normal conditions the av. Irish sottlements in America are deinstitutions is traced, particularly in organizing and propagating the Presbyterian church, in spreading popular educa-

The author endeavors to show our nat The book contains much inter-

THE CREATION OF WEALTH. Be J. H. Lockwood, 225 Pp. $1. The Stand-ard Press.

The author has set forth in luminous phrase and with graphic filustration the problems of the world of business which has indorsed the plan of bakers scaling directly or indirectly concern every man

THE REVELATION OF THE CHINESE REVOLUTION. By John J. Mullownoy. 142 Pp. 40.75. Fleming H. Revell Com-pany.

An intimate record of the Chinese revolution. The author's data shows how the extravagance and inefficiency of the Manchus brought about the ruin of their dynasty, and ushered in the first republic of the cast. There is, in addition, a Pegg has filed with the city prosecutor closely written review of the social and information against the Reeder Swotoda, political conditions which now obtain in the Flowery Kingdom.

LETTERS OF AN OLD FARMER TO HIS SON. By William R. Lighton. 212 Pp. $1. George H. Doran Company. Any one interested in the soil, as present occupation or promise of future freeagainst retailers and bakers in each case. dom, will find inspiration in these lotters. new agriculture and of the old beauty of > form of a play in four acts. Germany, on the verge of war with England, in halted by the decision of a young giri-owner of the great gun works, LETTERS OF A SELF-MADE FAIL-URE. By Maurice Switzer. 180 Pp. 31. Small, Maynard & Co.

A "self-made failure" who has found success in a different field writes to his younger brother who is beginning his business career in New York. In an epi-Lines in Operation to impart his system of philosophy and the results of his experience to the younger man in the hope of saving time port street, who asserted Prabelsky wa is court, could not speak a word of 19ng- ping post, for such as you," declared the NEARLY 300 PRISONERS JUNK DEALER FINED FOR rooby abusing his horse. I'sb, apparently, and the hearing was magistrate. "Nothing would give me CRUELLY ABUSING HORSE

THE BEE: OMAHA, SATURDAY, MARCH 6, 1915.

According to the complainant, the junk conducted by means of an interpreter, greater pleasure than to sentence you to drater had tied the animal to a post at Judge Britt fined him $55 and costs, but spend fifteen minutes with me in a looked I. Prabelsky. all North Ninetcenth street, Twentigth and Davenport, and was be- had hardly uttered his decision, when neon on complaint of Mariin Hannoh of whip. The heast, so Hannon declared in English.

junk dealer, was arrested Thursday after- incoring the creature with a rawhide the prisoner commenced to talk volubly the Gray Gables, Twentieth and Daven- was moaning. Prabelsky, when arraigned "It's a shame that there isn't a whip- through The Bee's "Business Chances."

HELD IN COUNTY JAIL

Two hundred and ninety-four prisoners were nold in the county jail according to A going business can be sold quickly the morning count. The record number for the winter was reached Monday, when the total reached 298.

Convincing Evidence of This Store's Greatness and Style Supremacy Is Manifest Now In These Vast Assemblages

the Millinery Modes for Spring

SATURDAY we shall feature an ex-ceptionally attractive selection of trimmed hats. Interest is added to this group by the fact that there are practically no two alike. They are mostly blocked, Milan hemp, rough braid and Lizere hats, smartly trimmed in wreaths of fruits and flowers, velvet ribbon, quills, ostrich novelties and similarly fashionable notes. The shades are Army Blue, Battleship Gray, Sand, Old Rose and Black. Included are large sailors and mushrooms, poke bonnets and tricorns. Choice of the large Untrimmed Milan hemp shapes -Saturday, special, $1.69. Untrimmed pineapple straw and fabric combination shapes, $2.50. Untrimmed Lizere shapes-In, all spring colors, $1.98. braid, in all leading colors.$1.50.

Trimmings That Portray the Season's New Ideas all at Special Prices

Cherries are the most popular | Daisies, favored flower trimfruit trimming, and they are here now in clusters from 19c to 49e; in wreaths, 39c, 59c and 75c.

mings, in all colors and are made flat, suitable for trimming transparent hats; over 30 styles to select from, 10c, 19c, 25c, 49c to 98c.

There's a Wonderful Fascination in One Glimpse at These New Spring Suits Creates an Immediate Wish to Own One

N truth they are fascinating and heartdelighting, with their various characteristics which proclaim their individuality, their exclusiveness and the newness of their style.

A large selection, every one an $19 extraordinary value, too, choice $19 AMONG THEM: Plain tailored styles in variety, as well as the jaunty belted and plaited coat styles, or coata in pointed effects; and the full flared gores and plaited skirts, which at once win favor.. Shades, too are, in every way consistent with the prevailing style notes—Sand, Putty, Battle Ship Gray, Belgian Blue and Navy, as well as smart new models in checks, fancy mix. tures and plain black.

At $35 we are offering as an advance season special a handsome assortment of the early spring's very newest models in tailor-made suits. They embody and emphasize all the prevailing modes as to tailoring, trimmings, colorings; the workmanship is perfect. We are convinced that careful inspection and comparison will demonstrate that nowhere eise can suits like these be had at such moderate cost.

$12.50 to $25. Saturday $500 choice at but ..... T HIS sale comprises just 75 pretty frocks that are odd garments and samples. They must he disposed of at once, so we have arranged for Saturday this sale- $ 500 until gone.'.

