

Humane Society

By MELLIFLOIA. Friday, March 12, 1915.

The beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Joslyn will be the scene of an attractive musical tomorrow afternoon, which will be given for the members of the Humane society of Omaha.

Mrs. Joslyn has always been one of the most active and interested members of this society and has been at the head of all work for its betterment.

Mr. Ben Stanley is to preside at the organ and he will be assisted by Mrs. Mabelle Crawford Welpton, contralto, accompanied by Mrs. Beulah Dale Turner.

The principals of the public schools and members of the Board of Education have been invited to be the honor guests and talks on humane work and its success here will be given by Dean Tancock, Mr. Theodore Ringwalt and Mr. H. S. Mann.

One of the objects of this gathering of the members is to devise ways of encouraging the school children to become interested in humane work. This, the club feels, will become the greatest resource for spreading the good work.

The officers of the society include Dean Tancock, president; Mr. Theodore Ringwalt, vice president; Mr. Ben Stanley, secretary, and Mr. H. S. Mann, treasurer, with the following board of trustees: Mesdames George A. Joslyn, T. D. Crane, James Tancock, J. DeForest Richards and P. C. Heafey; Misses Joy Higgins, Daisy Higgins, Clara Mason; Rev. Father John Williams and Mr. S. B. Goldstrom.

Noted Club Women to Come.
The Omaha Woman's club will entertain two guests of honor, the early part of next week. Mrs. A. G. Peterson of Aurora, president of the Nebraska Federation of Women's clubs, will arrive Monday morning to be the guest of Mrs. N. H. Nelson, president of the Omaha Woman's club. In her honor the Woman's club will entertain at luncheon at the Fontenelle Tuesday.

The second distinguished visitor will be Mrs. Thomas G. Winter, president of the Minneapolis Woman's club and chairman of the literature department of the General Federation. Mrs. Winter will be the guest of Mrs. F. H. Cole during her stay in Omaha, which will be until Wednesday evening. Mrs. Winter will be a special guest at the luncheon Tuesday.

Both women will be entertained a great deal informally during their stay. Mrs. Nelson will give an informal dinner Monday evening in honor of these guests and Mrs. Winter will be Mrs. G. Cole's guest at the Tuesday morning musical club's evening concert at the Fontenelle. Mrs. Cole will also entertain the guests and Miss Dixon and Miss Johnson of Brownell Hall at luncheon Monday and at the art exhibit in the evening.

French Class Entertained.
Miss May Mahoney's French class will be entertained this afternoon with literary readings by Madame Yoroka, the French actress. Madame Yoroka has played minor roles with Sarah Bernhardt, who, as she says, made her famous in a night. She came to New York City two years ago to organize the French Dramatic society there.

Luncheon-Bridge Club Meets.
The North Side Luncheon-Bridge club was entertained Thursday at the home of Mrs. C. S. Quay. The decorations were suggestive of St. Patrick's day and prizes for the card game were won by Mrs. T. L. Travis and Mrs. S. Johnston. Those present were:

Mesdames—S. Johnston, T. L. Travis, W. Clark, W. Cole, M. Anderson, C. Wisliss, W. J. Morling, W. Bruce, J. W. Skoglund, H. Page, W. Patton.

Tuesday Morning Musical.
The next program of the Tuesday Morning Musical club will be given in the ball room of the Hotel Fontenelle Tuesday evening at 8:30. Each member is privileged to bring a guest and the public are welcome on payment of a small entrance fee at the door. Mr. Thomas Kelley and a choir of selected voices will give the first half of the program and the second half will be given by Mr. Henry Cox with an orchestra of twenty-five.

On the Calendar.
Mrs. Ward M. Burgess will entertain the members of the Original Cooking club Thursday at her home.

The fourth of the series of free Lenten organ recitals will be given at Trinity Cathedral Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Mrs. G. H. Shipper will give a box party at the Orpheum Wednesday afternoon of next week.

Mrs. and Mrs. H. G. Browne will give another of their series of bridge parties tomorrow evening. Four tables will be arranged for the game.

Surprise Party.
Miss Kate Boye was honor guest at a surprise party last evening at her home. She was presented with a gold watch, given by her former associates in the telephone office. The guests entertained were:

Mesdames—P. McAndrews, I. A. Simons, Mortenson, A. Mangel, A. King, J. F. Starr, H. Nathanson of Council Bluffs, H. Garrison, A. Reynolds, G. P. Horn, Misses—Anne Aitkenhead, H. L. McEluire, Sarah Bernhardt, Edith Hughes, Kittle Grimes, Mary Tracy, Dolly Davis, Mae Conroy, Julia Wright, Jennie C. Davis, Emma Gebelle, Ruby Callahan, Annie Flynn, A. Moran, Sadie P. Denman, Martha E. Hall, Myrtle Hoiser, Pearl Hansen, May Mullen.

Comus Club Celebrates.
The Comus club celebrated the joint birthday of its president, Mrs. B. F. Marti and Mrs. J. W. Hood, Thursday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. Arthur Hooper. The president was given a bouquet of roses in honor of her birthday. St. Patrick's day was the inspiration for the decorations and a large birthday cake decorated the table. The guests of the club were Mrs. W. P. Swisher, Mrs. J. C. Curran of Galesburg, Ill., and Miss Helen Krick, who won the price for the card game.

Celebrates Birthday.
Mrs. Charles Bolcourt was the honoree at a birthday party given Wednesday afternoon. The afternoon was spent in playing progressive high five, for which game prizes were won by Mrs. Frank Wilmshoff and Mrs. Walter Doubetz. Those present were:

Mesdames—Oscar Johnson, Walter Doubetz, John Johnson, G. Hamberg, Esterline, E. Jacobson, E. Thoren, Etta Wilmshoff, H. Westman, Fred Johnson, H. Simpson, Frank Wilmshoff, Charles Bolcourt, Neil Johnson, Misses—Emma Slobers, Ethel Wilmshoff, Edith Johnson, Frances Wilmshoff, Lena Doubetz.

Spring Luncheon.
Mrs. Arthur M. Pinto was hostess yesterday at an attractively appointed bridge luncheon at her home. The luncheon was served from small tables, which were decorated with jonquils and at each place were small baskets of sweet peas. Thirty-six guests were entertained.

At the Orpheum.
Mr. J. Marti entertained the members of the Comus club at a box party this afternoon at the Orpheum in honor of his wife's birthday. The guests entertained were:

Mesdames—Charles Swenson, William Hasea, J. F. Dimick, P. J. Larson, George Morris, Leslie Thompson, P. O. Jennings, J. W. Hood, Charles Lanstrom, Arthur Hoover, E. E. Ferris, N. R. Swisher.

Pleasures Past.
The Scottish Rite Woman's club gave a Kensington this afternoon at the cathedral.

Mrs. Frederick Clarke entertained at luncheon Wednesday for Mrs. E. C. Griffin of Portland, Ore., guest of Mrs. E. B. Carigan.

Mrs. O. H. Meyer was hostess for a meeting of the Star Whist club at her home this afternoon. Twelve members were present.

Theater Parties.
Mr. and Mrs. J. Stewart and Mr. and Mrs. Ward Burgess will give box parties this evening at the Orpheum.

Personal Mention.
Ward Browne will spend the week-end in Lincoln with Harold Norman.

Miss Louise Curtis will attend the Delta Gamma banquet in Lincoln Saturday.

Mrs. Thomas Connors of Grand Island, who underwent an operation last week at Clarkson hospital, is reported to be doing nicely.

Mrs. W. E. Patton and small son, Jack, of La Grange, Wyo., who have been visiting Miss Minna J. Moore, will leave for home Monday.

Mrs. Emma C. Johnston left Friday for Little Rock, Ark., to spend the rest of the winter.

Miss Grace Shellenberger of Alma was the guest of Mrs. George S. Johnston for a short visit last week.

MRS. MARY COPLEY THAW, mother of Harry K. Thaw, is as usual, the most interested spectator in the courtroom where her son is fighting to save himself from further incarceration.

BUSH GOES WEST ON OVERLAND'S ROUTE

Missouri Pacific President Goes to San Francisco Over the Union Pacific Line.

NOT READY TO DIVULGE PLANS
In over the Wabash from St. Louis and out over the Union Pacific, enroute to San Francisco, Benjamin F. Bush, president of the Missouri Pacific and Iron Mountain railroads, spent fifteen minutes in Omaha Friday morning.

President Bush was traveling in his private car and expects to be on the Pacific coast for two to three weeks, looking over the Western Pacific, one of the railroad properties that recently went out from under the Gould management. In a way he will expert this property, seeking to get at its physical condition and its present and future value as a line to the coast to be operated in conjunction with the Missouri Pacific and Denver & Rio Grande.

Too Early to Tell.
"It is a little too early to tell what is to be done with the Missouri Pacific properties, with reference to putting them on their feet," asserted President Bush. "The physical condition of the road is very good at this time and the country through which it runs is as good as there is in the world. The resources are diversified and there are a multitude of them and there is no reason why they should not be very valuable in adding to the traffic of a railroad."

"The Missouri Pacific is not in bad shape financially and with the reorganization complete, we hope to bring about many important improvements and changes in the not far distant future. It is impossible to state at this time what we will do, but we will be busy."

APPEALS FINE OF ONE DOLLAR TO DISTRICT COURT

William Larson, driver for Henry Rohlf, was fined $1 and costs in police court for failing to make the proper turn with his vehicle while driving at Fourteenth and Douglas streets. Traffic Officer Anderson made the arrest and asserted that Larson not only violated the traffic regulations but grew very abusive when spoken to. Mr. Rohlf appeared in defense of his employe and appealed the case to the district court when Judge Britt imposed the fine. Rohlf maintained that owing to the snow on the street it was impossible for his man to comply with the regulations.

AIMS TO LEAVE TOWN, BUT MARKSMANSHIP IS POOR

Clarence Stephens, arraigned before Judge Britt Wednesday morning, declared that he was aiming to leave town in the afternoon. He was discharged and re-arrested Wednesday night.

"I see you missed your aim Clarence," remarked Judge Britt when Stephens was brought before him the second time. "I'll give you thirty days in the county jail to steady your nerves and improve your marksmanship."

To Rid City Hall of Horde of Moochers

Chief of Police Dunn will order removal from the city hall of a lot of "moochers" who are insistent with their demands of money from the city commissioners on account of the city commission campaign. Some of these moochers hang around the building and wait for the commissioners to come out, while others enter the offices with their pleas. It is stated that this practice has grown to be a nuisance. Some of these beggars are well dressed men.

SUES FOR DAMAGES CAUSED BY OWN AUTO AND TROLLEY

Ben Cohen, who was compelled to pay $750 to Arthur C. Mack because, it is alleged, a street car threw his automobile against Mack at Twenty-fourth and Seward streets last September, is asking the street railway company to reimburse him and to pay total damages of $2,000 in a suit filed in district court. The automobile, it is alleged, was thrown onto a sidewalk by the street car. It was a Ford.

Oyster Stew

Recipe
Cottage Oyster Stew
1 pint oysters; 2 cups Cottage Milk mixed with 2 cups water; salt and pepper. Drain oysters and reserve liquor. Wash oysters by placing in colander and pouring water over them. Heat liquor to boiling. In another vessel scald Cottage Milk and water. Place oysters in hot liquor and cook until edges begin to curl. Pour milk into saucepan with the oysters and season to taste.
If richer stew is desired double quantity of oysters. No butter is necessary when Cottage Milk is used.
The above recipe is used in thousands of homes. It is simple and economical and gives satisfactory results always. It is far superior to many fancy recipes.

Cottage MILK
STERILIZED UNWEETENED
Is best for all cooking and baking because it is uniformly rich, thoroughly sterilized, economical and convenient. It is always fresh, pure and sweet.

Fashion Hint

By LA MACONTEUSE.

Softest brown drape silk, the edges finished with shank fur, is gathered into a tunic which drapes this reception gown of blue brocade. A corsage of brocade is plainly drawn across the front, developing into huge butterfly bows at the back and descending in a straight panel to form a train. A cluster of small pink and blue flowers is placed at the center back of the corsage and another cluster is dropped low on the front of the tunic.
