

Mistaken Diagnosis--Doctors Guess Wrong Again

About five years ago I wrote to you that I had been a terrible sufferer from kidney and bladder troubles...

Personally appeared before me, this 21st day of July, 1906, F. H. Horne, who subscribed the above statement and made oath that the same is true in substance and in fact.

$35 IS KEYNOTE TO SUIT CAMPAIGN

Dresher the Tailor Claims No Man Need Go Over $35 to Secure Nobbiest of Made-to-Measure Clothes.

Dreshers to Make Colossal Effort This Season On Clothes at This Price.

Dresher, the Tailor, at 1515 Farnam street, one door west of the Hotel Henshaw, has sold over $1,000,000 worth of tailored clothes to Omaha men since 1900...

And Dresher claims that $35 is the right price for a suit of men's made-to-measure clothes.

So $35 is the price adopted by Dresher for a stirring campaign on made-to-order clothes.

In fact, Dresher has set aside one complete wall case laden with nothing but fabrics to be made into $35 suits.

Easter isn't a far away matter anymore. It comes on April 4 this year, and that gives you just time enough for a very fine job of "Dresher" tailoring.

J. W. Nelson designs and cuts all of the Dresher suits, and this fact alone makes it worth while for you to see Dresher about your Spring suit...

Better come in. See that $35 line. See the suits that satisfy so well that Omaha men have bought $1,000,000 worth since 1900.

Remember -- Dreshers make a suit that can hardly be worn out. Thousands of Omahans will tell you so.

Nebraska JURORS' APPETIZER DOESN'T ALTER CASE

Supreme Court Holds Since They Were in Sight of Bailiff Verdict Will Stand.

GAME LICENSES TO STATE FUND (From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, March 13.—(Special.)—The supreme court sees nothing prejudicial in the fact that two Harlan county jurors, after a case had been entrusted to them, stopped in at a saloon on their way home to dinner and took an appetizer or even two of them.

The question arises in the case of James S. Reed against the Burlington. The high court does say that it was misconduct, but as long as the jurors were under the eye of the bailiff and talked with no one concerning the case, it was not such misconduct as could be considered prejudicial.

Game License to State Fund. Money paid out for hunting and fishing licenses does not belong to the school fund of the county in which it is collected, but belongs to the school fund of the state, according to the opinion handed down by the supreme court this morning in the test case brought in Furnas county.

South Omaha Paving Case. The high court affirms the decision of the Douglas county court that Edwin Davis cannot maintain a mandamus action to force the city officials of South Omaha to use a certain kind of paving material, the same being a matter of discretion and not a ministerial function.

Wendell Gerwick charged with an assault upon a neighbor's boy, must pay the $30 fine imposed upon him following his conviction by a Richardson county jury. The boy was searching for a lost pig. He claimed that Gerwick hit him over the head with a stick.

Shaft No Place for Head. The $11,000 verdict recovered in the Lancaster county district court by John Wright against the Selden-Breck company, the contractor that built the First National bank building in Lincoln, was overturned today by the supreme court.

Wright, who was employed in one of the offices of the building as it neared completion, stuck his head in the door of the elevator to call for it, a call bell at that time having not been installed. The case descended suddenly, crushing Wright's head between its door and the lower pane of the empty door-window.

The court holds that it was not negligence per se upon the part of the construction company to operate the elevator without a call bell, the building at that time not having been open to the public, but only to the employes and licensees of the company.

Furthermore, the court says that Wright's action in thrusting his head into the elevator shaft was one of utmost hazard and that he cannot recover for injuries received as the result of such action. The bank was also a party defendant, but was freed from liability by the lower court.

Damage Case Reversed. The Douglas county jury that gave Ethel Burge a verdict for $1,000 against the C. F. Adams company for damages for injury to health caused by an insistent collector was clearly the result of passion and prejudice, according to the supreme court, which reverses the case.

Court Finds Dilley Not Terror-Stricken

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, March 13.—(Special.)—Although Charles Dilley received a kick in the stomach that possibly caused him "pain and terror," he was not so beside himself that he was unable to walk a block to his room, get a revolver and return to the scene of the battle.

The supreme court affirms Dilley's conviction by a Boone county court on the charge of shooting one Makres, a barber, who had kicked him out of his shop. Dilley pleaded that he was not mentally responsible through "pain and terror."

BOGUS CHECK ARTIST WORKS IN TECUMSEH

TECUMSEH, Neb., March 12.—(Special.)—Young man named Clarence Adams who was in Tecumseh for a week or so, is wanted here for forgery. He went into Phelps' hardware store, bought an inexpensive article, and presented a check for $7.50 in payment. The check was made out to himself and was signed by Edwin Howarth, a farmer living near town. Adams represented himself to be a farm hand. He was given his change, and, when the check was discovered to be a forgery, had left town. It is learned that he got in his work at Elk Creek and at Burchard. A warrant has been issued for his arrest.

CHERRY COUNTY RANCHER WILL GET A NEW TRIAL

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, March 13.—(Special.)—For the second time the supreme court has reversed the Cherry county district court in its conviction of Thomas J. Brown, charged with stealing seven cows from cattle had been openly in his possession Thomas Brown.

The defendant maintained that he bought the stock from a stranger. The matter of some six months.

Winner of the Bicycle

From Louise Emily Saunders, Kearney, Neb., comes a letter thanking The Bee for the bicycle she won in the recent contest.

The letter doesn't say a word about how smart and industrious she is. But it is just full of thankfulness both to The Bee and to all those who helped her. Gratitude is a fine quality to have. Everybody likes to help people who are grateful.

You will notice that Louise was in one other contest before she was in the bicycle contest. She tried to win the doll, Alice, and failed.

But did that discourage Louise? Did she say, "I never could win anything, so I'll just stop trying?" No, indeed. Not a bit of it.

She just waited until the bicycle contest came along and then she said to herself: "I didn't try hard enough in the doll contest. I can do lots better than I did there. Now, I'm just going to try with all my might to win this bicycle."

And then Louise went out and worked. And she got a lot of other people working for her. And when the votes were counted she had won.

That was a proud moment for Louise. Here is her letter to The Bee: "KEARNEY, Neb., March 12, 1915.—Dear Sir: I thank you with all my heart for the bicycle I received on Wednesday at noon. I have had good luck in getting the bicycle. I want to be a Busy Bee. I am going to join the Blue Side because I want it to grow. I hope I will have good luck in getting it."

Verdict Against Street Railway Company Upheld (From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, March 13.—(Special.)—The verdict of $5,000 secured by Alice Fitzgerald, administratrix of the estate of Michael Fitzgerald, against the Omaha Street Railway company is affirmed by the supreme court. Deceased was killed when a Farnam street car struck a county ambulance in which he was riding.

JUDGMENT AGAINST MILLER BY STRAHL IS SUSTAINED (From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, March 13.—(Special.)—An innkeeper is not an insurer of the safety of a guest, but is bound to exercise all reasonable care for his protection, according to the opinion of the supreme court in affirming the judgment of the Douglas county district court for $500 in favor of Emil J. Strahl against Rome Miller.

Strahl is at present a resident of Lincoln. Miller was sued as proprietor of the Millard hotel at Omaha, at which Strahl was a guest when a fire broke out there one morning in January, 1911. He was injured when he slid down a rope fire escape that was too short.

The Cortland Creamery company at a meeting held Thursday afternoon, voted to discontinue the operation of its butter-making plant, and in the future will only buy and sell cream. All the equipment used for the manufacture of butter will be sold, and the stockholders will be assessed $50 each to take care of the indebtedness.

DEATH RECORD. Mrs. John Cuykendall. FAIRBURY, Neb., March 13.—(Special.)—A telegram was received in this city this morning stating that Mrs. John A. Cuykendall had died at a sanitarium in Lincoln last night, where she had been taking treatment for several weeks. Mrs. Cuykendall had been falling in health for a number of years. She had lived in Fairbury since 1888. Her husband is a prominent Rock Island passenger engineer of this city. He was at her bedside, as well as two daughters, Mrs. Hiram O. Nellis of this city and Mrs. E. A. Crumb of Lincoln. The body will be brought to this city tonight and the funeral held from the home, Rev. R. N. Orrill of the Methodist church officiating.

Nebraska COMMISSIONERS TERM FOUR YEARS

Supreme Court Reverses Finding of District Court in Case of Peter Elsassar vs. McDonald.

FORMER'S CONTENTION UPHeld (From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, March 13.—(Special Telegram.)—A question involving the term of a county commissioner of Douglas county was settled by a suit brought by Peter Elsassar against Henry S. McDonald, the court deciding that the term is four years. Elsassar was elected to fill the unexpired term of John A. Scott, deceased in November, 1910. McDonald, claiming that the term of Scott was three instead of four years, was elected in 1912 and seated. Elsassar brought action to retain his seat and the district court decided against him. The judgment is reversed by the higher court.

County officials asserted that the decision would have no practical effect in county affairs with the exception of possibly enabling Mr. Elsassar to collect $2,150 which during the year he should have been in office was the salary of commissioners.

Mr. McDonald, with Commissioners Lynch and O'Connor, was re-elected at the election last fall and is safely installed for a four-term. Commissioners Harie and Best's terms under a former decision will continue till until the beginning of 1917.

RHEUMATISM CAN BE CURED OR MONEY REFUNDED

An announcement appeared in the Medical Journal, 1913, of a treatment for Rheumatism with serums by Dr. Bowers, of Omaha, Neb., who was the first to take up this work with success. It is a recognized fact that the serum treatment is the only cure for Rheumatism. He has devoted the last three years to this work, and testimonials of his success are beyond questioning.

TESTIMONIAL What Wm. Thornburg has to say about Dr. Bowers' treatment for Rheumatism: "In March, 1913, I was taken down with Rheumatism, flat on my back—absolutely helpless. The pain and sleepless nights were something awful. I had to be fed and cared for like a baby. I had tried different treatments at the beginning and one day I would think I felt a little better and the next day a little worse, until at last I was unable to raise hand or foot, when on April 27, 1913, they called Dr. W. W. Bowers, who took charge of my case. In three days the pains began to ease up and the fourth day with a little help, I could walk to the bath room. I kept on improving and in ten days was able to do everything they would give me and kept on improving and went back to work a week later. That was two years ago and my work exposes me to all kinds of weather—have been out in cold rains; have been soaked to the skin many times in those two years, and have never felt the least symptom of Rheumatism as yet, and have never felt better in my life. I can cheerfully and conscientiously recommend Dr. Bowers' treatment for Rheumatism to everyone. If your case is curable, he can cure you, and if not he will tell you so. I cannot say enough for what Dr. Bowers has done for me, and those only who have suffered as I have, can appreciate the kindly feelings I have for him.—WM. THORNBURG."

Mr. Thornburg lives at 2648 Dodge street, Omaha, Neb., where he can be seen, and will gladly furnish any information asked him; he is a motorman on the Council Bluffs and Omaha Street Railway lines, and his phone number is Harney 5322.
