PORT OF PROGRESO REOPENS ON ORDER

Mexican Chieftain Abandons Blockade of Harbor on Earnest Request from United States.

ACTION IS TAKEN SATURDAY

WASHINGTON, March 15.—General Carranza has abandoned his blockade of the port of Progreso on urgent representations by the United States.

The Mexican gunboat Zaragosa has been called off and two American ships laden with sisal for the United States were cleared Saturday without interference.

Rear Admiral Caperton, commanding the American fleet in Mexican waters, reported the raising of the blockade in his official dispatches early today and reported that the Zaragosa has returned to Vera Cruz.

Insures Twine Supply.

It became known for the first time today that last week the Mexican gunboat had stopped one American ship with a shot across its bows, had held up another and had interfered with British shipping.

Wilson's Note to Carranza.

President Wilson's reply to General Carranza's note of March 8, which was in response to the urgent representations of the United States for better treatment of foreigners in Mexico, was as follows:

"I thank you for your message of March 8 for the assurance it conveys and for your kind personal words. I beg that you will understand that if my messages occasionally are couched in terms of strong emphasis, it is only because they contain some matters which touch the very safety of Mexico itself and the whole process of its future history.
