PITY the poor man. After years of enjoyment obtained by rantings and ravings each and every time fashion decreed the style and design of women's apparel should change, the poor man must take a back seat while the worm turns and women steps to the fore to ridicule and scoff. Why? you ask. But have you seen the spring styles for men?

Henceforth the sartorial display of the average male will be sufficient to enliven a funeral, let alone a tango tea or a dinner-dance, where one comes to enjoy oneself. While the mid-section of the well-dressed man will be decorously clad, it is at the two ends of his person that he will blossom forth in a manner most wonderful to behold.

The hat which will adorn his scented locks is what is generally referred to on the woman's page as a confection; the band is its crowning glory, a glory unsurpassed by Solomon's, but accompanying sprigs of alfalfa, which prevent walking near the curb, also add to the effect.

And the lower end. Sufficient it is to say the feet will be encased in dainty creations of finest leather and silk, adorned and fastened by large sapphire buttons. It is admitted by shop keepers that the loss of one button will ruin a pair of shoes and make them only useful to make scarf pins out of the remaining jewels.

But the best is yet to come. The hat and shoes are nothing in comparison. Shop keepers declare they will wish onto Omaha men that evil of evils, the walking stick. Despite the fact that a good healthy westerner regards the walking stick as an implement to be used only in case of extreme age or rheumatism, an effort will be made to thrust the swagger stick on young men. Whether the shop keepers will be successful or not remains to be seen, but they have allied themselves and will put forth strenuous efforts in the attempt.

The usual gaudy raiment as to neckwear and shirts, although it looks more noisy than ever, will be in vogue this year, and collars are of about the same cut and designs with a few minor changes.

But, even so, it can be seen that a tumultuous time poor man is to have when he attempts to buy a spring outfit.

ARE ON A MISSION OF PEACE

Distinguished Frenchmen Refuse to Talk About the Great War in Europe.

GUESTS OF THE UNION PACIFIC

"I cannot talk upon that subject," asserted Albert Tirman, commissioner general from France to the San Francisco exposition, who with Jean Guiffrey, commissioner of fine arts, spent two hours in Omaha the guests of Gerrit Fort, passenger traffic manager, and General Passenger Agent Basinger of the Union Pacific, in response to the question, "What is to be the outcome of the war in Europe and how long will it continue?" The two distinguished Frenchmen arrived from the east at 9:45 yesterday morning, having come direct from France. They remained in the city until 11:35 o'clock, when they continued their journey westward. At the depot they were met by Messrs. Fort and Basinger and in an automobile were driven about the city during a greater portion of their stop, calling at Union Pacific headquarters. They saw the parks, the residence portions of the city and the manufacturing and jobbing sections and expressed themselves as greatly pleased with their entertainment.

Original Cooking Club. Mrs. Ward Burgess was hostess today at the meeting of the Original Cooking club. Covers were placed for: Mesdames—W. J. Poppleton, Samuel Burns, Ward M. Burgess, Luther Kountze, Joseph Barker, Mesdames—Ralph Peters, Mianee, Louise Dinning, Mary Burkle, Elizabeth Condon.

Sew for Relief. Mrs. Jessie Millard entertained about thirty-five members of the West Farnam circle of the Franco-Belgian Relief society this afternoon at her home.

News of the Wayfarers. Registering at the Hotel McAlpin, at New York City, from Omaha during the last week have been Miss May Hartell and Mr. George G. Wilson.

In and Out of the Bee Hive. W. H. Schmolter and wife have gone to the Pacific coast, expecting to remain six weeks to two months, visiting both of the expositions.

Alive and Happy, but Says He Has a Broken Neck. Rupert Biocli, arraigned and discharged in police court on a charge of petit larceny, informed City Prosecutor Fred Anheuser that his neck was broken, when the latter inquired why Rupert carried his head on one side. The case proved of interest to police surgeons, who pledged Biocli's consent to go before the Creighton Medical school students for an examination.

Has Used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for Twenty Years. "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been used in my household for the last twenty years. I began giving it to my children when they were small. As a quick relief for cough, whooping cough and ordinary colds, it has no equal. Being free from opium and other harmful drugs, I never felt afraid to give it to the children. I have recommended it to a large number of friends and neighbors, who have used it and speak highly of it." writes Mrs. Mary Minke, Shortville, N. Y. Obtainable everywhere. Advertisement.

MUNGER CHANGES ONE OF RULES OF PRACTICE

Rule 15 of the rules of practice of the United States court for the district of Nebraska was repealed yesterday by order of Judge T. C. Munger. The rule reads as follows: "Subpoena Duces Tecum—No subpoena duces tecum shall be issued by the clerk except upon an application filed and submitted to the court or a judge thereof, and an order therefor made and filed."

Notice of application therefor shall be given and filed, except in cases in which the interests of justice will, in the opinion of the court, be better served by the issuing of the subpoena without a prior notice." This rule was one which enabled persons to get an order and go through the books of a party to a suit, and was much abused.
