

MEMBERS REBEL AGAINST SLASH

Signs in Legislature Indicate that Norton's Policy is Not Meeting with Favor.

SENATE TO REPLACE CUTS

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, Neb., March 27.—(Special.)—Changes have been made during the session, indirectly, that the program carried out so far by J. N. Norton, economy evangel in the house, has been in the interest of politics, and one democratic paper especially interested in appropriations for the University of Nebraska made the charge last week that Norton really did not desire to see the appropriations as cut by the house endorsed by the senate. It was said that Norton, understanding the senate finance committee had given out that it expected to make a further cut, had become so aroused that he had gone over to the senate and had remonstrated against further reduction.

Getting to Be Serious

It is pretty well understood that at a meeting of the finance committee of the senate last week, one democratic member advocated action of that kind by the committee, believing that if the house committee was playing politics, the senate committee should play the game out and put the Norton triumph over on record. However, other members of the committee admonished him that it was too serious a matter and that if the senate was to be the life savior of the state its committee should rise to the occasion, cut out politics and legislate along business lines.

Norton Now for Increase

Norton has asked to appear before the senate committee and be given a chance to explain cuts in appropriations, and one member of the committee said this morning he knew that Norton had admitted that some of them at least should be raised.

Members have been heard to say repeatedly on the floor of the house in debate, "Let it go, the senate will put it back."

This proposition started at the very beginning of the session when the economy program was first started, resulting in a fight between the two bodies on the amount to be appropriated for employees.

Speaker Breaks Away

The first break in the house on the economy plan came yesterday on the appropriation for a swine barn at the state fair grounds. Generally Speaker Jackson and Norton have worked together in harmony, but yesterday broke on the $80,000 appropriation for the hog barn and although the speaker, who probably stands better with the entire house than any other member, made a strong plea for the appropriation, he was unable to win against Norton, Taylor and a few others who opposed him. Just what this may mean in the future is not known. Speaker Jackson is pretty broad-minded and it has been pretty hard work for his friends to believe that he has been in sympathy with the wholesale cutting of appropriations, although at times appearing to be backing Norton in the plan.

Coming Week Will Tell

The appropriations will run the gauntlet of the senate probably the coming week. That the house committee has taken a tumble that the plan is not going to work out, was evidenced yesterday, when Cronin of Holt, a republican member, boarded the lion in his den and demanded that the state aid bridge appropriation be put back to its original amount, the committee having cut it from $135,000 to an even $100,000. Cronin, who is some fighter on the floor, dared them to report out the cut, telling them that unless they would have the biggest fight on the floor that had been up this session, and the cut was out out.

Fresh Battleships Expected to Reach Dardanelles Soon

LONDON, March 27.—Fresh battleships from Great Britain, France and Russia are expected to reach the Dardanelles today to reinforce the allied squadrons, according to a dispatch from Athens published in the Evening News. With the arrival of these vessels the assault of the straits will be at once resumed, the dispatch says.

Indian Supply Bids Not Received Here

Bids on furnishing Indian supplies this year are to be opened in Chicago, St. Louis and San Francisco. Bids for making these bids are soon to be received in the office of the Commercial club. Omaha bidders had expected that the bids would this year be opened at the Indian warehouse in Omaha. That the selection of the locations for opening the bids had no significance as to which three cities are to retain their warehouses eventually when the others are dispensed with, is assurance that is given out by the Indian department.

First Mrs. Rogers Sues for Divorce

NEW YORK, March 27.—Mrs. Caroline Giddings Rogers, wife of Loris E. Rogers, the lawyer whose relations with Mrs. Ida Sniffen Rogers were revealed when the last named woman admitted poison to herself and two small children, today filed suit for an absolute divorce. Mrs. Ida Sniffen Rogers, now awaiting trial on the charge of murdering the children, was named as co-respondent.

Alleges She Found Hubby Already Wed

Jeannette Lower in a petition filed in district court, alleges that she married Harry Beach, November 29, 1914, believing that she was his only wife. She has since learned, she asserts, that he already had a wife and asks that her marriage be annulled.

Edith A. Godwin has brought suit against Alva C. Godwin, on alleged grounds of cruelty. She asks restoration of her maiden name, Edith A. Lohme.

Douglas Members Do Fairly Well in Handling Bills

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, Neb., March 27.—(Special.)—Colonel Gun Hechorn, chief bookkeeper of the senate, declares that 14 bills introduced in that body have been passed, 125 killed and thirty-nine are still undisposed of. The members who have been the luckiest in getting legislation are Bushoe, Howell, Kiechel and Saunders, who have ten each. Curiously three of these are republicans. Another peculiar thing about the record is that the member who had the most bills killed is a democrat—Howell, nine of his bills having gone to the discard, though his colleague, Dodge, has seen eight go overboard.

Douglas county members have got across thirty of the 148 bills passed, Bedford, four; Dodge, three; Howell, ten; Quinby, three, and Saunders ten.

Of the 125 killed the Douglas county delegation introduced thirty-five—Bedford, eight; Dodge, eight; Howell, nine; Quinby, seven, and Saunders three.

Of the bills remaining undisposed of, Dodge has seven; Howell, three; Quinby, four, and Saunders one, while Bedford has a clean slate.

Jury in Zancanelli Case Fails to Agree

TRINIDAD, Colo., March 27.—The jury in the case of Louis Zancanelli, a coal miner charged with the murder of George W. Belcher, a detective, in November, 1913, was discharged late yesterday after spending thirty-four hours in an unsuccessful effort to reach a verdict. The detective, who was employed by the coal operators during the coal strike, was killed by a shot from behind while standing on a crowded street corner. Arguments for a new trial are set for hearing today.

Department Orders

WASHINGTON, March 27.—(Special Telegram.)—Charles M. Gallagher has been appointed postmaster at Interior, Jackson county, South Dakota, vice L. T. Brown, resigned.

Civil service examination will be held on April 24 for postmaster at Tarnov, Neb.

SPEAKER ALLOWS SALARY WARRANTS

Last Allotment of Money Paid Members for Their Services to the State.

MAJORITY WILL SEE IT OVER

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, Neb., March 27.—(Special.)—Speaker Jackson lifted the embargo on members' salary warrants today. Little slips of green paper, which indicated that $50 awaited the bearer down in the state treasurer's office, were distributed. The embargo was lifted because enough of the members signed a paper yesterday agreeing to stay until the last round was over to insure passage of bills by a majority. The speaker has served in the legislature before and was well aware of the hard work necessary to keep a quorum present when the time comes to adjourn.

Britons Will Close Part of Channel

WASHINGTON, March 27.—The British admiralty has announced that beginning April 1 two lightships will be moored in the English channel off Folkestone, between which all shipping must pass in the straits of Dover. This notice was forwarded to the State department by American Consul General Robert P. Skinner at London.

The State department bulletin on the British admiralty announcement said:

"Shipping is warned that traffic in the straits of Dover between Varne shoals and Folkestone must pass between the lightships and eastbound traffic must keep to south and westbound to north side of ships. Those disregarding, do so at their peril."

Milling Company Asks Refund

WASHINGTON, March 27.—(Special Telegram.)—The Omaha, Alaska Milling company of Omaha has filed a complaint with the Interstate Commerce commission against the Union Pacific railroad company that the rate charged on shipments of alfalfa at 14 cents is excessive and that the rate of 20 cents is just. Reparation of $1,743 is asked.

A POSITION

I have a good position to offer a good man who can travel out of Omaha eight or nine months each year. The position will carry with it a drawing account of $100 per month, with expenses and a commission on all sales over a certain amount, so that you will be sure to make from $150 to $200 a month. We must have a man who can invest $2,500 in 10 per cent guaranteed preferred stock. What we want is a man who wants to make a permanent business connection and we want to be sure that when he is fully qualified to handle our high-class products that he will be a permanent part of our organization. To such a man we can offer a splendid position—previous experience not habits, sober, honest and upright, and have ability to sell goods and meet buyers, handling high-grade goods. We invite most careful investigation of our business, the officers and management. If you do not fully qualify with our requirements do not waste my time on this particular proposition, although I might use you elsewhere, as I have several investment propositions.

"The best conditioned and unwearied spirit in doing courtesies"

Shakespeare has put it in a nutshell, as it were, our ideal of the frame of mind of a store towards its customers.

There is no position in a store so small but what the holder of it has an important place in helping to build up its reputation for courtesy.

On the other hand, the atmosphere of courtesy and kindness that prevades a store is nothing more or less than a reflection by its employees, of the ideals and personality of the men at the head of its organization.

Ideals that bespeak for you harmonious shopping conditions, and a service rendered that results only in creating and placing before you a class of goods thoroughly in keeping with your environment.

More News From Specialty Shops of Fashion

A Practical Demonstration of the superior and valuable assistance rendered to the women of Omaha and vicinity, by our "Fashion Service."

The week preceding Easter is the period of greatest interest in Spring Styles.

NEWNESS is the life of fashion, yet in presenting the new, this store tempers exaggeration with refinement and holds only to such styles as best permit the exercise of self expression.

To accomplish this result, we deemed it necessary to have our personal representative, Mr. Robert Nicoll, remain in New York City during the greater part of the season, the better to make selections with an accurate knowledge of what styles were right.

HE returns to Omaha tomorrow for the week previous to Easter, after having been in New York since the fifth of January. He has been in close touch with the greatest designers and courturieres of America, and constantly in and out among the great stores and exclusive little shops of Fifth Avenue, where fashions first receive the sanction of the discriminating women of the metropolis.

WE invite you to consult with him this week in regard to any matters of dress, for he is thoroughly conversant with every phase of the fashion situation and will be glad to help you solve the problem of correct attire.
