THOMAS MCGOVERN

Candidate for re-election as City Commissioner, is the present Superintendent of the Department of Public Improvements. Under his management, the department has been economically and efficiently administered; the wishes of the people have been subservient, and the City's interests have been faithfully guarded. He has superintended the construction of several miles of sewers, curbing and paving, and compelled contractors to comply with specifications, condemned defective material, and caused the removal of defective workmanship on sewer, curbing and paving contracts. He has conducted the business of his department in a business-like manner, and should be re-elected.

RE-ELECT

Chas. H. Withnell

Candidate for

CITY COMMISSIONER

Charles H. Withnell, who has very efficiently served as city councilman for three years, is seeking a second term, and his record proves that he deserves it. His department covers building inspection and the fire service.
Under his administration the building and fire departments have been brought up to a high standard owing to his close personal supervision. These two departments were never in better condition.

Mr. Voter!

In the selection of your City Commissioners, don't overlook a good man. Read the following partial record of LOUIS BUR-MEISTER as a former Councilman compare this record with that of other candidates, and reward past services with your vote:

1. Introduced and voted for the Resolution establishing the eight-hour day in City Departments where day labor is employed. Reducing the working time from 10 hours to 8 hours per day, without reducing the compensation.

2. Introduced and voted for the Bond Ordinance in 1900 for $3,000,000.00 for the purchase of the Water Works—the first step toward municipal ownership.

3. Voted for the Ordinances ordering construction or reconstruction of all viaducts in the City, excepting the Tenth Street viaduct.

4. Supported and voted for the $1.00 Gas Ordinance.

5. As President of the City Council in 1909, supported, voted for and signed all Ordinances placing an occupation tax on public service corporations. This tax has net the city approximately $750,000 since September 1, 1909.

A Vote for Louis Burmeister is a step toward a Greater and Better Omaha.

VAL. J. PETER

(Editor and Publisher Omaha Daily Tribune)

FOR CITY COMMISSIONER

Mr. Peter is not subservient to any clique, organization, or special interest of any kind; he stands for honesty, independence and impartiality both in the making and in the enforcing of the law. Throughout his editorial career and in all his public utterances, he appears as the earnest and influential advocate of measures looking towards reform and progress in municipal government. Always deeply interested in the growth of the city, he has been one of the most potent factors in keeping Omaha abreast with the times, and in guiding its development in accordance with enlightened modern methods of safety, sanitation, and economy. Such a man ought to be commissioner.
