To hair a pint of hot water, add two ounces of powdered eptol and two tablespoonfuls of glycerine. This forms a cream When cool, apply regularly every day, generously. The eptol can be obtained at any drug store. This cream removes light and deep wrinkles, lines of worry, habit and age, and makes a difference of years in your appearance.

MISS HOW?—Poor girl! You will be able to comb and brush your hair vigor-ously without having a single strand come out and your hair will begin to grow out most beautifully again if you will apply every other day or so, and in liberal quantities, a mixture made of haif a plat of siconol, half a plat of water, and one ounce of beta-cuinol. Shake thoroughly, and then it will be ready to use. If you prefer you can use imported bay rum instead of the water and alcohol.

WE all more or less lead lives of quiet description, and the elder we become the more pronounced seems to be our resignation. And particularly is this true with women upon whose faces Time is sketching, in wrinkle characters, an epic of its flight.

More wonderful to these women, then, seems the statement that wrinkles can be cradicated as surely as chelk from a slate. We are all sisters in the skin—skin is skin. ATRS NO-PORM—It is a difficult matter, at best, to develop the bust, but there is only one way that deserves a trial, and that is to make a mixture of two ounces of rustone, half a cub of sugar, and a pint of cold water, and taking of this two tempoonfuls after meals and at bedtime. This amount do it if capything can.

DISSATISFIED—I do not wonder that you are dissatisfied with the many superfluous hair removers you have used. You will remove such hairs perfectly, and without burn or irritation by using simple suito solution, which dissolves the hair instead of burning it off and leaving a red spot. It is very startling in its action. You can get simple suito solution but if your druggist hasn't it then get the suito powder which is every bit as effective, works the same way, and which you simply wet with a little water

Satisfied Customers the Best Advertisement and the Greatest Business Asset

Not a day passes but some expression from a pleased customer gladdens our hearts. Let us quote from a letter received yesterday from a good customer at Fullerton, Nebraska:

"Your kindness will be remembered. It illustrates once more the value to the purchaser, of dealing solely with first class firms with a reputation back of the firm name. A well earned reputation for always making good." Thanks, friend; your kind words joys our hearts, but the next paragraph in your letter pleases us more. "And while writing you I should not overlook a tribute to your obliging sales people who always do more than their part to assist the shoppers." We are proud of our salespeople. Ours is a family; the majority of our people are as interested in the business as we are; and to them, their unfailing courtesy and faithfulness, we owe much of our success. We, too, like to make grateful acknowledgement and scatter roses to the living. THOMAS KILPATRICK & CO.
