

EIGHT COUPLES TO MARRY ON EASTER

Bryce Alfred Smith of Panama is among bridegrooms to take out Easter licenses.

TO WED SISTER OF JOHN YEISER

Mrs. Pearl Skeen Wright of Omaha, prominent in several states as an evangelist singer, sister of Mrs. John O. Yeiser, will be married Easter morning at the First Christian church to Bryce Alfred Smith, electrical engineer employed in the canal zone by the government.

Mr. Smith was one of the eight bridegrooms who secured licenses for Easter weddings at the court house. The marriage is the result of a romance which began six months ago at New Albany, Pa., Mr. Smith's boyhood home, where he was visiting during a vacation from his work in the canal zone.

Other couples whose married life will begin on Easter day and their future residences are as follows: Herbert V. Anderson and Neva Rowland, 1519 Canton street; Albert Marcant and Emma Lomp, South Omaha; Elmer Moller and Hilda Klein, 903 South Twenty-sixth; Bernard Nugent and Nellie Hutchinson, Council Bluffs; Louis Husley and Irene Deaver, Holstein, Ia.; Frank V. Norall and Ethel Hartman, 215 Templeton; Ray W. McMillen and Irene Hogan, 126 Decatur street.

Denver Editor is Reprimanded by Colorado Speaker

DENVER, Colo., April 3.—C. E. Newell, editor of a Denver evening paper, was reprimanded by the house of representatives of the Colorado general assembly, today. In administering the reprimand Speaker P. B. Stewart said Newell had violated the house rules by occupying a member's seat and engaging in a fist fight with a member. Newell was given permission to read a statement in which he charged that Representative A. P. Arden was the aggressor in the personal altercation, during which blows were exchanged.

ARTHUR BRANDEIS SENDS WHARTON BOX OF RAISINS

Postmaster John C. Wharton is planning to eat lots of raisins during the next few weeks. He has just received a large fancy box of choice California raisins by express from Arthur D. Brandeis, who shipped them from Fresno, Cal., while visiting there.

TWO FINED FOR SELLING SHORT WEIGHT PRODUCE

William Beasler, 1417 Cass street, and A. W. Dean, 63 North Sixteenth street, arrested by City Weight and Measure Inspector John Grant Fear for selling short weight produce, were each fined $5 and costs in police court.

McKinley Club Has Endorsed Seven Men

The McKinley club has endorsed the following seven candidates for the city commission: W. G. Shriver, Harry J. Hackett, H. P. Haas, Charles Lindt, Harry R. Stroman, Louis Burmeister and Albert W. Bonner.

Albert W. Jeffries and J. W. Talbot, president and secretary, respectively, of the club, urge voters to nominate these men next Tuesday.

Miss McManus Says Indemnity Too Small

CHICAGO, April 3.—Miss Elizabeth McManus, sister of John McManus, the American business man slain by Zapata soldiers in Mexico City a few weeks ago, today addressed a letter to Secretary Bryan protesting that the indemnity accepted from General Carranza was too small. In the course of the letter Mrs. McManus says: "I write to protest against the paltry indemnity secured to the widow of my

KUGEL INVESTIGATING THE JITNEY SITUATION

A communication from the Hancock Park Improvement club, urging city commissioners to regulate the jitney business has resulted in Commissioner Kugel writing to various cities for information on the subject. Some of the western cities have adopted regulatory laws for this business. When he has this information gathered Mr. Kugel will have recommendations to make.

MRS. M. B. LOWRIE DIES THURSDAY AT DENVER

Word has just been received of the death of Mrs. Mathew B. Lowrie, wife of Rev. Mathew B. Lowrie, D. D., formerly president of the theological seminary here. She died April 1 at Denver, where the family has been residing. Mrs. Lowrie was well known in women's club circles, here she as quite active.

Paving Season Has Started in Omaha

The 1915 paving season was started by H. J. Cathro, who resumed work he left off last fall on Parker street, between Twenty-ninth and Thirty-third streets. Another paving job to be resumed in a week or two comprises a district on Leavenworth street, Fortieth to Forty-eighth streets, where concrete base is ready for brick surface.

Bomb Found Near Greek Legation at Bulgarian Capital

PARIS, April 3.—A bomb which failed to explode was found in the garden of the Greek legation at Sofia, Bulgaria, close to the minister's private office, according to a Havas dispatch from Athens. An investigation is being made by the police.
