

HOUSE KILLS MORE BILLS FOR MONEY

Members Strain Nerves to Push Through Several Calling for Cash.

SQUEAK FOR GOVERNOR'S BILL

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, April 6.—(Special.)—As the time for the closing of the thirty-fourth session of the Nebraska Legislature approaches the members who have been hoping that the economy promised the people at the election by democratic speakers would be carried out are in great doubt of the outcome. Many good bills will probably suffer. Already the $5,000,000 mark is in sight, the mark placed as "extravagance" by democratic orators during the last campaign.

As a result the house proceeded to lop off appropriation bills amounting to $73,498 and came very nearly killing two more, both of which were special bills sent in by Governor Morehead. The first called for an appropriation of $50,000 for paving the street on two sides of the state farm.

Property Owners Agree.
The property owners on the other side of the street have all signed up to have the paving done, but the members of the legislature wanted to give back on the law which calls for the paving of streets when a majority of the property owners ask for it. The fact that the state owned half of the property kept the majority in numbers from controlling the situation and as it was up to the legislature to make the appropriation, which was another way of giving their consent.

A peculiar condition existed in that some of the members who have been howling for good roads and a chance to use the convicts in building were against the bill notwithstanding it would be the first chance to put the convict labor at work on the roads and see how successful it would be. The bill passed by a majority of 21 votes after a call of the house had been made.

Another Tight Squeeze.
The bill calling for $20,000 to be used in connection with the foot and mouth disease in cattle should it break out in the state, also had hard stalling, but it finally went through. The list of bills killed was as follows:

- H. R. 45—State printing plant, $100,000.
- H. R. 170—State printing plant, $75,000.
- H. R. 186—Reformatory and packing plant, $200,000.
- H. R. 202—Reformatory, $200,000.
- H. R. 207—Detention farms for prisoners convicted of misdemeanors, $100,000.
- H. R. 211—Pumping irrigation experiment, $15,000.
- H. R. 214—Water power survey, $15,000.
- H. R. 22—Reimbursing Legislature for money lost in Capital National bank, $11,000.
- H. R. 10—Irrigation well at Hastings system, $10,000.
- H. R. 402—Paving at Omaha School for the Deaf, $3,700.
- H. R. 124—Suppressing bee diseases, $3,000.
- H. R. 333—Drainage assessment against Otse county school lands, $1,140.

HIGH JUDGES BY DISTRICTS

Bill Will Be Passed that in Way Provides for Supreme Officials in This Manner.

CHANGES IN THE JURISDICTION

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, April 6.—(Special.)—Another chance will be given the house to keep a platform pledge, the house committee on constitutional amendments having reported out the Wilson bill, senate file No. 32, for a constitutional amendment relating to election of supreme court judges by districts. This will take the place of the Langan bill, which covered the same ground, but annexed too much territory, and went to the legislative scrap heap when it reached the senate.

It has been amended by the committee so as to provide that the court shall sit in two divisions, each consisting of the chief justice and three other members, and that decisions may be rendered by three judges constituting a majority of either division.

Court Sitting as Whole.
In certain cases, however, the court may sit as a whole, when four judges must agree in order to render a decision.

A further change in the bill gives original as well as appellate jurisdiction to the supreme court in all revenue, quo warranto, mandamus and habeas corpus cases, and in all civil cases where the state is a party. The jurisdiction of the court is specifically made state-wide, notwithstanding that its members are to be chosen by districts.

HOAGLAND CELEBRATES ANNIVERSARY OF DEATH

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, April 6.—(Special.)—Today is the fifty-third anniversary of the death of Senator Hoagland of Lancaster this morning in a reminiscent vein. "It happened at the battle of Shiloh," he went on to explain his strange anniversary. "I was struck by a bullet that penetrated my canteen and spent its force against the large huckle on my belt. The blow was enough to knock me over. My head struck against a tree, rendering me unconscious."

"When I came to I felt something wet trickling through my hands with which I had involuntarily clasped my stomach. Of course, I thought that it was blood. I didn't dare look down. As the water flowed out of the punctured canteen I grew weaker and weaker. I experienced all the agonies of death. I could feel the air blowing through the hole that I imagined had been drilled clear through me. In another two or three minutes I actually believe that I would have died. But in the last agony I put my hand up to my head and happened to notice that it was not blood with which it was wet, but only water. Ever since I have celebrated the anniversary of my death."

LEGISLATURE WILL RUN OVER INTO NEXT WEEK

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, April 6.—(Special Telegram.)—The Nebraska legislature will not be able to adjourn Saturday, but will run over into next week a day or so, according to Representative Norton, leader of the majority forces.

"I would not definitely say just when we will get together," said Mr. Norton to The Bee reporter this evening, "but it is pretty safe to say that we will not be able to finish this week unless the speed limit is fractured."

Friday is the time set for adjournment. The members have been working non-stop on two weeks without pay and the lure of the farm is strong, so that even the leader may not be able to tell what will happen about Friday morning.

EXTENDED TERMS MAY GET A JOLT

Bill that Will Have This Result Has Been Sent to Conference Committee.

CHANGE LIKELY TO BE RESULT

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, April 6.—(Special Telegram.)—By the close vote of 41 to 41, H. R. 4, the bill which had been amended so as to extend the terms of county officers to 1918 was sent to a conference committee this afternoon. In appointing the committee from the house it is said that Speaker Jackson has selected three men who are opposed to extension of the term of county officers under the bill. They are Norton, Nagley and Cronin. They favor the four-year term, but are opposed to extending the term.

American Shippers File Many Claims Against England

LONDON, April 6.—Because of the great number of claims against the British government arising from the detention of American cargoes, the staff of the American consul general in London has been increased from nine to twenty-six persons. Consul General Skinner is now arranging for an office in which there shall be established a special department of claims, together with a further increased staff for speedy preparation of the cases submitted every day.

The American steamer Sargasso, war cargo of American wheat from New York for Rotterdam, is now being held at Deal pending a reconignment of its cargo to The Netherlands Overseas trust.

Socialists Gain In Cities of Texas

DALLAS, Tex., April 6.—Heavy votes were polled today in 300 Texas cities and towns where municipal elections were held. The majority of the candidates were democratic running against democrats, but the socialists made active campaigns in Fort Worth, Dallas and several smaller towns.

Complete returns tonight show the election in Dallas of the Citizens' association ticket, headed by Henry D. Lindsey, for mayor. He opposed John G. Collins on the people's independent party ticket. The vote was 7,852 for Lindsey and 4,691 for Collins.

In Waco, with no opposition to the democratic ticket, only 250 votes were polled. It was the quietest election there in years. Four city commissioners were elected in addition to other officials.

British Warships Bombard Smyrna

LONDON, April 6.—The Reuter Telegram company has received a dispatch from its correspondent at Athens saying that British warships again bombarded the forts at the entrance to the Gulf of Smyrna Monday, according to the report of the captain of the Greek steamer Arcadia. Hydroplanes of the allies dropped a number of bombs, the correspondent declares and the rail of Smyrna ordered Europeans to leave the town.

NO CHANGE IS MADE IN RAIL CROSSING BILL

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, April 6.—(Special.)—Evidence was given again this afternoon that the railroads have little chance for anything at the hands of the house. The bill requiring automobiles to stop before crossing a railroad even after an amendment was tacked on satisfactory to the roads, requiring them to put danger signals at crossings where there was not a plain view of the track each way failed of reconsideration.

ATLANTIC, Ia., April 6.—(Special Telegram.)—Jennie Ward, present superintendent of schools, was unanimously chosen for county superintendent at a meeting this morning. There were no other candidates.

Samson's Den Show Needs a Big Bunch of Good Warblers

Huskies than can manhandle anything from a Wyoming stockman to Jess Willard are in demand just now by Samson of A-S-B-Den fame. Gus Rens, assistant of the den, is digging his trenches, mounting his Krupp, and building his Zepplins at the den for the initiation this fall. Meanwhile he is scanning the horizon for suitable volunteer timber to man his armament. It takes husky fellows, husky, active and brave. By the latter part of this month he expects to have his initiation crew all selected, and he assured his friends that it will have to be some crew to handle the initiation this year.

Singera, too, will be in demand. For there is to be a chorus again that is to mutilate popular airs by the application of popular, or unpopular words. So while Rens is digging trenches and building aeroplanes, he is peering around for the amateur Caruso of Omaha.

No, they will not be paid Caruso salaries. Oh, no; this is not a want ad. On the contrary they will have to pay a 10 cent bill to get the privilege of singing. That is they will have to join A-S-B-Den early and pay their $10 initiation fee. Is it not worth it? Many a man would pay more than that to get an audience to listen to his warbling. And many a man would have to pay a great deal more to get an audience.

Carranza Will Not Neutralize Capital

WASHINGTON, April 6.—Intimations have come to the American government that General Carranza will not consent to the neutralization of Mexico City, as proposed and agreed to by the Villa-Zapata forces.

HEINTZEMAN G. O. P. WINNER IN BALTIMORE

BALTIMORE, April 6.—At the primary election here today C. H. Heintzeman was chosen over John Philip Hill as the republican candidate for mayor. Mayor James H. Preston, democrat, had no opposition.

The municipal election will be held on May 4. The progressive party will have only one candidate, a negro, who seeks the office of city councilman.

RAIN DRENCHES THE WEST HALF OF STATE

Yesterday's reports to the railroad indicated that rain was pretty general over the west half of the state, extending over into Wyoming and Colorado and down into Kansas.

Along the Burlington's lines it rained a greater portion of the night over the McCook division and the rain seemed to be working east. In several localities one-half to three-fourths of an inch of precipitation was reported.
