Miss McPherson has been most actively connected with the Visiting Nurse association of Omaha for years and her departure creates a noticeable void in the corps of workers.

In appreciation of her efforts in the work the board of directors of this association presented Miss McPherson at the reception this afternoon with a handsome gold wrist watch. The watch has the square English face decorated with the Roman figures in blue enamel.

Miss McPherson took up the work with the Visiting Nurse association immediately after leaving school and has assisted in all the phases of its development. SUGAR PRICE SOARS AGAIN

Fifteen Pounds for a Dollar Soon is the Prediction of the Grocery Men Now.

NEW POTATOES ARE SCARCE

Soon the consumer will be paying a dollar for fifteen little pounds of sugar again, in the judgment of those who are watching the market. Already the price has gone up until he is getting but sixteen pounds at this moment. Flour is more or less steady, with perhaps a tendency to be the least bit easier. It is still costing $1.80 a sack.

New potatoes are practically a minus quantity at present on the Omaha market. They are quoted as selling at 8 cents a pound in Chicago, but Omaha has very few of them at this time. They are expected to begin coming in regularly very soon. Old potatoes can be had at 70 cents a bushel, and good quality for this time of year.

New peas are 10 cents a quart. New cabbage is here at 7 1/2 cents a pound. Spinach is scarce on account of the frosts recently suffered in Texas. Sweet potatoes are 7 1/2 cents a pound; cucumbers, 15 cents each; asparagus, 30 cents a pound; rhubarb, 5 cents a pound; celery, 5 and 7 1/2 cents a bunch; radishes, beets, onions, turnips and carrots are 4 cents a bunch.

Apples Coast More. Grape fruit can be had at from 25 to 50 cents a box, or from 3 to 7 1/2 cents apiece. The fruit is especially firm and nice.

Apples are higher than some weeks ago. Good large winchesters cost $1.75 a bushel now, packed in boxes. They sell at 30 cents a dozen. Highland navel oranges, in all sizes and grades, run 13 1/2, 15, 20 and 25 cents a dozen. The supply is large.

Strawberries are coming nicely the last few days. A carload reached Omaha on Wednesday, another Thursday, and prospects are good for them to come along fast now. "I look for a least a carload a day to reach Omaha for some days now, if not more than that," said Al King, of Hayden Bros. grocery department. "The crop in Louisiana is larger and better than the growers had expected it to be up to a few weeks ago."

Butter is up a few cents. The best creamery is selling at 32 cents in cartons. Eggs are still 30 cents a dozen. All cheese is up a cent.

Meats are a little higher than last week. Pork loins are 14 cents; pork chops are 13 cents; spareribs are 3 1/2 cents; lamb is $1 a hundred higher than last week; everything in beef is up. Round steak is 17 1/2 cents; shoulder steak is 12 1/2 cents; sirloin is 23 1/2 cents; and porterhouse, 23 1/2 cents.
