THE OMAHA SUNDAY BEE: APRIL 11, 1910.

Club Calendar.

SUNDAY-Young Women's Christian as-sociation vesper services, 4:30 p. m. Cho Study club, Miss Goldle Gilinsky, nosterse.

MONDAY-Omaha Woman's club, 2:30 p. m. Dundes circle, Child Conservation league, Mrs. George Thompson, hoatess. Tennyson Study circle, Mrs. F. H. Wray, hostess.
TUESDAY-Home economics department. South Omaba Woman's club, Mrs. Bruce : McCulloch, hostess. Oratory department. Would on hostess. Oratory department. Woman's club, luncheson for di-rectory. Monmouth Park Methers club, school auditorium. Equal Franchise, society, Mrs. E. S. Rood, hostess. 3 p. m.

society, Mrs. E. S. Rood, hostess, 3 p. m: WEDNESDAY-Mu Sigma club, Mrs. Frank Boyd, hostess. Clio club, Mrs. W. D. Percival, hostess. Literature de-partment, Woman's club 2 p. m. Omaha Women's Christian Association, 2:30 p. m. Frances Willard Woman's Chris-tian Temperance union, Mrs. George Young, hostess. Young Women's Chris-tian association board meeting, 10 ofclock.

tian association board meeting, 10 o'clock. THURSDAY - Omaha Story Tellers' feague, public library. Wyche Story Tellers' league, public library. Omaha Society of Fine Arts, Young Women's Caristian association, 10 s. m. Emma Hoagland Flower mission. West Cen-tral Baptist Missionary board. Toung Women's Christian association, 10 s. m. FRIDAY--Omaha North Side circle of the Child Conservation league, Monmouth Park school. Mrs. N. H. Nelson, at home for Omaha Woman's club mem-bers.

Mrs. Arthur Newell

home for Omaha Woman's club mem-bers. SATURDAY-Dramatic section, Associa-tion of Collegiate Alumnae, play and tea dansante at Rome hotel. 'Philosophy and ethics department, Woman's club, Mrs. C. A. Collins, hostoss. Second an-nual play and tea dansante by drama section. Association of Collegiate Alumnae, Rome hotel. (Notices for this column should be mailed or telephoned to the club reporter before Friday noon.)

0

the Rome hotel. This presentation will be borne's special topic for the illustrated followed by a tea dansante and the pro- lecture will be "The Roman-His Leisure ceeds will be for the Social Settlement, and Luxury-The Thermae." The last Miss Mary Irene Wallace is directing the program meeting for the year will be play with the assistance of Mrs. B. V. Parrish and Mrs. H. E. Newbranch is the business manager. Miss Blanche Coffman is leader of the drama section. The characters in the play are Shakesperian women resurrected at a social affair in this modern day. Among them are Lady Macheth, acted by Mrs. W. H. Abbott; Cleopatra, by Miss Josephine Huae; Juliet, by Miss Olive Coffman, and her nurse, by Miss Graves; Miranda, by Miss Elizabeth Kiewit.

Queen Gertrude, by Mrs. C. R. Maxwell, and Ophelia, by Miss Juliet Grif-fen, arrive, as do also the six wives of Henry VIII: Katherine of Aragon, by Miss Ruth Thompson; Anne Boleyn, by Mrs. A. A. Van Arsdel; Jane Seymour, by Miss Orra Ampler; Katherine Howard, Miss Agnea Russell; Catherine Parr. by Miss Morle.

Mistress Ford, by Mrs. Harriet Lowe. and Mistress Page, by Miss Bessie Dumont, the merry wives of Wisdor come. So do Mrs Caupurnia Caesar, by Miss Elanche Coffman, and Mrs. Portia Cato-Brutus, by Miss Elizabeth Mitchell.

The hostess, the part taken by Mrs. Harvey Newbranch, receives the guests, assisted by Shakespeare's wife, Anne Hathaway (Mrs. E. V. Parrish), and a major domo (Gerald Stryker). The hos-tess also reads the characteristic regrets of those who cannot come-Rosalind. Portia, Desdemons and the others.

Mrs. Edward Johnson will read a paper

H Tyson read papers. Mrs. F. B. Oliver gave extracts from "The Irish Schoolmaster." Mrs. W. E. Weekly of Valley was a special guest. The final arrangements for the convention will be reported at the next meeting in two weeks.

The Benson Woman's Foreign Missionry society will hold a business meeting at the home of Mrs. J. M. Bailey at 2004 North Sixtieth street.

The B. L. S. club of Benson gave a card party in connection with the business meeting last Thursday. A big sale of tickets for the sacred concert Sunday evening at St. Bernard's ball by Omaha talent was reported by the members of the club.

"Strife," by Galsworthy, will be discussed by the Clio Study club at the home of Miss Goldte Gilipsky in Council Bluffs this afternoon. Miss Rose Grodinsky will tell the story of the play; Miss Ruby Isaacson will talk on the author's life and varied literary activity, and Mian Pauline Rosenberg will have as her subject "Galsworthy as a Writer of Problem Plays.

"Making the Home Attractive for Young People"-will be the subject of the Monmouth Park Mothers' club_at its meeting in the school auditorium Tuesday at 2.30 p. m. Mrs. C. J. Schmidt will speak of the "Play;" Mrs. J. T. Moredick of the "Work." and Miss Minnie Esplin "The Conservation of the Home." Mrs. H. P. Galbraith will lead the discussion, in which all are invited to join. Mrs. views. F. J. Pettigrew will give a recitation and Mrs. R. H. Morton will sing "Home,

SHE WAS WEDDED ON EASTER SUNDAY.

Mrs Dryce Smith

'Play as a Social Force' will be the subject of the program. Roll call will be answered by giving a suggestion for checking selfishness Papers will be read by Mrs. C. A. Mc Kenzie on "The Belfish Child; How De reloped," and Mrs. C. H. Savidge or 'Disadvantages of an Only Child."

"Why Pote Licked His Boy" will be read by Mrs. Rodman Brown. "Under What Circumstances Should the Fighting Instinct be Encouraged "" will be aubiect for general discussion. Musical numbers have been arranged by Mrs. William H. Moeller.

will meet Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Monmouth Park school auditorium

At the vesper service Sunday at 4133, Muss Lilly Strong, general secretary, will give the first of a series of biographical. talks on lives that have been a help to thers. She will take as her subject "Charles Kingsley." Each Sunday for the rest of April there will be similar talks. The music will be some of the poems of the author who is to be dis-At the social hour, which folussed. lows the regular service, Miss Brewster in hosteas. The building is open from 2 until 7 leock on Sundays with some one tharga at the office.

Thursday from 12:15 to 1 o'clock will be the regular monthly noen musicale in the auditorium. Mr. Hetherington and ome of his pupils will furnish the instrumental music and Miss Eunice Tate will give a reading.

Miss Strong leaves for California the Sweet Home," Illustrated by stereopticon last of the week to attend the national meets May 5 to 11. She will spend the

The Omaha North Side circle of the tian association in cLs Angeles, which through California. She also will attend hostess.

Child Conservation League of America HER ENGAGEMENT TO WED AN-

the Employed Workers' conference at Asllomar after the blennial.

Wednesday night at 7 o'clock will be the sym banquet, when about 000 girls will sit down to a "feed." This banquet is held in order, to, arouse, interest in the symnasium carnival, which is to be held May 4 in the city Auditorium. It is urged that all the girls who wish to come o the banquet secure their tickets at once. The classes have all prepared their songs and yells and it promiss to be a lively occasion.

The Central Park Mothers' club met Friday afternoon in the school auditorlum, Papers were read by Mrs. C. A. Adams, Miss Rose Healey and Miss Elizabeth Rooney. A plano solo was given by Miss Mildred Othmer. Miss Edna George of the Young Woman's Christian association talked on the benefits of sys tematic physical exercise and folk games. after which the matron's gymnasium class gave a demonstration. A bouquet was presented to the director, Miss George, in appreciation of her assistance. and prizes were awarded Mrs. G. W. Brown, Mrs. Hubert Cox and Mrs. G. H. Devereaux for efficient work. Pive young women from the normal class, Central high, were present. Mrs. Ritcher was leader for the afternoon.

Mrs. J. T. Beatty will entertain memters of the George Crook Woman's Relief corps No. 88 at a kensington Thursday afternoon at her, home, 1524 North Twenty-fifth street. Mrs. Hall. Mrs. Stevens and Mrs. Perrell will assist the

Household Needs Orchard & Wilhelm Co. at House Cleaning Time 414-416-418 South Sixteenth Street Phone Douglas 313-We'll send Monday is Library Table Day--About 40 Tables it up at once. DRAPERY SECTION in Golden Oak, Mahogany and Fumed Oak Main Floor. Curtain stretchers On Sale Monday at Very Special Prices at WITH warmer days comes housecleaning and a shifting of the family furniture-A mighty good time to get a new library ta-Stitching twine, balls . . 40c Drapery books and pins ----ble-especially if the price is very low. That's why we are making Poles for portieres, 1 inch and 1% inch, per lineal these low prices-We want you to come here when you make your spring changes. We have interesting new things to show and prices just as attractive as these. Pole sockets and brackets, per pair ... Se, 10c and 15c Cap hooks, This Large $45.00 Mahogany Library dozen .10c Shoulder . Table, now $34.00 (Cut at left) Upholstery Manufactory tacks and mails, hox, 3c or All Auros Solid Mahogany top 30x50, best finish, rubbed dull Colonial platform base with drawer. Very special at $34.00. $14 Mahogany $10.50 $30 solid quarter sawed oak Table golden wax, very handsome. $22.50 $64 Mahogany Table, solid mahogany, massive $49 colonial design ... $49 $47 mahogany Table, oval, $30 top, scroll sup-$42 Golden Oak Table, oval

5

Tellers' league, Thursday afternoon at the public library. Miss Eliza Gibbs is leader of the program and will be assisted by Misses Dora Jones, Louise Schindell and Helen Waterman.

Nebraska will send a large delegation to the twenty-fourth continental congress of the Daughters of the American Revojution, which will be held in Washington, April 19 to 24. Mrs. C. H. Aull, newly elected state regent; Mrs. A. K. Gault, Mrs. F. A. Straight and Mrs. William Archibald Smith will make up the Omaha delagation. Mrs. C. S. Paine and Miss Mabel Lindly will go from Lincoln; Mrs. W. H. Xanders from Columbus; Mrs. Rose McGiverin, Fremont; Mrs. C. O. Norton, Kenrney; Mrs. D. S. Dalby, Beatrice; Mrs. Coredlia McMullen, Wy-more, and Mrs. D. B. Cirpsy and Mrs. Warren Perry, retiring state regent, from Fairbury.

The Nebraska women will join the lowa, Kansas and Missouri delegations at Chicago, and with the Illinois women will occupy a special train to Washing-

$52 Golden Wax Table, large sp; pedestal $26 oval top; pedestal base $39 Mahogany Table, oval top, pedestal base $100 solid Mahog-any Library Table. $70

top

at.

ONE OF THE EASTER WEEK

BRIDES.

20

Russian hero and nature stories will be told by members of the Wyche Story before the Haptist Ministers' meeting at the Young Men's Christian association on Monday morning. Mrs. Johnson's topic will be "The Relation the Woman's Mis-sionary Society Bears to the Church in General."

Miss Claudia V. Gallaway will lecture on "The Religion of Daily Life" at the last meeting of the philosophy and ethics department of the Omaha Woman's club, which will be held Saturday, at the home of the leader, Mrs. S. A. Collins, 901 North Twenly-second street. Election of officers will be held and a social hour will follow the meeting, which is called for 2:30 o'clock

The Omaha Women's Christian Temperance union will hold its monthly business meeting Wednesday afternoon at 2:39 ing the books for study. o'clock, at the Young Men's Christian association.

The board of directors of the Young Women's Christian association holds its regular meating Wednesday morning in the association rooms.

The last board meeting of the West Central district of the Woman's American Baptist Foreign Missionary society of which Mrs. Edward Johnson is chairman, will be held Thursday morning at the Young Women's Christian association. The annual meeting will be held in Atchison, Kan., May 4 and 5. Mrs. Johnson has been asked to respond to the adaress of welcome at this meeting.

The Dundee circle of the Child Conservation League of America will meet Monday at 2:30 p. m .. at the home of Mrs. George, Thompson 4524 Farnam street. Roll call response will be current events. Mr. R. S. Flower, boys' work director of the Young Men's Christian association will talk to the club on ."What This Community Might Do Toward Bet tering Child Play Conditions." Mrs. Walter Dale will give the story of the opera "Parsifal," and Miss Helen Pres- siving better service to the women than son will sing. Each member will bring a if the matter were put off until later. donation of food dr clothing.

Mrs. Frank Boyd will be hostess at the meeting of the Mu Sigma club for the year. Towne will be leader of the program, the Frances Willard Women's Christian which will be leader of the program, Temperance union Wednesday afternoon which will be a resume of the year's at the home of Mrs. George Young, 233 work. Officers for the coming year will South Thirty-second avenue. Mrs. Eliza. Le elected.

The home economics department of the South Omaha Woman's club will meet at the home of Mrs. Bruce McOulloch on Tuesday. A program on "Angel Food" will be given under the direction of Mrs. street, Monday afternoon at 2:15 o'clock, E. A. Boyer, who will be assisted by Mes. Mrs. G. A. Sammis will be leader of the dames L. J. Etter, H. Vore, Charles program. Mrs. J. F. Ferguson will dis-Oliver and E. M. Sloane.

Mrs. W. D. Percival will entertain the the new textbook "Your Child Today and Clio club at her home on Wednesday tomorrow. afternoon, when Mrs. J. T. Cathers will lead the program for the day, Mrs. Albert Riffle will read a paper on "Who is Who in the Political World;" Mrs. D. W. Mer-row a paper on "What Are the Suf. M. Nicholson. Mrs. Both led the meeting. After the regular program plans were (resettes Doing in New England," and made for the trent to be given soon by Mrs. Percival, "What Are the Sufimgettes Doing in England?" Items of interest will be given in response to roll cult.

The Qualia Story Tellers' league will Mrs. C. Nerness, Mrs. Howe and Mrs. N.

o'clock instead of the regular time at 10 in the morning. The postponemene is because of Mrs. Anthony French Merrill's morning lecture. Mrs. T. L. Coombs will give a resume of the year's work and plans for next year's work will be discussed. Officers will be elected,

The oratory department of the Omaha Woman's club will entertain the directory of the club at luncheon in the club rooms Tuesday.

The Dundee Woman's club voted to postpone the beginning of the next club year until November 3 because of the Billy Sunday meetings.

The plan of "Modern Topics as Illustrated in 'Literature," issued by the General Federation; will be followed in choos-

The following topics and the book illustrative of them were given as examples of the books to be studied: Peace. "Trojan Women," Buripides; Immigration, "The Promised Land," Mary Antin, "The Trail of the Emigrant," Dr. or Steiner: Immortality, "Ode on Intima-tions of Immortality," Wordsworth.

Four meetings will be devoted to the study of the Bible as literature. "Ruth," the poetry of the Psalms, the story of the prodigal son and Ecclesiastes and the books to be studied.

A policy of intensive growth rather than expansion will be carried out and the membership limited to seventy. One-half hour will be devoted to current topics at each meeting.

Secretaries of women's study clube are already advising Miss Edith Tobitt of the public library concerning their programs for next season, in order that the library may check up the subjects and prepare suitable material for use of the women. Miss Tobitt says that by doing so now the clubs allow the library plenty of time to assemble sources of information applicable to the programs, thereby when the library staff will be too husy to give it the best service.

A. W. Miller, probation officer, will Wednesday morning. Mrs. S. R. give a talk on phases of his work before beth Higgins Sullivan will conduct/ the lesson on "Demands for Social Welfare."

> The Tennyson circle of the Chautauqua Literary club will meet at the home of Mrs. F. H. Wray, 807 North Thirty-fifth cuss Thackeray's "Vanity Fair" and Mrs. W. B. Smith will lead the discussion of

The Benson Foreign Missionary circle met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. J.

home of Mrs. W. A. Wilcox Thursday, Mra. W. W. Gamble was leader and

The Benson Woman's club mot at the