

Latest Photos from the War Arena

Home coming British wounded Arrival at one of the South coast ports after the battle of Neuve Chappelle

Austrian ammunition transport getting through one of the passes of the Carpathians

Mine destroyers that have been working about the British coast

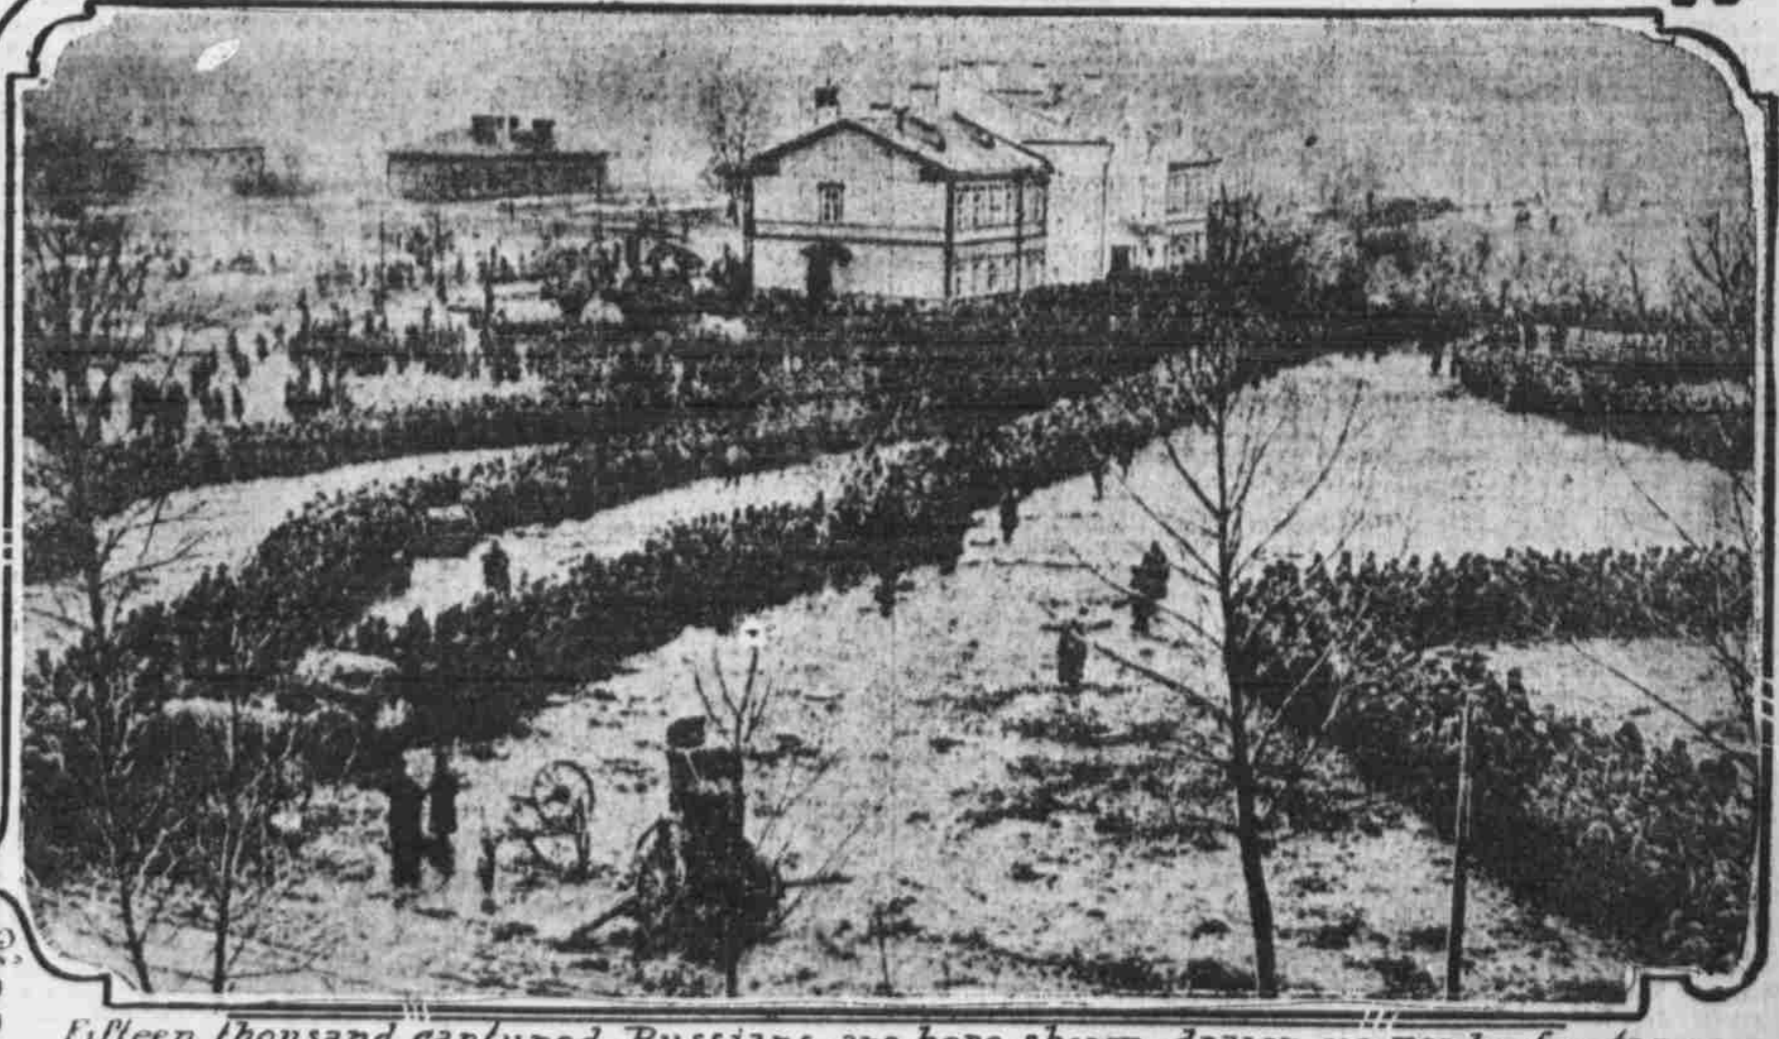

German artillery men fraternizing with Austrian comrades in the Carpathians

Rifle fire from a British mine sweeper used to explode a floating mine

Russian field office receiving message at phone station near Warsaw

Fifteen thousand captured Russians are here shown, drawn up ready for transportation from the Masurian Lake region to Augusto.