MACCABEES HERE THIS WEEK

State Convention to Be Held at the Rome Tuesday—Committees Are Named. WILL CONFER DEGREE WORK. Committees have been appointed to prepare for the grand rally and state convention of the Ladies of the Maccabees of the World to be held in Rome convention hall here on April 30. The committees are as follows: Committee on decorations: Gate City drive No. 3, Omaha, Mrs. Addie Palmer, chairman. Committee on badges: Lady Hollister drive No. 21, Mrs. Ross Taylor, chairman. The reception committee will be headed by Mrs. R. H. McKelvey, chairman. On general arrangements: Mesdames Effie B. Croser, Emma Talbot, Rose Taylor, Caroline Carman, Malinda Burr, Roxie Ryan and Kathleen Anderson will take charge. This is to be a notable meeting. The honor guests will be Mrs. Alice B. Locke, supreme lieutenant commander, and visitors are expected from all over the state. Teams from Lincoln and Omaha will confer the degree work. The Ladies of the Maccabees of the World is the largest fraternal beneficiary society in the world, and American women are at the head of it and foremost in its membership. The supreme commander, Miss Elin M. West, is one of the leading fraternalists on the continent and organized the first hive herself twenty-three years ago.

UNIVERSITY PEOPLE Prepare for Gala Day

Students of the University of Omaha are actively engaged in mapping out the program for Gala day, to be held May 11 on the University campus. As now arranged every class organization and society of the university will participate. Because of the number of the featured each organization has been limited to twenty-five minutes in giving its share of the entertainment. Two entertainments are to be given this year. One will be in the afternoon at Jacobs Memorial hall and the other in the evening. The afternoon performance will consist mainly of an indoor performance, while in the evening the special crowning of the most popular co-ed of the school is scheduled. Interest in the selecting of the most popular girl for the May queen is already the chief issue among the girls. Balloting for this position will take place the early part of next month. Apartments, flats, houses and cottages can be rented quickly and cheaply by a Bee "For Rent"

What Women Are Doing in the World

THE closing days of the club year for the Omaha Woman's club are fraught with interest. At the social science department meeting Monday Mrs. D. G. Craighead, who received an appointment in Lincoln during the last session of the legislature, will tell her experiences. Mrs. Craighead has been active in this department and in suffrage circles. Mrs. Draper Smith will also give a suffrage talk. The annual observance of Arbor day by the conservation committee, headed by Mrs. William Berry, in the absence of Mrs. Edgar Allen, will be on Thursday. Dr. D. E. Condra of Lincoln, director of the Nebraska Conservation and Soil Survey, will give a stereoscopic lecture, "A Journey Through Nebraska," at the Munroe theater, twenty-sixth and Farnam, whose use has been extended as a courtesy to the Woman's club. Musical numbers will also be given. Of special interest to all club members will be the organization's twenty-second birthday, which will be celebrated Saturday evening with a musicale in the club rooms, the program to be in charge of the music department. Following this, there will be a reception in the green room and refreshments will be served under the direction of the house and home committee. For this occasion Mrs. John E. Haarmann, leader of the music department, has arranged for a repetition of the opera "Martha," by Flotow, which was given earlier in the year. Mrs. Earle Stiles will tell the story of the opera and there will be an overture by an orchestral group from the Omaha School of Orchestral Instruments. The vocal numbers are as follows: Duet—"The Noble Cavaliers"..... Mrs. E. A. Weathers, Miss Ruth Ganson. Duet—"What a Chatter, What a Clatter" George Compton, Marcus Nielsen. Spinning Quartet..... Mrs. E. A. Weathers, Amanda Tebbins, George Compton, Marcus Nielsen. Ballad—"The Last Rose of Summer"..... Amanda Tebbins. Trio—"Friends, Good Night"..... Amanda Tebbins, Edna Rosenzweig, Ruth Ganson. Aria—"Never More My Heart Shall Grieve"..... Edna Rosenzweig. Aria—"Al! So Pure, Al! So Fair"..... George Compton. Duet—"What's to Do"..... Ruth Ganson, Marcus Nielsen. Accompanist, Mrs. Henry Cox, Mrs. J. E. Haarmann. The annual meeting of the club will be Monday afternoon, April 26. Omaha clubwomen occupy a prominent place on the program for the annual meeting of the Second district, Nebraska Federation of Women's Clubs, which will be held at the Benson Methodist church April 29. Among them are Mrs. N. H. Nelson, president of the Omaha Woman's club; Mesdames F. H. Cole, M. H. Blackwell, K. R. J. Edholm, F. H. Burnett, C. W. Hayes, J. T. Johnson, E. A. Beardsley, J. F. Ferguson, Helen Morton and W. T. Johnson. The principal address at the evening session will be by Dr. E. A. Carr of Lincoln, president of the State Board of Health, who will talk on "Need of State Sanitary Survey." There also will be speeches by Mrs. A. G. Peterson of Aurora, state president; Mrs. T. J. Gat of Falls City, Mrs. D. E. Wherry of Pawnee City, Mrs. James Davidson of Papillion, Mrs. N. M. Graham of South Omaha, Mrs. J. T. Lees of Lincoln, Mrs. Joseph Sparks and Mrs. W. G. Whitmore of Valley, Mrs. J. N. Paul of St. Paul and Mrs. W. H. Burkett of Herman. Mrs. Silas Wright, president of the Benson Woman's club, will give the address of welcome. Mrs. W. E. Weekly of Valley, president of the Second district, will preside. Other officers of the district are: Mrs. C. M. Schindell of South Omaha, vice president, and Mrs. James Davidson of Papillion secretary. Musical numbers will be given by Misses Alice McCree, Beatrice Walton, Hazel Wilcox, Margaret Liljenstone, Mildred Stepp and Mrs. E. F. Bralley, Mrs. Freeman, Mrs. Frank Brucha, Dean Ringer, Florence Basler Palmer, Paul Reese, Will Hetherington and Rev. A. J. McClung, pastor of the Benson Presbyterian church. Mrs. George Iredale will give a reading. Much interest has been aroused in this meeting by the unique method evolved by the Benson Woman's club to raise money to entertain the convention. The women compiled a very excellent cook book filled with favorite recipes of the Benson women, the sale of which brought in the necessary funds. Mrs. J. Y. Hooper and Mrs. F. B. Oliver were especially active in this work and placed the book on sale at the Omaha Woman's club recently. Mrs. J. E. Haarmann was re-elected leader of the music department of the Omaha Woman's club at the last department meeting. Mrs. Wagner Thomas, Miss Amanda Tebbins, Mrs. J. E. Pulver and Mrs. L. M. Lord are the assistant leaders and Mrs. A. L. Fernald is the secretary. The last meeting of the art department of the Omaha Woman's club, which was announced for Thursday, is omitted because of Arbor day. Mrs. C. J. Roberts was re-elected leader of the department

WILL DELIVER SERIES OF LECTURES IN OMAHA.

The Benson Baptist Missionary circle met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Ray Robinson, when a general review of the past work was given. A program on "Suffrage in Colorado" will be presented at the Omaha Suffrage association, tea Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. D. B. Gross. Each member will give an item of interest on what suffrage has accomplished in Colorado, and Mrs. A. O. Higgins will read a paper on "Woman's Spheres." Miss Miriam Davis will give readings and Miss Rose Glinaky vocal solos. Miss Kate Swartzlander will tell stories at the meeting of the mothers' culture department of the South Omaha Woman's club Tuesday afternoon at library hall. Miss Ruth Thompson will give an exhibition of folk dancing and Mrs. Hal Roberts will give vocal solos, accompanied by Mrs. J. D. Ringer. This is the last meeting of the department for the current club year. Mrs. Edward Johnson, chairman of the house and home committee of the Omaha Woman's club, has called a meeting of the committee for Monday at 4 o'clock

How You Can Grow Diamonds

"Say, John, that's a mighty fine diamond you have there." "You bet it is. Nothing better. Worth a bunch of money." "I can see that all right, but I can't see how you got ALL that money together at one time to buy a stone like that." "I didn't. I grew this one." "Grew it? What's the joke?" "No joke at all. I'm perfectly serious. You know I always wanted a large diamond ring, but never had enough at one time to get one. I usually had a few dollars left out of my salary, but the amount I saved never got within speaking distance of a ring like this. Well, one day, while walking past Edholm's jewelry store, I saw a showy little ring marked $25, which was just the amount I had saved up. I went in, looked at it, and while it was not like this one, it looked good to me and I bought it. Mr. Edholm then explained that in case I wished a larger stone later on, that $25 diamond was worth in trade exactly what I paid for it. Well, to make a long story short, I exchanged that $25 stone for one worth $50; the $50 one for an $85 one, the $85 one for a $150 one and the $150 one for this one, and as I never missed the money that way, I figured that I grew this diamond from the $25 seedling. Am I right?" "You certainly are, and I am going to stop in and see Mr. Edholm myself today."
