the Combat.

RESULTING SCORE IS 12 TO 10 Wobbly fielding, erratic pitching and neavy slugging were features of the fray staged yesterday by the Rourkes and the lawly Links from Lincoln. After two hours of rag-tag pastiming, the Links returned victorious, 12 to 10. The Rourkes made a desperate effort make a flank attack from the rear in the ultimate chapter, just as they did Saturday, but after three runs had been counted a cog slipped and the combat was over. The Links took particular delight in the fferings of Ralph Willis. They punshed him unmercifully, wielding the war club with considerable cclat. And when the Links weren't hitting, the home boys
