By MELLIFICIA. Friday, April 23, 1915.

WELL, I guess we're through with philanthropic sewing circles for awhile. Having been completely immersed in them for an entire year all seem to be a trifle phlegmatic in their interests and tickled to death with being rid of just plain needles, knitting needles and, needless to say, knitters.

From whence comes this peculiar craze of crochet needles and balls? It seems to have become the most engrossing phenomenon that has assailed feminism in many moons. Everybody you see is making a wheel of lace and flaunting the glorious endings with such a bravado air.

Can you exactly understand the overwhelming satisfaction that beams from a little wheel being evolved, at the expense of loss of sight, from a hook and ball of thread? Maybe its rhythmic movement that harmonizes with the nervous system that keeps the temperament in tune.

Some peculiar psychic force exists in the hook, for I was at a small tea the other afternoon and, by jolly, no one could get a raise, not even a raise of a head out of any one present. You could even fancy a scandal being received in that oh-such-things-happen-in-the-best-of-families attitude, so deep was the immersion in the knitting and tatting needles.

Pleasures Past.
The Exclusive Card club was entertained at the home of Mrs. Ferdinand Smith Wednesday afternoon. High five was played and the prizes were awarded to Mrs. J. Bastian and Mrs. M. Erick. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Henry Lehman Wednesday, May 1.

Bridge Luncheon.
The Friday Bridge Luncheon club was entertained this afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. E. Jaycox at Carter lake. The table was attractively decorated with wild violets and covers were placed for: Madames—Frank Fayden, A. C. Hartman, E. C. Jaycox, O. C. Homan, H. A. Dornody.

Birth Day Dinner.
Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Narnes of Benson gave a dinner Saturday evening at their home in honor of the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Narnes. The table was decorated with tulips and daffodils. The guests from Omaha were Mrs. A. Borden, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Clarke and Miss Phyllis Clarke.

Engagement Announced.
The engagement of Miss Helen E. Norris to Mr. William C. Schroy was announced last week at a luncheon given at the home of Mrs. E. W. Norris. The wedding will take place on May 25 at St. Bernard's church of Benson. Rev. Father Buckley will perform the ceremony.

Ku Sigma Nu Party.
The members of Ku Sigma Nu, a medical fraternity of the College of Medicine of the University of Nebraska, will give a dancing party at Hotel Reno Saturday evening. About thirty couples will attend.

Student and Alumni Prom.
Elaborate decorations will mark the student and alumni prom which will be given at the Reno hotel this evening. Over 50 presents have been hung and palms and ferns will be used profusely. Henry Howes and Chandler Trimble are in charge of the affair.

Personal Mention.
Mrs. G. L. Raymer of Chicago will be the week-end guest of Mrs. John Thom. Mrs. Raymer is returning home from Atkinson, Neb., where she was called by the sudden illness of Mrs. Mary Raymer, mother of G. L. Raymer.

Lecture at Mrs. Kennedy's.

PINEAPPLE SEASON TO BEGIN

First Car of This Fruit Expected to Arrive in Omaha Tuesday.

CITRUS FRUIT PRICES RISING

The pineapple season is just breaking over the horizon. The first car of Omaha is expected to arrive Tuesday of next week. With this advent the pineapple season will begin.

Grape fruit, lemons and oranges have all shown a tendency to advance on the wholesale market, although all may yet be had in the retail market at figures comparatively low. Grapefruit of whole-size can still be obtained at a nickel apiece and 6 1/2 to 7 1/2 cents. Lemons advanced a quarter a box wholesale and oranges are up 50 cents a box. Oranges have advanced 5 cents a dozen all around.

Strawberries are still almost a minus entity on the market. Apples are growing mighty scarce and the best of the lots contain some that are not standing the season any too well.

Sugar is about steady with last week's market, but shows a firm tendency. Sixteen pounds for a dollar is the best one can do. Flour has advanced 20 cents a barrel since a week ago, or a nickel a sack.

Home Grown Vegetables on Market.
Home grown vegetables are on the market to a large extent, especially asparagus, radishes, onions and rhubarb. Home grown asparagus can be had at 7 1/2 cents a bunch, radishes, three bunches for a nickel; onions, six bunches for a nickel; and rhubarb, three bunches for a nickel. Sweet potatoes have made their exit from the market.

Eggs are steady at 30 cents a dozen. Butter is off 2 cents, selling now at 25 cents for the best creamery, while it was bringing 27 cents last week. All cheese is up from a half to three-quarters of a cent a pound wholesale.

Lambs are up so that in general chops and quarters are selling at 4 cents a pound higher than two weeks ago. This hindquarters of lamb are selling at 17 1/2 cents, lamb chops at 25 to 30 cents and forequarters at 12 1/2 cents.

Wisconsin Court Holds With Roads on Train Service

Burlington officials are feeling pretty good over a decision of the Wisconsin supreme court. Notice of the finding of the court has just reached the passenger department, and the advice is that the railroad company has won.

The Wisconsin legislature passed a law requiring that when railroads operated four or more passenger trains each way daily over any line, at least two of such trains moving in each direction should make stops at all towns of 200 or more inhabitants. The railroads fought the law on the ground that it was unconstitutional, against public policy and class legislation, and that it would make limited trains do a local business. The advice is that the supreme court sustained the views of the railroad attorneys.

Lad Has One Dog to Watch His House and One for His Garden

Garden thieves, if there are any such in Omaha, will find it a good plan to avoid at least one of the hundreds of gardens being made this spring by school children in the organized garden club movement. That one has been started by Russell Burton, across the street from his home, 204 Harney street.

Russell is a Central school lad, and he plans to do big things in his track patch. Also, he plans to protect it.

"I've got two good watchdogs," he confided to Garden Expert Day and Secretary R. E. Flower. "One of the dogs will guard my garden and the other will watch the house. And they're both big dogs with lots of bite, so I guess nobody will visit my garden at all."

And it's so easy to digest and so easy to prepare Faust Macaroni. Besides serving it as the whole meal, you should serve it often as a side dish.

W. H. BANCROFT IS CALLED

Prominent Harriman Official Dies Suddenly Following Stroke of Apoplexy.

WAS WELL KNOWN IN OMAHA

Union Pacific officials have been notified of the death of W. H. Bancroft, vice president of the Oregon Short Line, that occurred at his home in Salt Lake City Thursday.

Mr. Bancroft for many years was general manager of the Short Line, but resigned a year ago, since then having devoted much of his time to looking after his private interests.

In the event of the funeral of Mr. Bancroft is held in Salt Lake City and the burial occurs there, it is likely that officials of the Union Pacific will attend, song on a special train. However, there is some doubt about the body being buried in the west. Mr. Bancroft died a couple of years ago and her body was taken to the old Ohio home for burial and there is an opinion prevailing that the body of Mr. Bancroft will be placed beside that of his wife.

Stroke of Apoplexy.

Mr. Bancroft died as a result of a stroke of apoplexy sustained early Thursday morning. After being stricken he did not regain consciousness. He was born in Ohio in 1846 and on the Lake Shore, at 15 years of age, entered the railroad service as a telegraph messenger boy. Later he came west and went to the Union Pacific, quitting that road to become assistant superintendent of the Santa Fe. From there he went to the Missouri, Texas & Pacific as chief train dispatcher and from there he went to the Rio Grande as division superintendent. In 1900 he went to the Union Pacific as superintendent of the mountain division, remaining until 1907, when he was elected general manager and vice president of the Short Line, one of the roads of the Harriman system, remaining with that company until his death.

For years Mr. Bancroft had been president of and was one of the principal owners of the Salt Lake Street Railway company and the electric light plant.

George Johnston says—
"Lee's Shampoo is quite electric in its action and vanishes as quick after it has done its work. It's good for babies as for grown-ups."—George W. Johnston.

The best point about Lee's Shampoo is that it takes out every bit of grease, dirt and dandruff and takes itself out too.

Soap left in the hair fibre and scalp pores causes more head trouble than any other thing except not washing at all. It causes excessive dandruff, itching, scalp eruptions and even headaches; also sticky, stiff, brittle or breaky hair. You can well blame the soap you used a week or a month ago.

You would not use a shaving soap for the teeth, a tooth soap for the skin, or a toilet soap for a shave. Why not use a real hair soap for the hair? It's not only the immediate result that counts. It's the month-after effect.

A pure, vegetable oil, alcohol, glycerine, liquid soap, beautifully transparent, emerald green in color, pleasantly perfumed.
