Tigers Whip Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, O., April 28.—Detroit defeated Cleveland 8 to 4 today. Coumbe's own wild throws caused his retirement. Steen, who replaced him? was effective, but retired to allow the substitution of a pinch hitter. Harstad, who finished, was hit hard. Cleveland drove Coveleski from the box in the sixth inning, but Dauss proved a mystery, a double play saving him the trouble in the ninth. Second Baseman Young of Detroit sprained a knee sliding into third base in the first inning. Fuller, a Detroits emi-professional, took his place and played brilliantly. Score:
