BLODGETT TWIRLS OMAHA TO VICTORY

Opens Season at Home by Permitting But One Run, Four Hits and Whiffing Eight.

DICK BREEN MAKES FOUR HITS

Mr. Thomas Blodgett, late of Waterloo, was an inexplicable mystery to the cheery Stewie City champs in the opening combat of the season at home yesterday and the beat the Sioux could do was amass one run and four hits and lose the fray, 4 to 1. It also might be said in passing that Thomas whiffed eight of the said cheery Sioux and slipped nary a base on balls. Thomas is a considerable pitcher; he has worked in three games so far and through his efforts largely all three were capped.

By suppressing Josh Clarke's forces Mr. Blodgett and the Rouckevilians made a solid hit with the Sioux excited buns present. The bugs were aroused to a most enthusiastic state during the matinee. To make things pleasant a brass band out loose with a lot of near-melody. Next when Tompa Van Niekle called the game, our well known mayor pranced out onto the field and assumed a stand in the pitcher's box. Next trotted Mr. Hitchcock, catcher. He was covered up by Ernie Krueger's apparatus so that the mayor could chuck the pill to him.

Queen Gives Ball to Krueger. As the senator slapped Krueger's cap on his ear and Dahlman assumed a most artistic pose in the box, Miss Frances Hochstetler, queen of Ak-Bar-Ben, debutante and otherwise a social light around these parts, one-stepped gaily out onto the field and handed the mayor a nice new base ball. The mayor blushed a rosy red, politely doffed his cap to the bewitching debutante and whispered a few careful words, the nature of which knowest not those in the stands.

Then the mayor pitched the pill. It was a pretty good heave at that. It only grazed the plate a few inches and there was no excuse for the senator's wretched bobble. If the senator is a better politician than catcher, he stands a better chance at the next election.

After all the fussing the ball game started and with the ball game started Mr. Blodgett. With Tom bowling along in his best approved style and toying with the regulars of the Stewie City troop, the Rouckevilians proceeded to stud the combat with base knocks. Thirteen such were garnered by the home folks and Mr. Clark, whose name "Pepper" has no significance as regards his speed, was given the gate and a fast track to the shower in the seventh round. Mr. Clark took a fierce arse-kick in the frames he worked and was forced to succumb.

Sioux Score First. Blodgett got away to what looked like a bad start. After Conroy had trotted up, retreated via Mr. Smith. Sheehan started a hot one down the third base line for a safe blow. Clarke put one down by first and Sheehan galloped to third. Kane plowed up the diamond with a grounder which escaped Dick Breen and Sheehan scooted home. But a bad start never worries the Waterloo southpaw. He buckled down and there was nothing further doing for the champs. In fact, only one of the invaders reached third base after the initial stam.

To give the huter the proper confidence the Rouckevilians grabbed back that run in the last half of the opener. Smith coaxed Pepper for a walk and Breen crossed the infield, which was drawn up for a bout, by making one through Henning. Krug made the sacrifice which sent Smith to third. After Thomason stroked Huelsman hit one to Sheehan, who threw to the plate to nip Smith coming home. Crisp fumbled the sphere and Smith counted.

Cut Loose in Seventh. After slamming the ball around more or less promiscuously and failing to score only by bad breaks in the luck for five frames, the Bruins decided to cut loose in the seventh. They therefore did as decided. Breen beat out a cute little bunt which found the Sioux flat-footed and looking on in open-eyed wonder. Krug took second on a passed ball. Breen drove a hot one which Conroy couldn't handle and Breen beat it for home with the run which would have been the winning one had no more been made. Thomason's hit over second put Krug on that base. Huelsman popped up an infield fly. At this point Clark decided to nip Krug off second. He tried and the pill hit Krug, bounced into right field and Marty and Tommy advanced a base. Callahan made a punk return and Callahan made a punk return and Tommy hit to second. Krueger's double to center scored Tommy. That finished the doings, but was sufficient to prove the undoing of the champs.

Breen Makes Four Hits. Dick Breen was the hero of the day at the bat. Dickie only made four hits out of as many trips to the plate. Twice he registered Nows by crossing the Sioux infield. You have got to hand it to Dickie, he plays regular big city base ball.

Mr. Smith, in left, put himself in good with the crowd by a couple of stellar catches. Both catches were of live drives and Smith was forced to run back to get them. There are not many outfielders in this loop who can go back and nip live drives.

The Boosters' club of the Knights of Columbus, Mayor Dahlman, Mrs. Dahlman and the Rotary club presented Pa Bourke and Mrs. Bourke with large bouquets of flowers before the combat. The Sioux will battle the Rouckevilians today. Everdon or Crab will probably hurt. Score:

Will Test Statute Excluding Films of Prize Battles

NEWARK, N. Y., April 27.—A legal contest by the owners of the Willard-Johnson fight films to bring the films into this country will begin here next Friday, according to an announcement by Charles A. Towne, formerly United States senator, counsel for L. Lawrence Weber, the owner. The first step preliminary to the beginning of the legal battle was taken here yesterday when Mr. Towne made a formal demand upon the collector of the port that the pictures be admitted. Refusal was given on the ground that the federal statutes forbade it. Mr. Towne then served notice that he would apply to Judge Thomas G. Halght, in the United States district court, on Friday for an injunction restraining the collector from refusing to admit the pictures. It is expected that argument will be heard about a week later and that the applicants will contend that the law barring the pictures is unconstitutional. Mr. Towne said that his application for an injunction would set forth that the owner desired to bring the pictures into this country not for sale, but for exhibition by himself. He said it would be admitted that they were films of a prize fight, not of a boxing bout.
