The British

FOR those alert men who make a point of being well dressed, yet always keep on the practical side of the extremes of fashions, we recommend the BRITISH.

A most attractive, three button, soft roll sack, that breeds confidence in man who wears it and in the men who made it. All men are young in these stirring days, and for any man in active life, right clothes are an asset and an inspiration. If the BRITISH model is to your liking you can have it in solid blues, browns and neat gray mixtures. It comes in Tweeds, Cheviots, Worsteds, Serges, Flannels and Homespuns-Glen Urquharts with clear overplaids, shepherd checks, gun club checks, hair-line stripes, mixes and solid colors-in short, almost every approved suiting which has come from the looms this season.

MISSING SHENANDOAH MAN GOES TO WYOMING

SHENANDOAH, Ia., April 28.-(Special.) - A postcard malled at Villisca, Is., and received by Mrs. A. C. Allen, wife of the overseer at the Joe Auracher farm, who disappeared from his home last Tuesday, when he started to the grain elevator, solves partially one of the mysteries of disappearing men. He stated on the card he was on the way to Wyoming and would send for her when he reached there. Mrs. Allen has moved to Maryville, Mo., to live with her married stater and does not plan to join her husband in the west.

A body has been found in the Missouri river near Omaha, which was thought to be that of Chris Christenson, the other Shepandoah man that disappeared. Acquaintances here say that use der riction of the dead man does not apply to the local man who wrote suicide notes in any particular. Mrs. Christenson and her three small children have gone to Omaha, where they plan to make their home, it is stated.
