APPLE ORCHARDS IN FULL BLOOM

Indications Are that Crop in Southeastern Nebraska Will Be Largest for Years.

ACREAGE INCREASING RAPIDLY

STELLA, Neb., May 1 .- (Special.) -Apple orchards are in full bloom in southeastern Nebraska two weeks earlier than usual. The bloom is so abundant that 90 per cent of a crop

The purpose of this purchase is to perpetuate to some extent the horticultural teachings of the founder of Arbor day on the land that was once a part of his home.

This new company takes its name from the locas soil, on which the company's holdings are located. The locas soil is peculiar to the Missouri valley, lying along both sides of the river. Loess soil is of a peculiar type, and is not common. It is said to be the deepest and most everlasting of all soils, and only two large bodies of any consequence known of elsewhere are in Germany and China, where such soil is held at a very high price. This soil reaches its best in the Missouri valley in the 300 miles between Kansas City and Omaha. It does not extend very far back from the river-in the Shubert orchard country, the distance is less than fifteen miles.

Will Bear in Eight Years. Ten thousand trees are required to set the 200 acres of the Loess Land company. Two-year-old trees are used, and the earliest bearing fruit will not be productive commercially for eight years. The varieties are Winesap, Delicious, Jonathan, Duchess, Grimes Golden and Mispouri Pippin. Mr. Shubert, who has the planting in charge, employs fifteen men, The cost of the trees and the cost of labor to get them planted, together represent about $25 an acre. Corn will be planted between the trees this season, and the ground kept in a good state of cultivation. Altogether about 300 acres of commercial orchard are being set in the vicinity of Shubert this spring. P. W. Carr. Worth King and J. F. Shubert are each individually putting out about twenty-

IS LIVING NOW IN DES MOINES

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, May 1 .- (Special.) -- Governor Morehead returned last night from a visit to his aged mother in Des Molnes, where a family reunion was held in honor of her eighty-sixth birthday. The birthday dinner was given at the home of Mrs. Fay Burkbart, a granddaughter, and besides the aged mother, Mrs. Frances Morehead, two brothers of the governor, Vefferson, In., and two sisters, Mrs. Lavina Smith of Garden Grove and Mrs. May Duckworth of Des Meines, and others were present, four generations being represented The governor's mother came to Iowa in 1852, accompanied by her husband, who has been dead several years. The journey was a sort of wedding journey, and they settled in Lucas county, coming from Ohio by boat. The governor brought back many mementos of the early history of the family, among them pictures taken over 100 years ago. He reports his mother in fairly good health for so old ing back to her childhood days.

When Anybody Finds a Cure He Is Generally Willing To Tell His Neighbor

The willingness of one neighbor to tell another neighbor in a private way of the benefit received from Peruna, explains the popularity of Peruna more than all the advertising that has

The fear of the publicity undoubtedly prevents the majority of such people from writing a testimonial to be used in the newspaper. But in spite of that we are receiving fine testimonials con-

ANEMIA-Mrs. F. A. DeWitt, Marengo, Ohio, says: "I believe Perung to be the best tonic. I recommend it for any rundown condition of the system."

SPRING COLDS-Mrs. Rhoda Stufflebeam, Bunch, lowa: "A spring cold I took settled on my lungs. Coughed. Could not sleep. We feared consumption. Thanks to Peruna, I am a well woman today."

CATARRH-Mrs. Sadie Allen, Joseph, Oregon: "My little boy is entirely cured of catarrh of the ears by Peruna. Am thankful for your good advice."

SPRING TONIC-Mrs. Wm. McRoberts, Brown Valley, Minn.: "Taken in spring Peruna tones up the system. acts as a tonic. I consider Peruna a whole family medicine chest.' 4 How did they hear of Peruna?

Simply because one neighbor is always willing to tell another one he has found a cure. Neighborly conversation or grateful patients has done more for Peruna than advertising. Much more.

A bottle of Lee's Shampoo is a handy addition to the traveling kit and one needs a good lead cleaning often when on the road or in camp. The Lee bottle is heavy and strong and of shape easily packed. The cap is always unremovable until the lever is raised.

It is as easy to shampoo in a Puliman as at home and it does refresh one so at the end of a tiresome day. Lee's Liquid Shampoo is the real hair soap that evashes itself out too; that leaves the hair and scalp clean, normal and odoriess—the hair needs no new training.

Travelers from Omaha can greatly aid our national advertising by investigating while at home. It is not at all uncommon for travelers to be asked about goods advertised from their home town. Be prepared to give Lee's Liquid Shampoo a little boost if you find it as good as we and others say.

The most popular classification in The Bee today is the "Swappers' column." It reduces the cost of living by enabling you to swap off articles you were going to have to throw away, for others you can use. It is a real money-maker for scores of people who are devoting their entire time to making deals with other swappers. Some of these people are making a business out of it and others are making money that they consider as just so much found.

The "Swappers' Column" does not appear in any other Omaha paper. You can only reach these interested people through The Bee.
