Gustafson of State Union Tells City Men Tillers of Soil Don't Want Their Help.

WOULD ONLY CUT PRICES DOWN

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, May 6 .- (Special Telegram. -S. J. Gustafson, president of the State Farmers' union, raised a rumpus at the state meeting of Commercial clubs today by stating that the farmers did not want any suggestions or help from the people in town, did not want any assistance from farm demonstrations, and that they were not in favor of doing anything to ncrease the production of crops, for, with more crops, the rices would be lower.

Captain Allen G. Fisher in his characteristic way called Mr. Gustafson for his stand and asked him if he did not believe in doing anything to make Nebraska a better state. Others jumped onto Mr. Gustafson and criticized him unmercifully. However, Gustafson still insisted that the farmers didn't want any help from the town fellows, and didn't want them coming out into the country and telling them how to farm.

Congressman Dan Stephens addressed the club before luncheon. His talk was mostly along the lines of government ownership of railroads and the merchant

The next meeting will be held in Omaha.

Co-operation One Theme. Byron Clark of Omaha, solicitor for the Burlington railroad, spoke on "Corporation of the Railroads and their Patrons." On account of the length of the program, the addresses by J. W. Steinhart of Nebraska City, "Co-Operation in the Development of Nebraska," was put over until the afternoon session.

At the noon luncheon Congressman Dan Stephens of Fremont talked to the members for half an hour. The principal address of the session was given in the afternoon by T. N. Witten of Trenton, Mo., originator what is called the "Trenton Plan" in the

DAVID CITY, Neb., May 6 .- (Special.) --Judge C. M. Skiles and Judge R. C. Roper left today for Washington to appear in the supreme court of the United States in the case of Toop et al. against the Ulysses Land company et al., which has attracted considerable comment throughout the United States as involving the rights of nonresident sliens. property in question is a quarter sep-tion of land near Ulysses.

American heirs of John Toop, through Stephenson of Pairfield, were given.

Their attorneys, Judge Skiles and Roper, appear as friends of the court to support remaining sessions. An informal recopthat the English heir cannot claim any interest in the land because of the inheritance law in Nebraska, which bars nonresident aliens. The treaty with England in 1900 abrogating this law was entered into after the death of John Toop, and it is conlended by the American helrs that their sights had already attached and the treaty could not deprive them of their vested rights. The federal district court at Lincoln sustained this contention as court, and from this holding the English Mr. Stilwell had 300 acres in corn last heirs appealed to the supreme court of the United States.

WORKMEN MEET NEXT WEEK TO READJUST RATES

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., May &-(Spe cial.)-The withdrawal of Congressman Silas R. Barton as candidate for grand naster workman of the Ancient Order of United Workmen of Nebraska leaves the field clear for Judge A. M. Walling, the present grand master, who has successfully carried the order over the 40,000 mark. Nebraska is now the banner jurisdiction in the United States. Fred C. Whittiesey of this city, the present grand recorder, will have practically no opposition. The finance committee at its last session here several days ago allowedover $00,000 in doath claims.

The grand lodge will meet in biennial session at Lincoln next week and the most important business to be transacted will be a readjustment of the present rates. The ma shership generally recognizes the importance of this step, as the large death rate and the 79-year settlements has almost depleted the reserve or emergency fund and something must done at the coming session. Nearly 700 delegates from all sections of Nebraska will be present. The Lincoln lodges have prepared a fine program of entertainment. The general consensus is that the next grand lodge will be held

TONE'S Old Golden

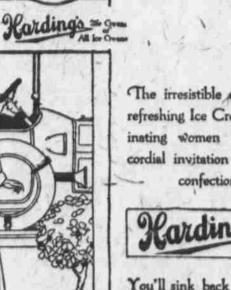

COFFEE for breakfast one of these days. It's ten to one that it will be Old Golden every morning thereafter. For here's a coffee so excellent in quality, with such an inviting aroma and so perfect a flavor that you won't care to try other brands. There's something distinctly good about Old Golden; and the goodness is the same next month or next year as it is now.

When you next order coffee get a pound of this from your grocer. It is sold either steel-cut, with the chaff removed, or in the bean if you prefer to grind it at home.
