

You Will Feel Better All Day Long

If You Will Start in the Morning With "Benetol"...

"Benetol" Gargle Will Take Away that "Morning Taste" and Leave Your Breath, Stomach and Disposition Sweet.

DIAMONDS WATCHES ON CREDIT

WEDDING AND GRADUATION GIFTS ON CHARGE ACCOUNT

TERMS, $1 A MONTH

LOFTIS THE NATIONAL CREDIT JEWELERS

Brooks & Co. 1523 4th St. Omaha.

Trial Quart and Leather Covered Flask

FREE

Finest Whiskey Lowest Price

Fels 3-Star Whiskey

8 Measure $5.45

4 Measure $2.95

EXPRESS CHARGES PREPAID

ACT AT ONCE

S. G. PETIGOLAS

U. S. ABOVE WAR, WILL NOT FIGHT

President Tells New Citizens it is Necessary to Set Example of Peace.

"THINK FIRST OF HUMANITY"

PHILADELPHIA, May 11.—President Wilson gave to a gathering of 4,000 naturalized Americans Monday the first intimation of what course the United States government will pursue in the situation resulting from the loss of more than a hundred lives on the British liner, Lusitania.

He spoke by implication, but his hearers interpreted his remarks as meaning that while the United States would remain at peace, it would seek to convince Germany of the injustice to mankind of the tragedy of Friday.

"America," said the president, "must have the consciousness that on all sides it touches elbows and touches hearts with all nations of mankind. The example of America must be a special example, not merely of peace, because it will not fight, but because peace is a healing and elevating influence in the world and strife is not."

"It is one thing to love the place where you were born and another thing to dedicate yourself to the place where you go."

"While you bring all countries with you, come with a purpose of leaving all other countries behind you—not looking over your shoulder."

"You can't be an American if you think of yourself in groups. A man who considers himself as belonging to a national group is not yet an American."

"My advice to you is to think first, not only of America, but to think first of humanity."

"The man who seeks to divide man from man, group from group, interest from interest, in the United States is striking at its very heart."

"The man who goes among you to trade upon your nationality is no worthy son to live under the Stars and Stripes."

time, no matter what may happen in the world.

Where Allegiance Belongs.

Introduced by Mayor Blankenburg, who spoke in a distinctly German accent a welcome and an appeal for a single allegiance to the United States, the president carried forward the idea of the wedding of foreign blood in the makeup of America by pointing out the true goal of right American citizenship to be a loyalty not to the country of one's birth, but to the land of one's adoption.

"While you bring," he said, "all countries with you, you come with the purpose of leaving all other countries behind you—bringing what is best of their spirit, but not looking over your shoulder or seeking to perpetuate what you leave in them. I would not certainly be one who would suggest that a man ceases to love the place of his origin, if it is one thing to love the place where you were born, and another thing to dedicate yourself to the place where you go. You can't be an American if you think of yourself in groups. America does not consist of groups. A man who considers himself as belonging to a national group is not yet an American."

Think of Humanity.

"My advice to you is to think first not only of America, but to think first of humanity; and you do not love humanity if you seek to divide humanity in 'jealous camps.'"

The president was constantly interrupted by spontaneous outbursts of applause. He spoke clearly and so quiet was his audience of 15,000 that he could be heard distinctly in all parts of the great hall. Everywhere the red, white and blue flag and bunting was displayed and a band during the evening played patriotic airs. Some of the passages in his speech, which the crowd applauded most loudly, were these:

Pungent Points of President's Speech Indicating Course in the Present Crisis

"There is such a thing as being too proud to fight. There is such a thing as being so right that it does not need to convince others by force that it is right."

"The example of America must be a special example, and must be an example not merely of peace because it will not fight, but because peace is a healing and elevating influence in the world and strife is not."

"It is one thing to love the place where you were born and another thing to dedicate yourself to the place where you go."

"While you bring all countries with you, come with a purpose of leaving all other countries behind you—not looking over your shoulder."

"You can't be an American if you think of yourself in groups. A man who considers himself as belonging to a national group is not yet an American."

"My advice to you is to think first, not only of America, but to think first of humanity."

"The man who seeks to divide man from man, group from group, interest from interest, in the United States is striking at its very heart."

"The man who goes among you to trade upon your nationality is no worthy son to live under the Stars and Stripes."

time, no matter what may happen in the world.

Where Allegiance Belongs.

Introduced by Mayor Blankenburg, who spoke in a distinctly German accent a welcome and an appeal for a single allegiance to the United States, the president carried forward the idea of the wedding of foreign blood in the makeup of America by pointing out the true goal of right American citizenship to be a loyalty not to the country of one's birth, but to the land of one's adoption.

"While you bring," he said, "all countries with you, you come with the purpose of leaving all other countries behind you—bringing what is best of their spirit, but not looking over your shoulder or seeking to perpetuate what you leave in them. I would not certainly be one who would suggest that a man ceases to love the place of his origin, if it is one thing to love the place where you were born, and another thing to dedicate yourself to the place where you go. You can't be an American if you think of yourself in groups. America does not consist of groups. A man who considers himself as belonging to a national group is not yet an American."

Think of Humanity.

"My advice to you is to think first not only of America, but to think first of humanity; and you do not love humanity if you seek to divide humanity in 'jealous camps.'"

The president was constantly interrupted by spontaneous outbursts of applause. He spoke clearly and so quiet was his audience of 15,000 that he could be heard distinctly in all parts of the great hall. Everywhere the red, white and blue flag and bunting was displayed and a band during the evening played patriotic airs. Some of the passages in his speech, which the crowd applauded most loudly, were these:

PRESIDENT WILSON.

"While you bring all countries with you, come with a purpose of leaving all other countries behind you—not looking over your shoulder."

"You can't be an American if you think of yourself in groups. A man who considers himself as belonging to a national group is not yet an American."

"My advice to you is to think first, not only of America, but to think first of humanity."

"The man who seeks to divide man from man, group from group, interest from interest, in the United States is striking at its very heart."

"The man who goes among you to trade upon your nationality is no worthy son to live under the Stars and Stripes."

time, no matter what may happen in the world.

Where Allegiance Belongs.

Introduced by Mayor Blankenburg, who spoke in a distinctly German accent a welcome and an appeal for a single allegiance to the United States, the president carried forward the idea of the wedding of foreign blood in the makeup of America by pointing out the true goal of right American citizenship to be a loyalty not to the country of one's birth, but to the land of one's adoption.

"While you bring," he said, "all countries with you, you come with the purpose of leaving all other countries behind you—bringing what is best of their spirit, but not looking over your shoulder or seeking to perpetuate what you leave in them. I would not certainly be one who would suggest that a man ceases to love the place of his origin, if it is one thing to love the place where you were born, and another thing to dedicate yourself to the place where you go. You can't be an American if you think of yourself in groups. America does not consist of groups. A man who considers himself as belonging to a national group is not yet an American."

Think of Humanity.

"My advice to you is to think first not only of America, but to think first of humanity; and you do not love humanity if you seek to divide humanity in 'jealous camps.'"

The president was constantly interrupted by spontaneous outbursts of applause. He spoke clearly and so quiet was his audience of 15,000 that he could be heard distinctly in all parts of the great hall. Everywhere the red, white and blue flag and bunting was displayed and a band during the evening played patriotic airs. Some of the passages in his speech, which the crowd applauded most loudly, were these:

teachers hearts with all the nations of mankind.

"The example of America must be a special example. The example of America must be the example not merely of peace because it will not fight, but of peace, because peace is the healing and elevating influence of the world and strife is not. There is such a thing as a man being too proud to fight. There is such a thing as a nation being so right that it does not need to convince others by force that it is right."

"So if you come into this great nation as you have come, voluntarily giving something that we have to give, all that we have to give is this. We cannot exempt you from work. No man is exempt from work anywhere in the world. I sometimes think he is fortunate if he has to work only with his hands and not with his head. It is very easy to do what other people give you to do, but it is very difficult to give other people things to do. We cannot exempt you from work; we cannot exempt you from the strife and the heart breaking burden of the struggle of the day—that is common to mankind everywhere; we cannot exempt you from the loads that you must carry; we can only make them light by the spirit in which they are carried. That is the spirit of hope, it is the spirit of liberty, it is the spirit of justice."

"When I was asked, therefore, by the mayor and the committee that accompanied him to come up from Washington to meet this great company of newly-admitted citizens, I could not decline the invitation. I ought not to be away from Washington and yet I feel that it has renewed my spirit as an American. In Washington men tell you so many things every day that are not so, and I like to come and stand in the presence of a great body of my fellow citizens, whether they have been my fellow citizens a long time or a short time, and drink, as it were, out of the common fountain with them and go back feeling that you have so generously given me the sense of your support and of the living vitality in your hearts, of its great ideals which made America the hope of the world."

AMERICANS REPORTED SAFE IN URUMIAH

WASHINGTON, May 11.—Assurances from the Turkish government that Americans in Urumiah, Persia, where bandit uprisings were reported some weeks ago, were safe and not in need of financial

Dyspepsia Overcome

Tone Up the Stomach with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

When you have dyspepsia your life is miserable. You have a bad taste in your mouth, a tenderness at the pit of your stomach, a feeling of puffy fullness, headache, heartburn and sometimes nausea.

Dyspepsia is difficult digestion—that is what the word means—and the only way to get rid of it is to give vigor and tone to the stomach and the whole digestive system. Hood's Sarsaparilla, sold by all druggists, is the one medicine which acts on the stomach through the blood and also directly. Its beneficial effects are felt at once. Improvement begins immediately.

Hood's Sarsaparilla purifies the blood, makes the rich red blood that is needed for perfect digestion, and builds up the whole system. No other medicine can take its place.—Advertisement.

Consciousness of America.

"See, my friends, what that means; it means that Americans must have a consciousness different from the consciousness of every other nation in the world. I am not saying this with even the slightest thought of criticism of other nations. You know how it is with a family. A family gets centered on itself if it is not careful and is less interested in the neighbors than it is in its own members. So a nation that is not constantly renewed out of new sources is apt to have the narrowness and prejudice of a family; whereas, America on all sides it touches elbows and

IT'S within our power to do things in the tailoring line sufficiently better than does the average tailor, to cause you to come here—for correct and satisfying attire.

Nicoll Tailoring is not ordinary tailoring—it has an individual distinction of its own—that's pleasing and satisfying—

GERMANY REGRETS SENDING KATWYK TO THE BOTTOM

THE HAGUE (Via London), May 11.—It is officially announced that the German government has expressed sincere regret for the sinking of the Dutch steamer Katwyk, which was blown up off North Hinder lightship on April 14 by a German submarine. Germany explains that the act was in no wise intentional, and undertakes to make compensation.

Apartment, flats, houses and cottages can be rented quickly and cheaply by a Box "For Rent"

$7.00 BINDS THE BARGAIN Then $5.00 a Month. This Superb Grafonola Home Outfit Complete Only $78.90

Your Footwear Is the Smallest Part of Your Costume—But Most Important

Excursion Fares East From Omaha—Commencing June 1st

S. G. PETIGOLAS

Member American Institute of Electrical Engineers

1904 W. O. W. Bldg. Phone Douglas 5037.

NICOLL The Tailor Wm Jerrens Sons 209-211 So. 15th St.

Burlington Route

Stoptovers. Limits 60 days. These tours are examples of many others, including St. Lawrence River trip, Hudson River, Sound steamers, Great Lake boats, etc. Call, write or telephone; let us help you plan the most attractive tour at the least cost.

CITY TICKET OFFICE, Farnam and 16th Sts. Telephone: D. 1238, D. 3580.