

VICTIMS OF MOBS SEEK U. S. REFUGE

American Consulate Affords Protection for Hunted Germans in Capital of England.

TO INTERN ALL OF WAR AGE

LONDON, May 14.—The commissioner of police of London tonight issued orders for the arrest of all subjects of enemy countries of military age. It is expected that all these will be arrested or voluntarily surrender within a few days.

LONDON, May 14.—The statement of Premier Asquith in the House of Commons today, that all aliens of enemy countries of military age, between 17 and 55, would be interned and that this applies to those naturalized against whom there was any suspicion, and that the others would be repatriated, has satisfied those persons who were agitating for some drastic action.

As a result the riots in London and provincial towns have largely subsided. Such rioting as did take place today and tonight was carried on by mobs of boys, girls and women, who were out for fun or bent on looting German shops, while men stood by laughing or encouraging their youthful imitators. The police strongly reinforced by special constables, were better able to handle the situation today.

Some sent to jail. Following the wild scenes of yesterday and late last night some 500 or more active participants in attacks on German shops appeared in the police court of London today, and the magistrates read them severe lectures and imposed heavy penalties in most cases. Some of the more culpable were sentenced to jail terms at hard labor, the sentences ranging from a month to four months. Others, chiefly women, were fined. When men of military age appeared before the magistrates they were told sharply that the best way to get revenge on the Germans was to enlist.

In this latter connection the Westminster Gazette said today: "People who hunt aliens and assault their persons and loot their shops are not the people who are going to help us fight our enemies. They are loafers and shirkers who are not going to war, and whose violence has no patriotic motive."

It is notable that no complaints have been received of aliens suffering from personal injury. Of the many hundreds who appeared at the American embassy and consulate today seeking protection, none showed signs of having been engaged in encounter, but they desired compensation for the damage done their property and assurances that there would be no repetition of the attacks.

Most Make Reparation. Under English law the taxpayers of localities where the shops were wrecked and goods destroyed must pay compensation for the damage done in the riots, so that in many cases the very people who took part in the demonstrations will have to pay their share.

At South End the authorities took a more serious view of the case, as many of the men arrested were prominent citizens, who were angered by the recent Zappell raid. They were remanded for a week and heavy bail was demanded. Naturalized Germans, Austrians and Turks were today signing declarations repeating their oath of allegiance to Great Britain. One memorial from men of this class in the city of London has been sent direct to King George. Other memorials have been handed to the mayors of various cities. In all the memorials the men reaffirm their oath of allegiance and express abhorrence of the German methods of warfare.

Seek U. S. Protection. Streams of Germans poured into the American consulate all day. The consul general, Robert P. Skinner, was unable to do anything for them except to make an appeal in their behalf to Scotland Yard, which promised to do its utmost to protect them.

Few of the Germans who went to the consulate have suffered personal injury and many of them have not been molested in any way. They applied to Mr. Skinner in the hope of some form of protection in case of further outbreaks. About twenty Germans, among whom were a number of weeping women and children, called at the American embassy. They were advised to apply to the German branch of the American embassy at Carlton House Terrace, the former location of the German embassy. These persons, however, evidently feared to go to this address, for E. G. Lowry of the embassy staff, who is in charge of this branch of the work, reported that he had received no complaints.

Riots at Gravesend. GRAVESEND, England, May 13.—Anti-German riots broke out here this evening. The mob visited the premises occupied by Germans or persons bearing German names, wrecking the shops and throwing their contents into the streets.

TAKEN FROM BATTLEFIELD

Bible in Nixie Department May Mean Death of a Citizen of Idaho.

TO BE FORWARDED TO WIFE

At the nixie department of the Omaha postoffice has been received a package, that if it could tell its story, would probably give the details of an American who died on one of the battlefields in France during the present European war. The nixie is a small new testament, with this inscription on the inside of the front cover:

"L. Daugherty, born April 7, 1883. My wife, Mrs. M. L. Daugherty, Parma, Idaho. One boy, 4 years old, James Daugherty. Tenth British Infantry, No. 2007."

On the fly leaf in the front of the testament, printed with a rubber stamp, is the following:

"Presented by the British and Foreign Canadian Bible society to the Canadian soldiers in the war, 1914. Be strong and of good cheer."

Accompanying the enclosure is a letter the postoffice directory and finds that in Idaho there is a Parma and the package will be sent there.

The presumption around the postoffice is that Daugherty was a citizen of Idaho, went across the line and enlisted and with Canadian troops was sent to France. The postmark on the package indicates that it was sent from France, but the name of the office has been obliterated.

ELECTION EXPENSES TO CITY ARE OVER $4,500

Election Commissioner Moorhead has advised city officials that the expenses of the recent election was $4,500.87 for the city and $1,770.81 for the school board bond proposition.

STEALS LOVING MAN AWAY

Mrs. Smith Bares Her Back to Show Judge How She Had Been Carved by Rival.

JUDGE COULD ONLY IMPOSE FINE

There was nothing of the shrieking violet about Mrs. Amy Smith, 231 Pacific street, despite her boast in police court that she had never been arrested before. Mrs. Smith is a smiling and very comely young mulatto woman. A bloody cut marked her smooth right cheek, extending up under the high-piled hair of her head. Her filmy waist was soaked with blood. She was the complaining witness against Miss Carrie Green, an ebony-haired young woman living at 211 South Twenty-eighth street.

Miss Green, between her sobs, told the court that Mrs. Smith had stolen her loving man away. She admitted that, meeting the purloiner of her admirer in company with him, she had proceeded to cut her up with a small penknife. The scarlet scar and the bloody waist bore witness to Miss Green's ability as a carver. "I live way up by Farnam street, and I don't see why she got to come up where I live and steal away my beau," said Miss Green. "Specially when she's got a husband and a child of her own."

Mrs. Smith bubbled with scornful mirth while Miss Green gave her testimony.

Her Husband Away.

"Have you a husband?" inquired the court. "Oh, yass, I've got a husband, but he's away now," smiled Mrs. Smith. "His friend ain't married, an' I got as good a right to him as anyone else, ain't I?" Mrs. Smith seemed quite satisfied that this argument on morality was unanswerable.

"How badly did she cut you?" asked the court. "And before anyone could stop her, Mrs. Smith had stripped off her waist and leaped calmly and smilingly back against the judge's desk, displaying her back. Poor Judge Britt! He is a modest man. A blush crimsoned his cheeks. He stammered and only recovered when Mrs. Smith had been induced to dress again.

As that the court cannot restore 'lovin' men' that have been stolen away! The court could take no cognizance of the fact that Mrs. Smith was herself armed with a razor which she carried in her bosom. It could only fine Miss Green $10 and costs and congratulate her that the penknife with which she married Mrs. Smith's back was not long enough to reach to her heart.

Appellate Court Refuses to Deny Thaw Jury Trial

NEW YORK, May 14.—The appellate division of the supreme court decided today that it would not interfere with the plan to have Harry K. Thaw's mental status placed before a jury for determination. The court dismissed the prohibition writ which, if sustained, would have enjoined the supreme court from submitting the case to a jury next Monday.

FIREMEN FIGHT OIL FIRE

Monarch Manufacturing Company Suffers Loss that Will Crowd Twenty Thousand.

FIREMEN'S LIVES IN DANGER

Loss that will approximate more than $20,000 was inflicted on the plant of the Monarch Manufacturing company, South Sixth street and Eleventh avenue, Council Bluffs, late yesterday afternoon by a fire which followed a gasoline explosion on the shipping floor. Two of the employees, Lewis Moore, 288 South Twelfth street, and J. B. Hennigan, both living in the Bluffs, were painfully burned. Moore's injuries involve both arms from the finger tips to the shoulders, his face and neck and one leg and foot. The extent of the burns may cause fatal results. Hennigan was but slightly burned about the hands and face.

The fire involved more than 300,000 gallons of lubricating and all grades of machine oils, all of which was poured into the basement. A score or more of heavy explosions occurred when barrels of kerosene and shipping tanks of gasoline lit up. The oil room and shipping department of the plant was entirely destroyed, but the firemen saved the main building with its enormous stock of oils in shipping cases and permitted the employees to get out all of the valuable property in the office.

It was one of the most stubborn fires the Bluffs firemen have been called upon to control. Five companies responded to the alarm, which was turned in at 5:30 o'clock, and nine streams turned on the blazing oil.

The fire started when Moore, Hennigan and others were engaged in transferring fifty-three gallons of gasoline from a tank to another vessel. It slipped or something happened that permitted the gasoline to pour out on the floor and down into the basement, where a steam plant was in operation. An explosion followed that filled the basement and the whole room with flames and blew out the south wall of the building.

On the second floor immediately over the shipping room were eight tanks twelve to eighteen feet in diameter and some of them nearly twenty feet high, each containing more than 10,000 gallons of lubricating oil. When the wall was blown out these huge tanks were released and crashed into the basement. Moore and Hennigan were enveloped in flames at the first flash, but got outside in time to escape being crushed by the falling tanks.

The temperature of 96 at 4 p. m. was the same as Thursday at the same time. All schools were dismissed in the afternoon and Palm Beach suits were in order.

SLOAN TALKS OF THE CROPS

But Incidentally He Declares that the Tariff Will Be the Issue Next Year.

ATTENDS REPUBLICAN MEETING

Enthusiasm with crop prospects out in the state and more anxious to talk about them than politics, Congressman C. H. Sloan of Geneva is among the prominent republicans who came in for the party conference at Hotel Fontenelle Friday night. While hesitating, because in public office, to talk about the gathering of republicans of all shades of opinion for the purpose of party organization in the state for the next campaign, he nevertheless gave the impression that he was glad to see the spirit of unionism, co-operation and optimism that prevails among his fellow republicans.

"Tariff for protection or revenue only is sure to be a big issue in the next national campaign," he declared. "Just as sure as it was a leading issue in 1912, it is certain to be one in 1916. The democrats won in 1912 on the principle of tariff for revenue only, they enacted the tariff laws they promised, and now the country is feeling the result and will naturally decide at the next election whether or not that result is approved. From over $100,000,000 at the beginning of Wilson's administration, the national treasury surplus has dwindled to only $17,000,000 today, in spite of the avowed purpose of the democratic tariff and war tax legislation. And, mark the figures, of the $17,000,000 surplus that is left, $2,000,000 cannot be used to pay debts with."

"If the former tariff had remained in effect, over $50,000,000 more revenue would have been added to the treasury surplus just from imports into the north-west alone. It is quite evident that the tariff will be a big issue with the great northwest, as well as with other parts of the country. Among other issues, I expect there will be business legislation, the currency, canal tolls, foreign policy and the entire legislative record of the present administration."

Each Day the "Notice-to-Vacate" Sale is Fed and Refreshed by New Items

The Myers-Dillon man who is supposed to get out items for these announcements, was positively bewildered when asked for ammunition for today's "ad." "I don't know where to commence," says he, "there are a hundred thousand items in this stock and they are ALL reduced." So, that's the gist of it; this entire store and stock is one vast "Sale" item.

Everything from a Liver Pill to a Fountain Pen—One cent item or Ten dollar item—everything goes. See the windows—see the hundreds of "bargain boxes" in the store. Buy here now and you'll NEVER again speak of "drug store" prices with a trace of ridicule in your voice. This is a sale—a "Notice-to-Vacate" sale genuine.

All the Previously Advertised Prices Still Hold Good

Facts About This Colossal Drug Sale Told Again For the Benefit of Those Who May Not Yet Know

The Myers-Dillon Drug Co. has sold drugs on this corner for TWENTY-ONE YEARS. Its very name has been connected up with the word "Reliability" during every day of its career. But the march of progress heads not prestige, reliability or priority, and a few weeks ago Myers-Dillon were served with a "NOTICE TO VACATE" by July 2.

So here was the situation that confronted Myers-Dillon: A store and basement plumb, chock full of goods at 16th and Farnam Sts. and several Harney St. warehouses fairly overflowing with merchandise. The stock at that time amounted to about $75,000. Much has been sold since instituting this sale, but there still remains enough to stock a young wholesale drug house. Realize, then, that the "NOTICE TO VACATE" SALE is a businesslike, sincere endeavor to move this entire stock in a hurry. The prices are cut as drug prices were never before cut in Nebraska and THERE ISN'T A SINGLE ITEM IN THE STORE OR WAREHOUSES THAT ISN'T CUT IN PRICE. Ask, please, write or call for ANYTHING and its you're at wholesale cost, less than wholesale or even less than cost to make. (Phone and mail orders filled on the moment.)
