

WORKMEN PAYING LITTLE FOR PAPER

M. A. Huse Says Order Gives Less for Publication of Official Organ Than Other Societies.

EXAMINERS SHOW THIS TO BE SO

N. A. Huse of Norfolk, editor of the Nebraska Workman, the official organ of the Ancient Order of United Workmen of Nebraska, who was in Omaha during the day, said that it was unfortunate that the State Insurance Commission issued an erroneous official statement concerning the price paid by the Ancient Order of United Workmen for its publication.

It would have been less unfortunate, he said, if the mistake had not occurred on the eve of the grand lodge, where it was used in a political way.

The state insurance commissioner gave out a statement that the Nebraska Workman was costing the order 14 cents a copy, which would amount to $100 a thousand copies, or $200 a month.

"The truth of the matter is, as was established at the recent grand lodge session," said Mr. Huse, "that the Nebraska Workman is costing only 1/4 cent a copy, or $120 per thousand copies, which is the lowest price being paid for any official lodge publication that the state insurance commissioner's office was able to locate. Some other orders, the commissioner admitted, are paying as high as 4 cents a copy, or $40 a thousand."

When the insurance department's attention was called to the error the commissioner corrected the misstatement by saying that the examiners had quoted the price per year instead of the price per copy and that, in fact, the price per copy is 1/4 cent, and that this is lower than the cost of other similar publications, the price in many cases being 4 cents per copy or higher.

Germany Reports Second of Lusitania Blasts from Inside

BERLIN, May 14 (Via Amsterdam to London, May 15).—From the report received from the submarine which sank the Cunard line steamer Lusitania last Friday the following official version of the incident is published by the admiralty staff under the signature of Admiral Behm:

"The submarine sighted the steamer, which showed no flag, on May 7 at 7:30 o'clock, central European time, afternoon, on the southeast coast of Ireland, in fine clear weather.

"At 3:30 o'clock one torpedo was fired at the Lusitania, which hit its starboard side below the captain's bridge. The detonation of this torpedo was followed immediately by a further explosion of extremely strong effect. The ship quickly listed to starboard and began to sink.

"The second explosion must be traced back to the ignition of quantities of ammunition inside the ship."

Rush of Germans to Become U. S. Citizens

NEW YORK, May 15.—Since the sinking of the Lusitania the number of Germans applying for naturalization in this city has increased nearly 200 per cent, it was stated today by Naturalization Commissioner Wetser in the federal building. Mr. Wetser added that the greatest number of applications for some time had come from Russians and that the Germans were at the foot of the list until recently.

OSWALD DIDN'T CARE IF FATHER NEVER CAME

With muddy toes, a tattered white head, a pleasant grin, and a regular Willard punch in his right arm, little 4-year-old Oswald Anderson of Fifth and Locust streets, spent nearly four hours at police headquarters last night.

He knew his name was Oswald. He was not so sure about his last name. That was what made it necessary for him to stay so long.

He didn't mind the stay. He boxed with the officers, showing them all the latest turns in Willardism and all the has-been slashes of Bat Nelson. He wrestled with the station Tower, rolled on the floor, poked a muddy toe into the dog's eye, giggled, and didn't care a cent whether his mother or father called for him or not.

About 11 o'clock the officers got the parents over the telephone. They had lost him about 5 o'clock, and had been greatly worried, but had never thought of calling the police for information. So Pa Anderson came to the station and got his wandering child.

Workmen Have Blunder Corrected in Report of Cost of Their Publication.

INCREASE IN THE RATES

Local members of the Ancient Order of United Workmen who attended the grand lodge at Lincoln last week are denouncing what they say is a blunder made by the state insurance commissioner's office in criticizing the order in connection with the price paid for the official organ, the Nebraska Workman.

The insurance commissioner made an official statement saying that the publication was costing the order 14 cents a copy, whereas other orders were paying from 2 to 4 cents. The commissioner's auditors after several days' delay admitted that they had made a blunder, as the contract price for the Nebraska Workman is only 1/4 cent per copy, which is a lower price than the insurance department has been able to find for any other similar publication.

"The session of the grand lodge, it is said, was harmonious in every way and the outgoing officers, Grand Master Workman A. J. Walling, Grand Recorder F. C. Whittlesley and Grand Trustee John H. Bennett, were all given a vote of appreciation for their efficient and faithful performance of the duties entrusted to them. The rates of the order were increased according to a plan submitted by Judge Walling, and the prospects for the order's prosperity and success were never better. The state insurance department found that every penny of lodge funds was properly accounted for. The reserve fund, which had decreased to $13,000, has been used during the last four years in meeting death losses.

In the matter of loans on Nebraska lands, the cases in which interest is delinquent are cases in which foreclosure have been begun. These cases are surprisingly few when it is considered that hundreds of thousands of dollars are invested in farm land securities.

The new grand master, Frank A. Anderson, is a graduate of state university. Omaha captured the next convention for 1917.

Omaha Camp No. 120, M. W. A., Champion Drill Team

For Tuesday evening this week at the Boyd theater a special event is scheduled. It is to be Modern Woodmen night and the feature between acts will be the expert performance of the champion drill team of America.

This organization, from camp No. 120 of Omaha, has a most unusual record. For fifteen years it has been commanded by Captain H. C. Martens, and during that time it has competed in thirty drill contests and won twenty-two first prizes.

Every national encampment the team has attended, and during the many competitions has failed but once in winning a prize.

In march formations and expertness in the manual of arms the performance of this team has the precision of clockwork. The twenty men move as one man. Their exhibition has a sprit and accuracy and an unflinching sureness of movement which will please most those spectators who best understand military tactics.

For drill and movements this team has a record of the highest score ever achieved by any of the hundreds of similar organizations in the Modern Woodmen of America. It is anticipated that their work Tuesday evening will be the very best they have ever done.

Itched Badly. Disfigured by Time Being. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Made Complexion Clearer. Face Entirely Healed.

New Cambria, Mo.—"The first thing I began to notice some eruptions on my face. They were small pimples forming. They would itch so badly that I could hardly keep from picking at them. When I did it seemed as if they kept spreading. I was disfigured for the time being; my face was totally covered with the pimples. They were so bad I hated to have a person see my face. It was in this condition a year or over."

"I read in the paper of how good Cuticura Soap and Ointment were and I resolved to try them. After I used them several times they seemed to heal the places and make my complexion clearer. I spread the Ointment on my face and let it remain for about five minutes and then washed it off with very hot water and Cuticura Soap. My face was entirely healed." THE HAIR BEAUTY THAT BELONGS TO YOU

So many who have long known that hair beauty was certain to follow upon systematic hair care have been loath to commence what they mistakenly think too much trouble. Proper hair care means only keeping the scalp and hair perfectly clean by use of some preparation made for shampooing, not for general cleansing. You can enjoy the best that is known for about three cents a shampoo by getting a package of Canthrox from your druggist. Dissolve a teaspoonful in a cup of hot water and your shampoo is ready. After its use the hair dries rapidly with uniform color. Dandruff, excess oil and dirt are dissolved and entirely disappear. Your hair will be so fluffy that it will look much heavier than it is. Its luster and softness will also delight you, while the stimulated scalp gains the health which insures hair growth.—Advertisement.

Now With Seven-Passenger Body

If you haven't been in to see the new seven-passenger Chandler, arrange to call at once. We do not remember that any other car has been viewed with such enthusiasm. You will surely be delighted with it.

Admirers of the Chandler—and they are a host—have found everything to please them, and not a thing to disappoint them, in the New Season's seven-passenger model.

A distinctly reassuring feature is the fact that there is not a single thing about this car that's of an experimental nature. The $1295 Chandler price announced in January holds good on this big, roomy seven-passenger model, still not a detail of design or materials anywhere in the car has been cheapened in quality to make this price possible. Except for the longer wheel-base and the seven-passenger body, and some lesser refinements and improvements, it is the same Chandler that was so popular last year at $1595 and with only a five-passenger body.

In the tonneau of the new seven-passenger body there is no cramping or crowding. You will be impressed by the clever construction of the auxiliary seats. When not in use they fold away neatly into the floor and the back of the front seat, converting the car into an exceptionally spacious five-passenger carriage. No thumb-screws or levers of any nature are necessary for their adjustment.

The demand for the Chandler all over the country is so sweeping that the factory will be hard driven to fill all orders, even with its production for the year immensely increased. Our allotment is liberal, but limited. And beyond that limit we shall not be able to supply our patrons. If you will get your order in now we will take care of you.
