With the advent of warmer days, the club season is on the wane. The Omaha Women's club year closed several weeks ago and the annual meeting of the Association of Collegiate Alumnae was held Saturday.

The cessation of other club activities will give the temperance women full sway. With the distribution of the initiative petitions for state-wide prohibition Wednesday, when Mrs. M. M. Claffin, the state president, was here, the campaign opened. The propaganda meetings of the temperance workers will replace the activities of the suffragists of last summer.

The last meeting of the music section of the Association of Collegiate Alumnae will be an evening musicale at the home of Mrs. Herbert C. Woodland, Monday evening, May 24. Mrs. Frank Warren Johnson will be leader of the program, those taking part including Miss Avis Roberts, Miss Alice Fry, Miss Elizabeth Fry, Mrs. Le Roy Savell, Mrs. Harland Lester Mossman, Mrs. Roy Docherty, Miss Irma Jones, Miss Hendrickson and Mrs. Woodland.

Mrs. A. O. Scott was re-elected president of the Clio club Thursday at the home of Mrs. A. N. Eaton. Mrs. M. E. Lease and Mrs. F. C. Shepard were re-elected vice presidents. Mrs. Ralph Russell is the new secretary and Mrs. W. M. McFarland is treasurer.

The Bay View study course on South America, Mexico and Panama was adopted for next year. A picnic for club members and their families will be arranged during the summer.

Mrs. Charles Ziebarth was re-elected president of the North Side Mothers' club for the third time. Mrs. R. H. Fair is vice president and Mrs. G. R. Gilbert secretary-treasurer. There will be one more meeting to conclude the club year on Tuesday, June 8, and several picnic meetings will be held during the summer.

A May day party will be given at the home of Mrs. Curtis Cook Wednesday afternoon by the Woman's club of the railway mail service. The decorations will be suggestive of May time and there will be flower games for the members. A musical program will be given. The affair is in charge of Mrs. A. C. Rawson, chairman of the program committee.

Rev. S. Levermore of London will give a popular illustrated lecture, "The Thimble-Miles with a Gospel Wagon in France," at the First Presbyterian church Thursday evening. The lecture is given under the auspices of the Woman's Missionary federation.

The Benson Women's Christian Temperance union meets Friday at the home of Mrs. E. F. Whittier. The regular program will be led by Mrs. P. A. Leake.

The Benson Foreign Missionary society will meet Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. F. Whittier. The regular program will be led by Mrs. P. A. Leake.

The Benson Women's Christian Temperance union meets Friday at the home of Mrs. R. S. Beasley in Council Bluffs. The Mothers' club will meet there at the same time.

The Benson B. L. S. club meets Thursday at St. Bernard's hall. After the regular session, a card party will be given.

The West Side Woman's Christian Temperance union will meet Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. Stevens, 914 South Forty-eighth street.

The Omaha North Side circle of the Child Conservation League of America has arranged a "Mothers Day" program for the last meeting of the year, which will be held Friday afternoon at the Monmouth park school auditorium. The program will include a paper, "What Constitutes a Modern Good Mother," by Mrs. W. O. Edholm; paper, "A Woman's Duty to Herself," by Mrs. F. A. Miller; paper, "A Woman's Civic Duty," by Mrs. J. H. Crouch. Mrs. C. A. McKenzie has arranged musical numbers to be given by Mrs. Nancy Kinner, Miss Emily Lear and "Cryo." The Sweet Boy Singer. Roll call response will be quotations on "Mother."

This will conclude the circle's first year of work. An invitation has been extended to all North Omaha mothers to attend.

At the last meeting Mrs. Karl R. Ogden was elected president; Mrs. Charles J. Wonder vice president; Mrs. C. A. McKenzie, secretary; Mrs. J. H. Crouch, treasurer, and Mrs. W. O. Edholm, press reporter.

The Clio Study club meets at the home of Miss Pauline Rosenbergs Monday evening to plan next year's work.

Mrs. F. E. George will entertain chapter F of the P. E. O. sisterhood at a 1 o'clock luncheon Thursday. The business will be assisted by Mrs. W. S. Hogue.
