Joe Bills, once of this city, was the slugging gent of the Sabbath matines. He poled four blows and walked once in five trips to the rubber, thus giving him a perfect average. One of the hits was a circuit clout and two were doubles. Joe also made a nice error to complete his activities.

Dick Breen was the best bataman for the Rourkes. Dick's batting eye came back yesterday and he nicked Mogridge for three hits. Breen's batting and the fielding of Thomason and Forsythe were the only redeeming features of the game. Thomason and Forsythe both made two swell running catches of drives from the bat of Tex Jones, and Cy also coniributed a nifty peg to the plate to catch Mogridge a city block, trying to count Dell, rf.....
