KAWS ARE TRIMMED AGAIN BY ROURKES

Iron Man Grover Is Called to the Rescue, but He Arrives a Little Too Late.

ROCHE'S ERROR DOES WORK

Down in Kawtown they call Bert Grover an iron man. Probably he is. Yesterday when things were going hard young Mr. Clunn, a beardless southpaw from some place or other, Jimmy Jackson turned his megaphone loose in center field and huztled Bertle to the bull pen to prepare to take up the rescue work, despite the fact that Bertie had heaved an entire nine innings and been walluped Friday. Bert took up the job in the sixth, but it was too late, as the Rourkes had made enough to win the game, 3 to 2, even though they failed to connect once with Bertie's slants during the remainder of the combat.

A casual glance at the box score would indicate that the pastime yesterday was some ball game. It would have been but for the fact that it dragged out for over two hours, due to the propensity of both Larson and Clunn to loaf and waste time while Umps Geisel, who evidently was in no hurry to go any place, let them loaf at will. Also Larson was extremely wild and only in two innings was he not in hot water.

Kafora Makes Long Deive. The Rourkes got the jump on the Kaws in the opening frame and it is well they With two down Cy Forsythe, natural enemy of all Kawtown residents, landed on ong of young Mr. Clunn's southpaw slants for a safe blow. Jake Kafora, who was laboring behind the bat, proved that he was just the guy to occupy the clean-up position in the batting order by driving one to the left field tence for two sacks while the Tango Kid galloped gaily home.

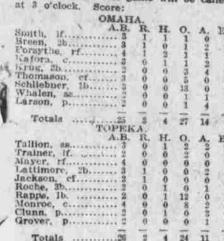

For the next four innings but three butters per round faced the Kaw southpaw. He was hurling swell ball, while Larson was in constant trouble, due to his wildness.

Topeka tied the game up in the sixth, and without the aid of a safe hit. Larso dished out a gratis trip to Lattimore bstart the stanza and Whalen bobble. Jackson's roller. A sacrifice by Rock advanced both men and Roaring Bt Rapps lifted a sacrifice fly to Thomeson, which entitled Lattimore to mark.

Roche Makes Heetle Heave. In the last half of the sixth the Rourkes put over the two counts which annexed the fray. Smith beat out a hit and Clunn was so excited he walked Breen. Forsythe put down a bunt, best it a mile to first and then Roche staged a three-base heave into the bleachers. Before the pill was recovered by the frantic Roaring Bill, Smith and Breen had rambled round the runway for tallies and Forsythe was perched on third chiding the Kaws most gleefully. At this point Grover was brought in and nothing more stirred. Even the Tango Kid couldn't edge his way home, although he tried it on a near-passed ball by Kid Monroe, the pugilistic catcher.

Tommy Meffs Fly.
After two were down in the eightn Artie Thomason committed a miscus. He muffed an easy fly right in his hands by Jackson. In four trips to the plate Jackon errors. That guy must have been born with a horseshoe in his left mitt. Red Roche, who had made the beautiful three-base heave, poked a two-basser down McCormick, rf., cf. 4 the third base line and Jackson scored. Larson settled down in the ninth and retired three in a row.

Today another battle will be staged between the Rourkes and the league's leaders. They are due for another bumping, declares Krug. The game will be called at 3 o'clock. Score:
