McShane Wires that All the Foreign Cars and the Best of the Americans Will Enter.

RACES TO BE HERE JULY FIFTH

The management of the Omaha Speedway is feeling highly elated over a message received from Felix McShane, Jr., secretary of the association, giving assurance of a large number of the leading racing men of the country for the races here July 5.

Looks like we will get all the foreign cars, including the Palmes and Richenbacher. Expect we will have nearly all the good ones. We are trying to deal with Oldfield. Will advise later. Anyhow, things are looking A-1.

The management of the Speedway has been going ahead with the completion of the big track, which is said to be one of the fastest in the world.

To Attract Thousands. That thousands will be attracted to Omaha by these races is assured, according to the management, who are preparing a publicity campaign so that all in the territory tributary to Omaha may early learn of the big event.

As an additional attraction in Omaha on that date will be the wrestling match between Joe Stecher and Charles Cutler, which will be staged at Rourke park the same evening.

Bancroft School to Have Field Day Exercises Today

Hand Ball is a Great Game and Should Be Played More

It just shows that the sport writers don't report all the big ath-let-ic events. Here are the papers paying fat telegraph tolls on the big league games, the Johnson-Willard fight, and Outmet winning a gawf championship, and right here in town a big sporting event that they didn't 'cover' at all.

Hand ball at Y. M. C. A. fellers! Some game. John A. ("Kid") Wharton, postmaster of Omaha, and Georges Rasmussen, vice president of the Nebraska Bridge and Lumber Supply company, on the one side, and George ("Battling") Brandeis, manager of the Brandeis stores, and C. C. Nelson, commission merchant, on the other.

No use talking, these boys are comers. They've got the pep and the punch. Why, it took two umpires to run the third and deciding game, which, as "Kid" Wharton puts it, "was so vigorously fought that it took two umpires to prevent blood from being spilt on the clean floor of the revered Y. M. C. A. building."

Get a careful of this, fellers. Each side has won one game. This was the deciding round out of three. The stakes was a lunch at the Pontenelle. As intimated above, the sport writers of the big papers weren't there. The "A. P." didn't have wires running direct from the "gym," two continents were not waiting with bated breath for the outcome. Nevertheless and notwithstanding—

But on with our tale. Let sport be unconfined.

CORPORATIONS PAY FOR MANY INJURIES

Union Pacific and Street Railway Companies Settle Dozen Cases Out of Dozen.

SOME LARGE SUMS ARE PAID

The Union Pacific railroad and the local street railway company yesterday settled a dozen personal injury suits in which plaintiffs asked large damages and confessed judgment in district court to an amount of more than $22,000. It was a field day for plaintiffs and their attorneys. The damages conceded without trials by the corporations broke the record in Omaha in point of the day's total and the largest single judgment for personal injuries ever entered by settlement of a case, according to M. G. McLeod, district court cashier.

T. A. Danahoe, attorney for Arthur W. Spence, injured in an automobile accident on the Q street viaduct in South Omaha, drew the largest settlement for his client, when he received $10,000 from the Union Pacific, on which he has an attorney's lien of $10,000. Suit had been brought for $75,000. He declared that the amount of the lien did not determine the share his client was to receive.

"The lien was a proper one," asserted Mr. Danahoe, "and does not determine the amount which Mr. Spence will receive."

Heirs of William Reschke who was killed while riding in the car with Spence settled their suit for his death for $3,000. From Auto Wreck.

The Union Pacific confessed judgment in suits growing out of an accident at North Bond when an automobile load of persons was struck by an engine, in which $23,000 damages was asked in the following amounts: Heirs of Mrs. Anne E. Griffin, who was killed, $4,500.

Mrs. Cassie Malloy, $750. Evangeline and Geraldine Malloy, aged 10 and 5 years, $250 each. Miss Mary Griffin, $500. Robert Griffin, $500. Robert J. Griffin, $1,250.

Two Street Car Cases.

The street railway settled suits brought by Daniel Kenney for $18,000 and Ellen Ford for $75,000. These suits were dismissed with prejudice, the amounts paid by the company not being revealed. In the latter case a jury had once disagreed. The suit brought by Daniel J. Johnson, 8 years of age, which had been twice tried with the jury both times disagreeing, was settled by the street railway company for $250, according to a stipulation filed. It was alleged that Daniel was injured when a larger boy attacked him on a street car.

Rheem Recalls the First Thought of Ak

L. M. Rheem of Helena, Mont., secretary of the Helena Commercial club, although he has been away from Omaha a long time, still remembers the day he and a few friends thought of organizing Ak-Sar-Ben. Acknowledging the receipt of his membership card this year he writes Samson a letter telling just how it all happened. He says he and Walter Jardine and Dudley Smith stood on the street in Omaha twenty years ago when times were hard and watched the discouraged Omaha people going home from their work, many of them without the assurance that a meal would be waiting for them.

Swedish Consul Says Police Have Done Their Best

"It is my opinion, and also the opinion of the majority of the Swedish people of Omaha, that the police department has done all that is possible, so far, toward the unraveling of the mystery surrounding the murder of Ada Swanson," said P. A. Edquist, Swedish consul.

Consul Edquist was very indignant over articles that have been published in Omaha newspapers in which the fact was stated that the Swedish people were to hold a meeting Friday evening at the Swedish auditorium, censoring the action taken by the police in the case.

"We have no fault to find whatsoever with the work of Chief Maloney and his men in this affair, and are sure that the chief and his subordinates are availing themselves of every chance to bring the murderer to justice."

"The meeting Friday night will be held for the purpose of organizing the Swedish people to co-operate with the police, either financially or otherwise, in an effort to apprehend the individual who perpetrated this foul deed. We want representatives of the police department so that we may all form a plan of working together toward the ultimate end."
