

FLOUR HAS FALLEN TEN CENTS HERE

Dime Drop from Quotation Per Sack of This Well Known Necessity.

MANY BUYING NEW POTATOES

When a dime dropped off the price of a sack of flour in the last week, it was the first time that had performed such a feat in many months.

Sugar has advanced 10 points again, and the tendency of the retail price is to go up.

Butter is steady and eggs are a half cent off on the wholesale market.

Southern green stuff is about off the market. Home grown green produce is on the market now.

New potatoes have come down off their high limb. They can be had for 3 1/2 cents a pound now.

Cuban pineapples are about off the market, and the Floridas are in the lead at present.

Beef is somewhat higher, especially chuck. Pot roasts that cost 12 cents a pound a week ago are now selling at 14 cents.

Pork is fairly steady, with loins at 12 cents and chops at 13 cents.

Spring chickens are coming on the market in appreciable quantities for the first time this spring.

Lambs are down $1 a hundred, which is the first drop recorded in two months.
