Cut Orchids Are Allowed to Pass Out of Holland

TERNEUZEN, Netherlands, June 3.— This little fortified Dutch town, in ordinary times a customs office of minor consequence, has come to be the principal port of communication between the Netherlands and Belgium. As rail comnunication with Antwerp is so uncertain as to be practically cut off, that most fertile and, before its decimation by war. most populous section of all Europe, which lies about the Belgian city of

At least one curious product of Belgian intensive agriculture, however, is still freely exported to Holland-indeed, is intensive agriculture, however, is still freely exported to Holland-indeed, is oven more freely exported than ever before, since there is now no demand for it in Belgium. This product is out orchids, for the retail florist's trade. Every day there pass through this port scores of light boxes, consigned to florists in Amsterdam. The Hague Rotterdam and even to England, containing hundreds of orchids of many species, carefully packed in cotion and in tissue paper. The two small towns of Neirolbeke, between the Waes, furnish them, and are famous amens florists throughout Europe for their orchid houses. Owing to their nearness to these points, the larger cities of the Netherlands have always been heavy purchasers of these beautiful and exotic plants; and the flower shop windows of Amsterdam and The Hague have for years been gorgeous bowers of exquisite

Wheat Receipts Big and Prices Drop Two to Four Cents as Futures Hit Toboggan.

CORN RECEIPTS ARE HEAVY

OMAHA, June 8, 2015.
There was a big increase in the receipts of all grains on the local exchange local. Although the demand for wheat was good, the market suffered another drup of 2 to 4 cents per bushel. This decline was probably due to the drop in the futures and also on account of the increased receipts.

The sales of corn and oats were good. The corn market was off 1 to 2 cents, while oats were quoted % to 1% cents lower.

while oats were quoted % to 1% cents lower.

Messages received from St. Louis and Kansas City told of the increased offarings of new crop there and of the reports received from Oklahoma that the cutting of wheat will be general there by June 15. That state is expected to raise 80,00,000 bushels.

Clearances were: Wheat and flour equal to 68,000 bushels.

Liverpool niose: Wheat, ic to 20 lower; corn, unchanged to 20 lower; corn, unchanged to 20 lower.

Frimary wheat receipts were 65,000 bushels, against receipts of 290,000 bushels and shipments 415,000 bushels and shipments 415,000 bushels and shipments of 1,019,000 bushels and shipments of 1,019,000 bushels and shipments of 1,019,000 bushels and shipments of 980,000 bushels, against receipts of 980,000 bushels and shipments of 980, Prices on Board of Trade.

CHICAGO, July 5.—Heavy selling on the part of the big concerns today carried wheat decisively down grade. The result was a weak close at 24,20% under last night.

Corn finlaned 1%20% to 1% down, eats off % to 14,20% cand provisions at losses varying from 24,25% to 10212%.

Although it seemed at one time as if the declining tendency in wheat had been checked, the prospect was entirely dispelled about half an hour before the close. At that juncture the selling broadened out to proportions which swept the market lower than ever before since the shadow of the new grop began to force values to shrink. In this connection many reports were received today indicating an early harvest. Southern Illinois, for example, was expected to cut wheat next week.

Agents of an Alleged Base Ball Pool Held

PHILADELPHIA, June 5.—Three alleged agents of a base ball pool, in which it is said $6,000 Philadelphians gamble good deal to intensity bearish sentiment regarding wheat. Feeling was also influenced by the continued fall in quotations from Liverpool.

Corn followed the lead of wheat. Predictions were for enlarged receipts next week. The arrivals here of late have been smaller than at any corresponding time in five years. Weakness of oats appeared to come chiefly from sympathy with the action of other grains. Offerings of new crop cats to arrive increased to a considerable extent.

Provisions had no adequate support. It was said packers were trying to unload their holdings of lard and ribs.

No session of the Chicago Board of Trade will be held on Monday. The day is a legal holiday here owing to a judicial election.

Dictionary Has No

COLUMBUS, O., June 6 .- Thirty-three Ohio school children spelled so well that they withstood a rapid fire of different words lasting through all of today, exhausted a list of 5,000 words prepared in advance, and set committees to work tonight searching dictionaries for even more tangled letter combinations in the state-wide spelling "bee" held here today under direction of the Ohio Agricultural commission. Shortly before midnight they were still standing. Seventy-five boys and girls, each the champion youthful speller of his county, had entered the contest early in the day.
