Coffee Market.

NEW YORK, June 9.—COFFEE—The market for futures opened at a decline of $63 points and active months sold $67 points not lower during the early trading under scattering liquidation, which seemed to be due to nervousness over political conditions. The demand for nearmonth shorts was little in evidence at the start, but became more active at the decline and prices rallied later in the day on covering and a little trade buying which was accompanied by reports of a firmer cost and freight situation. The close was net 2 points lower to 2 points nigher, with July relatively firm.
